"Patronize home institutions," cries the editor in the home paper week after week. "That is right," says the merchant. Give it to those who go to some other town to buy goods."

Then, with his heart filled with kindness toward the loyal editor. he sends his job work to Kalamazoo, and refuses to advertise in the home paper, assuming that the paper does not reach many-in other words, that the circulation is small, and for that reason it does not pay to advertise in it, when in fact he may profit from an ad. in the home

Now is not this poor logic? If the paper is a help in exhorting the people of the community to patronize the home merchant and all other home institutions, why will it not be a help to the merchant who advertises in its

In order to get results, all should work together-editor and business men of the community, and only so will the people be brought to realize that the community can be built up. Are you ready to join in and help the home paper, and in turn let it help you. Every property owner should know if all the business enterprises in the community received is support, that it would enhance the value of his property by establishing sound institutions in their midst .- Mt. Mrs. Ralph Caples was the winner of the beautiful diamond ring given by the Hizz medicine show while here, in a most exciting and thrilling ladies' nail driving contest. Mrs. Caples suffered the pain of a sore finger, by hitting the wrong nail, but won out at that. The Hizz medicine show is said to have won many friends during the five weeks here. They have now moved to Portsmouth.

At the request of the U.S. Food Adminstration, our Company has loaned one of our Modern Electric Ranges to be used for the Food Conservation demonstrations now being conducted in the Liberty Temple.

Do you wantany stronger approval of any cooking device than this?

Incle Sam asked us for an Electric Range because it fills the bill better than any other Cooking Device made.

We urge all housewives interested in the patriotic service of their country as well as all who want their kitchens equipped with the most modern, convenient and reliable cooking apparatus to visit the Liberty Temple and see for themselves just what an Electric Rauge will do to reduce their household burdens.
