Mrs. Ella Stark and Miss Stella Watt, of Chicago, Ill., are visiting their nephews and families, Mr. F. M. Wood and H. P. Wood.

The Multnomah has added quite a number of new chairs, so that now, in connection with the new improvements and alterations made, is one of the finest theaters in the city.

The Grant Smith-Porter Ship Co. has taken out permits for a good sized shed at the foot of Fessenden street and an office building at the foot of Chicago street.

George W. Imboden has purchased the fine business property at 305 South Jersey street from William Bauschbach. This is a fine investment and George is fortunate in securing it.

All automobile owners who can possibly do so are requested to list their machines for Red Cross salvage work before September 20th with Miss Darowish, 1001 Lombard; phone Columbia 353.

"Buy Liberty Bonds until it hurts," an expression rather frequently noted, should be changed to "Buy until it helps" you by broadening your vision of the war and the struggle to save civilization.

Miss Jennie E. Rowen, from the general office at Portland, and W. H. Lichty of Chicago have been added to the St. Johns branch postoffice force. Business at the local office has increased to such extent that more help was imperative.

The Y. W. C. A. is for girls everywhere. Its activities are not confined to the United States or to battle-torn France, but extend to 26 countries. Its workers are tireless. The Y. W. C. A. welcomes every new obligation for service imposed by womanhood and girlhood.

At the St. Johns Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. J. H. Irvine's subject at 11 a. m. will be, "The new Departures of St. Paul," and at 8 p. m. "Building the Eternal Temple" will be the theme. Special music at all services.

There are now 325 pupils in the North school, whereas there were 200 last year at this time. The teachers are: Miss Stevens, 8th grade; Mrs. Wright, 7th grade; Mrs. Singleton, 6th grade; Miss Kennedy, 5th grade; Miss Rush, 4th grade; Mrs. Sharpe, 3rd grade; Miss Dawson, 2nd grade; Miss McNiven, 1st grade.

Mayor Baker has guaranteed to A. Merritt Taylor, director of transportation and housing for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, two thousand four and five room cottages to be built in Portland for the accommodation of men working in the shipyards. The buildings will be started before January, 1919, and there will be no profiteering through the charge of excessive rentals.

Rev. J. H. Irvine, in remarking concerning the new people who are flocking to St. Johns, says: "Have you observed what a fine class of people is coming to make their homes among us these days? Not the restless fortune hunters that flock to boom towns generally, but solid, thrifty, intelligent patriots, coming to serve the nation with their labors and bless St. Johns with their presence and high character. Fortunate St. Johns. A thousand welcomes to these new neighbors among us."

The Union Sunday School at East St. Johns will open again next Sunday, after a two months' vacation. All the regular pupils are urged to be present and any newcomers in the community are cordially invited to visit the school and join in regular services if not otherwise affiliated. Services are held in the Community Hall on Fessenden Street, near Columbia boulevard, and begin at 10 o'clock.

St. Johns Auxiliary No. 1, American Red Cross, will resume work at the Library Wednesday, Sept. 18. There is an urgent call for workers, as Portland Chapter has never been called upon to do as much sewing as at the present time. The work room will be open from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. each Wednesday. Bring lunch and spend the day. However, every one is welcome even if they can only stay an hour or two.—Mrs. J. F. Gillmore, Chairman.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Scott next Monday afternoon at two o'clock. There will be a good program. Mrs. Trimble of Portland will speak on "How the Woman's Christian Temperance Union can cooperate with missionary Societies." Everybody is invited, but we especially hope that every missionary society in St. Johns will be represented at this meeting. Come, you will enjoy the program. Remember the place, home of Mrs. J. C. Scott, 102 Central ave.—Reported.

Monday evening, Sept. 9th, St. Johns Council K. and L. of S. had a very interesting meeting. They had election of new officers that night, and the following are the officers for the new year: President, Bro. Frank C. Gasser; Vice-President, Sister Fifer; Second Vice-President, Sister Swarthout; Financier, Bro. Halberg; Sec. Bro. Lester Teeling; Guard, Bro. Fifer; Sentinel, Bro. Stow; Prelate, Sister Woodburn. We will have a joint installation of the various councils of Portland at our hall here on Sept. 30th. It will be open to the public and it will be a real treat to the people of St. Johns, as it will show them what the K. and L. of S. really are. Some time in the future we will have our comic opera show in our hall. On that evening, will also have a basket social. Next Monday we will have our open meeting. We will have our usual social dance to which the public is invited. We always have a big turn out and all have a good time.—Reported.

Making the Nation's Credit Liquid

RESERVOIR systems insure a steady water supply in every city and large town. The faucet is of very little value without the reservoir behind it.

The Federal Reserve Banking System is a simple and practical means of making the nation's credit liquid at all times.

As a member of that system, this bank is as independent of local conditions as it is humanly possible to make it.
