

Do Your BEST Not Simply Your "BIT"

What would YOU say if you thought our Oregon Boys "over there" were only half trying—were shirking?

What will THEY say if they think we "Stay-at-Homers" are not doing our best to put the 4th Liberty Loan over the top in Multnomah County and Oregon State QUICKER, BIGGER and HARDER than ever?

If you should GIVE all your DOLLARS you would not return one thousandth measure of their sacrifice.—And you are only asked to LEND—on the best Security—at substantial interest.

Go to your bank or the Liberty Loan Committee TODAY and VOLUNTARILY pledge your quota.

Our Country and Our Boys

THOSE are among the great issues at stake in the 4th Liberty Loan.

What do we care about the Security, Interest and Safety for our Dollars—when Nation and Lives depend upon Oregon's overwhelming subscription to the 4th Liberty Loan?

Oregon's record of FIRST in every patriotic endeavor will be maintained if you go NOW and pledge your subscription. Any bank or the local Liberty Loan Committee will be glad to give you further information and accept your application.

Lend your MONEY as freely as those boys are offering their LIVES.

Someone has described the man who evaded the draft as being like a lemon pie. Yellow clear through and without enough crust to go over the top.

Conjuror—"Now, to help me with this with this next trick, I want the services of a boy—just any boy in the audience. Yes, you will do, my little man; come along. Now you've never seen me before, have you?" Boy, innocently—"No, father!"

Commissioner Mann was in St. Johns Tuesday looking the situation over regarding better lighting service for the ship workers, and as a result of his visit two arc lights will be placed on Fessenden street. The new lights will be very welcome, especially during the wet weather.

Mrs. Cleve McClelland Eton, nee Ida Fassett, has joined her husband in the Liberty Loan special train, which is making a tour of the state on behalf of the Fourth Liberty Loan. Mrs. Robert Smith, wife of the captain of the Liberty drive, and Mrs. Eton are the only two ladies on the special.

The County Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Multnomah County will be held October 1st and 2nd at the Methodist church, South on Union avenue and Multnomah street. Those going from St. Johns please meet at the St. Johns Hardware store at 12:15 Tuesday noon, Oct. 1st.—Reporter.

Work on the eight houses being erected by the local ship company for the employes is progressing rapidly and seven will practically be ready for occupancy by the end of the month. The structures are models of construction and have won many compliments for their fine workmanship and for the efforts of the management to meet the increasing demand for housing accommodations.

Mrs. Catherine Dickson, of Clearfield county, Pennsylvania, in company with her son, Robt. Dickson of Ogden, Utah, and little granddaughter, Katherine, arrived last Saturday in St. Johns and spent several days at the home of James Dickson in North St. Johns. They were very much pleased with St. Johns and later on may decide to make this place their home.

Almost enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Small, 1023 Polk street, when a surprise was given in honor of their daughter, Martha's tenth birthday. Dainty refreshments were served and many games were played. In addition Mr. Small took pictures of the little ladies. Those present were: Alice Monahan, Ruth Clark, Bessie Lauth, LaWanda Fenderson, Verva Shield, Josephine Chapman, Catherine Rassi, Viola Rassi, Gwendlyn Stevens and Modesta Atechson.

"And this, said Miss Prim, teacher of the primary school, "is the rhinoceros. Look carefully at his armored hide." "Yes," said the boy at the foot of the class. "An' what's this one?" "That," answered the teacher, "is a giraffe." "Oh!" exclaimed the lad. "Just look at his periscope!"—People's Home Journal.

Robt. W. Hamilton, of Clarke county, Wash., and Miss Alice Caroline Tanson, of Silverton, Oregon, were united in marriage at the home of Gene Thompson, Monday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. P. Layton. About fifteen friends of the happy young couple were in attendance. Delicious refreshments were served after the ceremony, which took place at 8:30. The groom is in Uncle Sam's service.

For hundreds of years whale meat has been used for food in Japan. In the earliest books of Japanese history there are accounts of the capture of whales with nets and the ceremonies which followed a successful haul. Nowadays the whale fisheries are conducted on an elaborate scale with modern fleets and expensive equipment provided by the government. Whale meat looks and tastes like beef.

The Niehoff Shoe Manufacturing Co. will open up for business next week in the room formerly occupied by the L. O. O. M., two doors north of the postoffice. The factory of this company is located at 251 North 16th street. They will carry a general shoe line in their St. Johns store and will specialize on men's shoes. Mr. Palmer now has quite a variety of businesses on the ground floor of his building—postoffice, grocery, hardware and shoe store.

Died at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Scott, 102 Central avenue, St. Johns, Tuesday, September 24, William Howard Scott, aged 15 years, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Scott, of Seattle. Howard was a good Christian boy and was very fond of his grandmother and aunt, with whom he had come to spend a few days. He was perfectly well and happy when he came Friday evening, but was taken sick Saturday morning with that dread disease, diphtheria. All that medical science and skill could do was of no avail, and he died Tuesday and was carried Wednesday evening out to the Columbia cemetery by his broken-hearted relatives and laid beside his grandfather. He leaves to mourn their loss his father, mother, one brother and sister, and many other relatives and friends. His parents, who were called to his bedside Sunday, left Thursday morning on their sad journey home.
