Your Thanksgiving Dinner

If there ever was a Thanksgiving Day in America, that day will be the Thanksgiving of 1918.

You will join families and friends and you will entertain at dinner. And that is our long suit. THE GRABATERIA will have ALL the things that go to make up the THANKSGIVING DINNER that are obtainable in any first class Grocery.

And THE GRABATERIA sells for less. Why? Because we have the largest purchasing power for our line this side of the Peninsula. We sell for cash. No bookkeeping expenses.

You will want Pop Corn, Walnuts, Almonds, Bottled Cherries, Cranberries, Pumpkins, Squash, Celery, Bananas, Pine Apple, Raisins, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel. And none of them will be extravagant if bought at

Local News

Regular meeting Doric Lodge next Wednesday evening. Members and visitors please note announcement in this issue.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Crow, 907 S. Kellogg street, a son, weighing nine pounds. Mother and babe reported doing fine.

Mrs. H. Magone left Monday on the Rose City for Frisco. She expects to spend the Winter in Modesto with her daughter, Mrs. Glenn.

Harry A. Imboden, in Uncle Sam's service, has arrived safely in Siberia, Russia, according to card received by his brother, George, the first of the week.

So far as we have been able to learn none of the long list of St. Johns boys in the service have given up their lives, although a number of them were in action.

Quarterly meeting services will be held in the Free Methodist church next Sunday, corner Richmond and Hudson streets. All will be welcome.—H. S. Upton, pastor.

Chas. E. Bailey, who had been at Eugene where he was in training for the machine gun corps, has been spending a few days in St. Johns. He had been on the sick list for several days, but has now fully recovered. Charlie has been ordered to report at Camp Fremont, Cal., next week.

Mrs. William Stone, nee Irene Johnson, died at Seattle recently of influenza, while visiting her mother there. She was a teacher of the Fourth grade in the North school some years ago, and is well remembered by many in St. Johns. She resided at Oregon City and is survived by her husband and three small children.

The boy came into the house weeping and his mother was naturally solicitous. "What's the matter, Willie?" she asked. "The boy across the way hit me," he replied. "Oh, well, I wouldn't cry for that," she she returned. "Show that you can be a little man." "I ain't crying for that," he returned. "He ran into the house before I could get at him."

The Portland Gas and Coke company has been granted a permit to build a $75,000 addition to its briquetting plant on the west side of the river on the Linnton road. This permit was obtained through the division of the war industries board and is considered as indirect war construction. It is understood that the addition will rise at once.

A note from Chas. E. Garlick, now stationed in Oklahoma, says: If my subscription has not run its course and died a perfectly natural death, please change my address so that I may again enjoy the pleasure of reading the good old St. Johns news. If any of you people think that the wind can't howl, just come to Oklahoma. The government decided they couldn't make a soldier of me, so they made me an officer.

C. S. McGill and Alex Kerr narrowly escaped serious injury Monday. They were driving along Willamette boulevard in the light truck of the St. Johns Hardware store when a large Buick driven in a reckless manner ran into the truck, damaging it to quite an extent. The Buick was practically demolished, and the occupant somewhat injured.

Mildred Coulson, aged about two years, died last Saturday of influenza. Her father, D. F. Coulson, died at the Emergency Hospital November 13th of the same affliction. He resided at 107 Central avenue and is survived by his wife, two sons and five daughters. The St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge of the remains.

Carpenter's overalls, 10 ounce duck, 10 pockets, $2.90.—W. W. Rogers, The Raincoat Man.

Plan for your Xmas Phonograph NOW. Currin Says So.

Pathe records at Currins.

If you have the "flu" be sure and take time to get well. It pays in the end.

The St. Johns Library will reopen at one o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon.

H. L. Campbell is getting along with the aid of a crutch these days, owing to a plank falling upon one of his feet.

Waldref Repair Company has moved to Lombard street, and Edmondson Co. now occupies the building thus made vacant.

James Hyde of Bristol street aged 60 years, died Monday of rheumatism. He had been in poor health for several years.

Merchants desiring space in this paper to announce their holiday attractions should make arrangements for same at once.

Mrs. Frank Hatt of West Mohawk street, died at the Good Samaritan hospital Monday, November 11th, of influenza. The funeral took place Wednesday.

Mr. Hendricks, for many years a successful business man of Oregon City, and Mrs. F. Smith, former clerk in one of Seattle's large department stores, have lately been added to the force at Ely's store.

To Members and Visitors Doric Lodge, A. F. & A. M.: Regular meeting Doric Lodge will take place Wednesday evening, November 20th, at 6 p. m. Work in Frat and Third Degrees. It is desired that there is a good attendance.—J. N. Edlefsen, W. M.; by A. W. Davis, Secretary.

According to announcement of Mayor Baker the ban will be lifted on the stores and places of amusement tomorrow, Saturday, and the schools will reopen Monday. Services will be held in the churches as usual Sunday. The influenza situation has improved to such extent as to make the rescinding order practical, it is believed.

St. Johns Methodist Episcopal church: The war is over! Not one of the brave boys on our Honor Roll has fallen. They will soon victoriously return. The epidemic is passing. The membership of this church is unbroken; our little ones are spared. We welcome you to the reopened church Sunday, November 17th. J. H. Irvine, pastor.

Fire, the cause of which is unknown, did about $1500 damage Tuesday morning to the rooming house and store of L. W. Loar, 615 Baltimore street. The fire started in the confectionery store and spread rapidly to the rooming quarters above. The local ship fire department and engine 32 extinguished the flames. The contents are partially insured.

The Peninsula National Bank will occupy the room recently vacated by the Edmondson plumbing establishment adjoining the bank on the south. A huge new vault is being constructed and a passage way will lead into the new compartment from the main part of the bank. This new addition to the banking institution will enable it to take care of its vast and constantly increasing business with more convenience.

Mrs. G. L. Perrine died at the home of her daughter in California the latter part of last week. She had long been a resident of St. Johns and the announcement of her death was distressing news to her many friends here. She is survived by her husband, well known citizen and former councilman of St. Johns, and one son and two daughters. Apoplexy was the direct cause of her death. Her son, Gail, is in the service of his country.

The Man in the Tobacco Store Says

—it does beat all how men are taking to Real Gravelly, now that they know it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco. All you have to do is to get a man to take his first plug of Gravelly. Let him get the pure, satisfying Gravelly taste, and learn for himself how much longer the small Gravelly chew stays with him than a big chew of ordinary plug.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
