John LaVillette, now stationed on one of the ships of the Pacific mosquito fleet, was home on a furlough last week. He says he just had a dandy time, only not enough time to visit with all of his friends. He is gaining weight and happy as always.

The Cozyhome Construction Company have this week taken out permits for six more residences in St. Johns, ranging in cost from $1400 to $2000. Three of these new residences will be located at Leonard and Buchanan streets, and the other trio at Leonard and Burr streets.

William Zige, of St. Johns died at the Good Samaritan hospital on April 2, 1918, of paralysis, after an illness of about three months. He was a native of Missouri. Funeral took place April 5th; interment in Multnomah Park cemetery, Miller & Tracey being in charge.

Concert by John Claire Monteith in High School Auditorium, Friday night, April 19, at 8 o'clock. The first part of the program will be given by the H. S. Glee Clubs. The second part of the program will be a recital by Mr. Monteith. No admission will be charged.

"A great Nation, in war for a great cause and sure to win" will be the theme of every sermon and song and prayer at the Methodist church during these wonderful days of struggle, out of which will come forth "A new Heaven and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness."

We read in an exchange about a printer who started in business twenty years ago with nothing but a Canadian half dollar and is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth was the result of frugality, good habits, hard work, strict attention to business, and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.50.

Charles I. Spellman, Jewish Evangelist, of Seattle, Wash., will speak at the St. Johns Baptist church Sunday afternoon, April 14, at 3 p. m. His subject will be the "Jewish Question in Relation to Messianic Prophecy." The Evangelical, Methodist and Christian churches uniting.—Fred T. Mills, Missionary to the Jews, of Portland, Oregon.

While marching along in the shipbuilders parade with his fellow workers last Saturday night, N. A. Neilson, of 451 Jessup street, an employee of the Grant Smith-Porter Shipbuilding Company, toppled over and died on the way to the hospital. The dead man's age is in the neighborhood of 60 years and heart failure is thought to have been the cause of his death.

The Red Cross Society of University Park will present a highly interesting program at the Artisan hall April 15th. A quartette composed of soldiers from Vancouver will be one of the features. Besides musical numbers there will be athletic events that will be unusually interesting. It is earnestly desired that many from St. Johns will attend. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

The Womans Christian Temperance Union will meet next Monday afternoon in the new rooms of the Y. W. C. A. in the city hall. We hope to show our appreciation of this organization by having a large attendance. We expect to have good music and Mrs. S. J. Kerr will give us a paper on "Hand-picking Your Child's Habits, and Why." Come and enjoy the afternoon with us. We meet at 2 o'clock.—Reporter.
