THE REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The publication of the delinquent tax lists in Oregon will be a thing of the past, according to the vote upon the measure at last week's election. While this never has been an expense borne by the general public, since it was an expense dealing directly and exclusively with the individual delinquent taxpayer, the public has voted to discard it. But this is a small item compared to the exorbitant interest charged on delinquency with an iniquitous penalty added as well. Now if some party will bring forth a measure and have it enacted into a law reducing the interest on delinquency to not to exceed eight per cent and abolish the penalty entirely, he will be doing some real benefit for unfortunate mankind. Eight per cent interest and no penalty is severe enough. Our sister state, Washington, seems to get along very well without adding a penalty to delinquency, although her rate of interest is exorbitant. The publisher's charge is but a drop in the bucket compared with interest and penalty in this state.

Alice E. Potter, whose announcement as teacher of singing is in this issue, has had a particularly wide and varied experience, having appeared in the principal cities of France, Belgium, England and Germany, returning to this country about five years ago, or shortly before the world war was inaugurated. Since her return she has devoted her time to important public work in the city of Boston. She is now organizing a class in St. Johns, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Rice, the talented violin teacher.

Walter Philipp of 326 East Mohawk street died Thursday morning, aged 34 years. He was born in Coburg, Oregon, coming here from Hillsboro about eight months ago. Influenza is ascribed as the cause of his death. He was a caulker and leaves a wife and young son. Funeral services will be held at the chapel of the St. Johns Undertaking Co. tomorrow, Saturday, at 2 p. m.

HOW YOUR MONEY WILL HELP "BOYS"
Official Statement of Seven Great Welfare Organizations.

Citizens of Oregon, in the week of November 11-18, will respond to the call of the United War Work Campaign for funds to make happy and effective the fighting men of the Nation. That the citizens will uphold the commonwealth's noble record in doing its share to win the war is taken for granted, once the needs are understood.

Oregon's quota in the joint drive of the seven great organizations doing war service work is $770,000. President Wilson authorized this united drive and named the participating bodies. The purposes for which the funds are needed and to which they are dedicated are vital to the war's success.

The Y. M. C. A. has more than 2000 huts in the great battle zone and is ministering to the boys overseas, in trench and camp, leaving undone nothing it can do to help them. In America the "Y" is in every camp and cantonment. It is with the boys "crossing over" and, at request of the War Department, has recently joined in the task of instructing selectives even before they are called.

War work of the Y. W. C. A. is thus outlined by Mrs. William MacMaster, state chairman: "Already we have in this country 2,000,000 women doing actual war work, while another 2,000,000 have released men for service by undertaking their work. To the Y. W. C. A., 'the best big sister in the world,' has been committed by the government and military authorities the serious responsibility of directing the thought, creating the environment and furnishing the material needs of this army of girls. Already 105 hostess houses have been opened, War Service Clubs organized, the Patriotic League created, nurses sent where needed and now we are asked to furnish emergency housing for thousands of girl war workers."

John W. Kelley, associate drive director, says of the Knights of Columbus: "Knights of Columbus halls are in operation in all cantonments, training camps and naval stations in the United States and the halls are also established with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, Italy, Russia and England. The motto is 'Everybody Welcome,' service being given irrespective of race, creed, or rank. Millions of cigarettes, pipes, bouillon cubes, gum packages and tons of chocolate have been given free to the soldiers overseas. One of the specialties is the promotion of athletics and a considerable item in the budget is for baseball equipment, boxing gloves, etc. In the war zone the troops are followed with motor trucks which are virtually traveling huts, fully stocked with athletic goods, stationery, cigarettes, and the like."

Needs and activities of the Jewish Welfare Board, explained by Ben Seiling, are: "In one year the number of our field representatives has grown from 10 to 213. Now we are faced with the demand for 400 additional workers in this country and 100 overseas. The money going into our fund pays necessary expenses and salaries, furnishes Bibles and prayerbooks by the thousands and letterheads and envelopes by the million, and provides camp, educational and recreational activities for the fighters, both here and abroad."

"War Camp Community Service," explains Emory Olmstead, state chairman, "developed from the commission created by the War and Navy Departments, first known as the Foodstuck Commission. The community is its particular field and thousands of workers are assisting the towns in caring for visiting soldiers and sailors, providing wholesome amusement and clean recreation and surrounding the camps with hospitality."

Functions of the American Library Association, says William L. Brewster, state chairman, are "to provide books and reading matter to the soldiers and sailors through co-operating agencies and directly." Thirty library buildings have been provided at cantonments; 3,750,000 donated books distributed; 1,000,000 books and tons of magazines sent abroad, and 600,000 needed military technical books bought and given to the men.

These are some things the Salvation Army does, according to O. C. Bortzmeier, state chairman: "On lines of communication our huts are open day and night. Then, following their methods, our men and women go right to the trenches and distribute chocolate, coffee, doughnut, and pies. Sixty per cent of the 1000 workers are women. We have now 703 huts and 60 ambulances in service. In the past few months aid has been given the Red Cross in sending abroad 100,000 parcels."

Here's your chance—give to the Y. M. Y. W. K. of C. Salvation Army, Jewish Welfare Board, Library Association and the War Community Service and you help make a soldier, sailor or marine happier and better.

Do you want to get a good book to a soldier, sailor or marine? GIVE to the American Library Association.

GIVE to the war, welfare agencies and keep up the morale of our fighting forces.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Just ask your wife if she wouldn't like to have some new Furniture and Rugs.
Dear Mary:—
I'll bet you that you and I are pretty nearly the only two women in this town who would say "no" if their husbands asked them if they wanted any new furniture and rugs. Are not our husbands good to us just to give us all the things we want for our homes and to encourage us in getting them. This makes us feel like cheerfully entertaining their friends which helps them in their business. I consider a beautifully furnished home a paying investment for the husband as well as a joy to his wife.
Your happy—HELEN.
