

Must Register August 24

Every young man in the United States who has passed his 21st birthday since Registration Day for 21-year-old men last June 5, must register for the draft on Saturday, August 24. By proclamation of President Wilson, just issued, this call includes citizens as well as non-citizens. The only men of the age specified who will not have to register are those already in the military or naval service. This call should not be confused with the big Registration Day, to be held some time in September, for registration of all men between the ages of 18 and 45 years.

This Registration Day just ordered is exclusively for men who were not yet 21 years old last June 5, but who have become 21 years old on or before August 24. Every man of them must register. As before, registration will be in charge of local draft boards. The registration places will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning to 9 o'clock at night. No excuse will be accepted for failure to register. The time remaining before Registration Day is so very short every man who comes within the call should arrange his affairs now so he can go to the registration place on August 24 and register. Failure to register is punishable by imprisonment up to one year, and followed by induction into the service. Even sickness will be no excuse for failing to register. Any 21-year-old man who is ill should send some competent person immediately to his local draft board, which will explain what to do.

Men who will unavoidably be away from their home precincts on Registration Day, should proceed at once to the local draft board nearest the place where they may happen to be, and ask for instructions for registering by mail. Prompt action is of the utmost importance, for all mail registrations must be received by the proper local draft board by August 24. The purpose in requiring at this time the registration of men who have become 21 years old since June 5th is to keep Class I filled until Congress can pass the new law raising and lowering the draft ages. Let every man subject to the coming registration make note of and remember these important facts: Registration Day is Saturday, August 24. Time for registration, 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Place for registration, with local draft board.

Drowned Near the Ferry

Norman C. Diebel, aged 25, of 31 East Seventy-sixth street North, was drowned in the Willamette River at 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon near the ferry slip at Whitwood Court, where he was engaged in building a boathouse. The body was recovered shortly afterwards by W. H. Evans, who saw Diebel fall in the river and rushed to his rescue. Evans at first dived for the body but the water was too deep for him to reach the drowned man. He later recovered the body by means of a heavy hook on the end of a long rope in about 40 feet of water near the slip where the drowning occurred. Diebel, who was an employe of the Northwest Steel Company, was engaged in putting some logs in near the ferry to be used in the construction of a boathouse. He was pushing the logs along the ferry slip when he fell into the river, according to Evans. The body was taken in charge by the Coroner, who notified relatives of the accident.

The deceased is survived by his widow, residing at 31 East Seventy-sixth street North. He is a son-in-law of G. E. Johnson, of 31 East Seventy-sixth street North. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Diebel, live at Palouse, Wash.

Packers' Profits —Large or Small

Packers' profits look big—when the Federal Trade Commission reports that four of them earned $140,000,000 during the three war years.

Packers' profits look small—
When it is explained that this profit was earned on total sales of over four and a half billion dollars—or only about three cents on each dollar of sales.

This is the relation between profits and sales:

Sales

If no packer profits had been earned, you could have bought your meat at only a fraction of a cent per pound cheaper?

Packers' profits on meats and animal products have been limited by the Food Administration, since November 1, 1917.
