Mrs. Irvin L. Gromachey and little daughter left Wednesday for Newport, Oregon, where they will join Mr. Gromachey who is now in Uncle Sam's signal service at that place. The editor is in receipt of a letter from Irvin, in which states that he is getting along in fine style and is enjoying his work immensely.

Our people are now pretty well accustomed to the fact that the stores close on Wednesday afternoons, and little inconvenience is being experienced by reason thereof. The store keepers and their assistants work long hours and the half day of recreation will no doubt prove of great benefit to them.

The Knights of Pythias of Portland will picnic at Council Crest next Tuesday evening. A big program has been prepared and a most enjoyable outing is anticipated. All local Knights are expected to attend. Take your lunch, and be there in time for picnic dinner at about seven o'clock.

J. R. Chauncey, the expert watchmaker and jeweler who has located in the new Fletcher building on North Jersey street, has a good sized ad. in this issue. Mr. Chauncey came to St. Johns from Portland proper, and besides being a first class jeweler, is a pleasant and agreeable gentleman as well. He has a fine line of jewelry goods on hand, and solicits a share of the public patronage. His prices are right and his workmanship is guaranteed.

The St. Johns Chautauqua will soon be here, the dates being July 16-22. The local committee held a meeting in the library last Friday evening for the purpose of outlining plans for the ticket campaign and working out other details in regard to the Chautauqua. The Committee will meet every Friday evening in the library until the Chautauqua appears. The event this year promises to far exceed that of last year in general interest. Keep it in mind and be prepared to purchase a season ticket.

The W. S. S. drive in St. Johns has been proving very successful, and in only a very few instances have the various committees that have been waiting upon our people been turned down. This district is in charge of Commissioner A. A. Muck, with the following captains working under his general supervision: J. S. McKinney, A. W. Davis, Rev. A. P. Layton, J. F. Gillmore, Roy H. Knowles, W. M. Tower and F. A. Rice. It is pleasing to note that the citizens of St. Johns are doing their bit in W. S. S., as in all other patriotic campaigns. St. Johns can always be depended upon to do its full share toward furthering the cause of Liberty.

Miss Nettie Leona Foy was in Camp Lewis last Saturday and Sunday where she played the accompaniment while Mrs. Judge Olson sang a number of vocal selections, which were keenly appreciated by the soldiers.

The Italian troops are deserving of the highest praise for the superb manner in which they turned the big Austrian drive into an utter rout. The Italians are splendid fighters, as their heroic work during the past week has fully demonstrated.

The hearing of the Columbia Slough closing project before Colonel Zinn Tuesday morning was well attended and the case argued from its various angles. The Port of Portland Commission, which has jurisdiction over the Slough, is making an extensive investigation into the entire matter, and Colonel Zinn announced that no decision will be reached by the war department, until a report first is received from this commission. Petitions protesting against the proposed closing of the Slough will be circulated in St. Johns, and it is expected that all citizens of the Lower Peninsula especially will append their signature thereto.
