Figure this out if you can: I married a widow who had a grown up daughter. My father visited our home very often and fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law, and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Sometime afterward my wife had a son; he is my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he is the brother of my wife-mother. My father's wife, namely, my step-daughter, had also a son; he is of course, my brother, and in the meantime my grandchild, for he is the son of my daughter. My wife is my grandmother because she is my mother's mother. I am my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I am my own grandfather.

Mrs. Caroline A. Weldon, of St. Johns, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Winnie Peterson, 1026 Princeton street, Aug. 15th, aged 72 years, 3 months and 22 days. She had apparently been in her usual health and was in the kitchen working about the stove, where she was found a few moments later lying dead, heart trouble apparently being the cause of her death. She was born in the state of New York, later moving to Michigan, and coming to St.
Johns 11 years ago. Her husband preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. Surviving her are four sons and five daughters. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev.
Layton officiating. The St.
Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

One story Dr. D. C. Tremaine, a speaker of the National service section, will take East with him bears on how Kaiser Bill was once soundly thrashed by a German lad named Essen, who is now a shipworker at the Grant Smith-Porter plant. Dr. Tremaine speaks of the Germans with considerable force, and following an address at the plant Friday noon, Mr. Essen, now an aged man, shook hands with the speaker and commended him for his declarations against the Hun leader. He then proceeded to tell how, when a young man and following the trade of a brick mason, he was employed to make repairs at one of the imperial estates in Germany, and the present Kaiser, then a youth, was sauntering around the property. He is said by Essen to have commented unfavorably on work under way, whereupon the brick mason proceeded to administer a thrashing. Following the melee, he says, he learned his victim was the Kaiser-to-be, so he wended his way to America.—Oregonian.

Saw Wonderful Things

W. M. Bellinger, writing to his father here from Tours, France, has the following to say:
By the time you receive this letter I will have been in France six months, but I don't think I will ever be able to call it home.
I want to state right here that this is about the hottest place I ever was in, although it was only last night that I was awakened by a terrific thunder storm. It resembled the bursting of shells, although it was only thunder.

There are many wonderful things to be seen in France, but I have only seen a small part of it. Tours is quite a famous old city, and there still can be seen some of the ancient buildings.
It was only last Sunday that I went through the museum and saw many wonderful paintings, some of which were worth one hundred and fifty million francs; also saw the bed Napoleon used to sleep in.

As to the war, am just waiting the outcome of the present operations, and here is hoping that the Hun will be driven back to Germany.

First to Cross the Bridge

Rev. and Mrs. Irvine are in receipt of the following interesting letter from their son, Athill, who is serving his country in France:

Contres, France, July 19, 1918.
—Dear Folks at home: When I last wrote about my approaching visit to the city of Lyons I did not fully appreciate my opportunity. The trip is over now and we are back to work again, every one a better soldier than when he went.

There were 250 men picked from this regiment who, along with men picked from two other regiments, formed a battalion to represent the United States in the ceremonies at Lyons.

There were Belgian, English, Italian, and French troops there, but we took the honor. We first took part in some ceremonies in a large public square and then passed in review before high officials of the Allied armies.
After the review we marched through the streets down to the beautiful Rhone river where we dedicated the new Wilson Bridge.
We were the first to cross the bridge.

As we marched thru the streets the people showered us with flowers. The pavement was covered with roses, carnations and other flowers. As we crossed the bridge two aeroplanes swooped down and the observer leaned over the sides and dropped armfuls of flowers on us. When we were being showered with the flowers and the people were crying "vive l'American" I had the most wonderful of sensations. It seemed that I was walking on air and my head among the stars. I never was more proud to be an American soldier.

After the parade we were turned loose and the people just lionized us. I am glad to say that every one of the 1000 men behaved like gentlemen and soldiers.

I am sending a paper which I think you can read and get another's opinion.

The word has just come in that Franco-American troops have captured Soissons and the town is wild. The natives come out and shake hands with us as we pass.

Must close as it is too dark to write more. Your loving son, Athill.

Hans William Hanson died at his home, 1119 Syracuse street, August 13th, aged 64 years. He was born in Sodermaland, Sweden, April, 1854, coming to this country he settled in Rockford, Ill., in September, 1882, having been married in October, 1880, to Anna Silja. He moved to Oregon in March, 1904, and came to St. Johns in August, 1917. Mr. Hanson was well liked by all who knew him. He is survived by Mrs. Hanson and four sons and three daughters, as follows: Carl, William, Henry and George; Mrs. Rydman, Mrs.
Pearson and Edith Hanson, besides eight grand children and a host of friends. The funeral

Wins the State Banner

Last Monday evening State Manager, L. M. Thomas presented to the St. Johns Council 2775, Knights and Ladies of Security, the coveted prize for last quarter, the state banner, which has been won by our Council. This is a great honor for St. Johns Council, also for the city, as we have here in Portland some of the strongest councils in the country. The famous Kirkpatrick Council of Portland, with a membership of nearly 1500 members, have had the state banner most of the time, having won it right along, and they were of the opinion that it belonged to them, and they thought that it was as safe in their hall as if it was under lock and key. They never dreamed that little old St. Johns Council had enough pep to try and win the banner, but I guess we caught them napping this time.
This had been a great year for St. Johns Council. We now occupy our new home and have won the banner and we want to try to keep it here. We had a big feed last Monday night.
Don't forget the big dances we have every Saturday night they are for everybody who are looking for a good time; also every other Monday evening. We also started our campaign to keep the banner here. It will run for six weeks; the losers will banquet the winners. Bro. Gasser and Bro. Holberg gave some interesting talks. Sister Everett is sure up and coming since she fills the President's chair. Some time later we will give a big hard time dance. Next Monday evening being our open meeting, we will enjoy the evening in dancing. Everybody is invited to come. Ladies admitted free, gents 30 cents. Come and spend the evening with us.

Foundation Won Out

The Foundation ball club, that is composed mainly of old League players, defeated the local team by a score of 11 to 3 last Sunday. Barham started to do the twirling for the Grant Smith-Porter club, but gave way after the fourth to Henning, who finished the game. The third inning was a bad one for the locals. Through poor fielding eight runs were scored by Foundation in this frame. A number of hits were made, but had the fielding been perfect three men would have been easy outs before any runs were scored. Outside this inning Barham pitched a fine ball. Henning, who succeeded him, had Foundation up in the air until the ninth inning, when he let up for a little and two runs were scored. Henning performed a feat that has not been accomplished in years, and that was to strike Stump out two times in succession. Pritchard was back in the game at short, but owing to lack of practice lately, was far from the Pritchard of old. Clyne starred for the locals, both at the bat and in the field, making two splendid running catches, and lacing out two two-baggers and a single. Hogan also made a most difficult catch in right field for the locals.

Tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon the Aberdeen, Wash., club will play the locals. A fine band concert will also be rendered by the Grant Smith-Porter band of Aberdeen. This will undoubtedly be a most interesting game, and a large crowd will no doubt be in attendance. The game starts at 3 o'clock.

The locals will not play on the home grounds Sunday, but will play at the Vaughn street grounds instead.

other Cooking Device made.

We urge all housewives interested in the patriotic service of their country as well as all who want their kitchens equipped with the most modern, convenient and reliable cooking apparatus to visit the Liberty household burdens.
