BONHAM & CURRIER

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTES A NECESSITY.

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something home-like and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This home-like, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys. The Red Cross has distributed thousands of LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes.

Be sure to buy a Liberty Bond and help to win the war.

Hung Out Flag Today

The following poem was written by Miss Etta Patterson and read at the Flag service on Easter Sunday at the Evangelical church:

I've just got letter from home, boys,
And I don't know what to say,
For the church I attended so long, boys,
Has hung out a flag today.
It's white with a wide red border,
And it's hung where all can see,
And on its field of white, boys,
There's a star of blue for me.
They've remembered me with the others
That have gone to win this war,
And I think of the folks a home now
As I never thought before.
They said they'd remember me, boys,
And I never gave a care,
Until I read of the flag, boys,
That they hung for me back there.

The church I remember so well, boys,
And the Sunday school class at home,
We used to have fun on Sundays
In that good old balcony room.
I'm afraid I wasn't a model,
But the teacher so kind was he,
And it makes me kind o' sorry
When I think, they remembered me.

But they seem to think it an honor
And they're proud of me back there,
And I read in this letter from home
That they mentioned me in their prayer.
And some have my name on their prayer-list,
And they pray for me each day.
They pray that God be my helper
To protect in the midst of the fray.

I'm glad that they hung that flag out,
With the star of blue for me;
I'm glad that blue means true, boys,
And true I'll try to be.
I'm going to find a church some where,
And I'll spend my Sundays there;
When they next get a letter from me, boys,
They'll find an answered prayer.

Send for Swift & Company's 1918 Year Book

It shows that Swift & Company sells the meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost!

Proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat, and other by-products covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and the profit of $1.29 per steer as shown by Swift & Company's 1917 figures as follows:

Average price paid for live cattle per steer	$84.45
Average price received for meat	68.97
Average price received for by-products	24.09
Total received	93.06
This leaves for expenses and profit	8.61
Of which the profit per steer was	1.29

There are many other interesting and instructive facts and figures in the Year Book.

We want to send our 1918 Year Book, to anyone, anywhere — free for the asking. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago.
