J. S. McKinney has erected a fine garage at his home on Central avenue, and also has become the possessor of a new auto.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Neighbors of Woodcraft and others interested in Red Cross work, to meet with us.—Reported.

J. S. McKinney has opened up a branch real estate office on Lombard street at Portsmouth, which will be conducted by Mrs. McKinney.

John F. Benton, formerly of Michigan, has opened up a blacksmith shop at 116 North Ivanhoe street, and will do wood work as well as general blacksmithing.

Roscoe Magone and Martin Larsen have purchased a fine fishing boat and leave this week for Ketchikan, Alaska, where they expect to engage in fishing until July. Upon their return they expect to fish in the Columbia river.

Mr. and Mrs. James Byrnes, of Meade, Kansas, arrived in St. Johns last Saturday, and have taken up their abode at 109 N. Swenson street. They are old time friends of S. C. Cook and family. Mr. Byrnes has accepted a position at the local ship plant.

What has become of the immense ship plant that the Duponts were going to erect in this vicinity and which we are were trying to figure out would locate in St. Johns? The Portland papers which were so full of its coming a few short days ago, are now strangely quiet upon the subject. Why?

Mrs. G. B. Nickerson, 446 Chicago street, St. Johns, took the oath of office, was presented with a star as badge of authority and last week entered upon her duties as one of Portland's six policewomen appointed recently by Mayor Baker. Mrs. Nickerson will be attached to the Women Protective Bureau, of which Mrs. G. J. Frankel is the acting superintendent.

Wednesday evening, April 10th, Rev. Jones and wife returned from an auto ride to find about 43 of their friends awaiting them at their home. The event was a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Jones' birthday. Interesting and educational Bible games and music furnished the entertainment for the evening, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mrs. Jones received a number of beautiful and useful gifts, among which was a silver cake basket presented by the men and women of the church. After delicious refreshments were served the guests separated at a late hour all wishing Mrs. Jones many more happy birthdays.

Athill was the first to enlist and is with Pershing's army at the front. Harry is on the medical staff and awaiting orders.

Dr. J. V. Scott returned Monday from a three weeks' sojourn in California. While there he attended the Seventh Day Adventist Convention at San Francisco and also, in company with his brother, toured the Southern part of the state by auto. He says while at San Diego he had the pleasure of meeting seven St. Johns boys now in Uncle Sam's service.

Piano pupils of Nettie Leona Foy were heard in an interesting program last Saturday at her studio in the Stearns building. The program included a liberal number of classics by Bach, Handel, Beethoven, etc., as well as the lighter modern works which were well interpreted by the young students. Mrs. Fred L. Olson delighted the audience with a group of Liza Lehmann's songs, most charmingly sung. Those who took part in the recital were: Katherine Bonham, Margaret Brandes, Robert Currier, Mary Harney, Cornelia Minsinger, Ena Pullin, Alice Schmidt, Ellen Schwartz, Margaret Steckle and Nancy Thompson.
