Your Thanksgiving Dinner

If there ever was a Thanksgiving Day in America, that day will be the Thanksgiving of 1918.

You will join families and friends and you will entertain at dinner. And that is our long suit. THE GRABATERIA will have ALL the things that go to make up the THANKSGIVING DINNER that are obtainable in any first class Grocery.

And THE GRABATERIA sells for less. Why? Because we have the largest purchasing power for our line this side of the Peninsula. We sell for cash. No bookkeeping expenses.

You will want Pop Corn, Walnuts, Almonds, Bottled Cherries, Cranberries, Pumpkins, Squash, Celery, Bananas, Pine Apple, Raisins, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel. And none of them will be extravagant if bought at Life has become easier to live since the ban has been lifted.

Christmas is on the way and coming fast. Do your shopping early.

The days will begin to grow longer in another month. They are getting mighty short now.

The "flu" situation still shows signs of improvement, although it is far from being entirely allayed.

M. McKelvey is making substantial repairs and alterations to residence at 1011 East Polk street.

Considering the price of fuel, it costs considerable more to keep the home fires burning than of yore.

Services will be resumed next Sunday at 10 o'clock at the Union Sunday school in East St. Johns. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Christian Science Society of St. Johns has been incorporated into a church, the title of which will be the Seventh Church of Christ Scientist.

A big masquerade ball will be given in the skating rink next Wednesday evening. Prizes will be given and a fine time is assured.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day, and with the world war brought to a close, what a truly happy and cheerful day it should prove to be!

W. J. Mackey of the local fire department was taken to a Portland hospital Tuesday, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. His many friends hope for an early recovery.

Columbia boulevard from Jersey street to Kenton is slated for hard surface improvement in the near future. The necessity of this improvement has long been apparent.

The youngsters have now adopted the habit of walking on stilts. Unless some of the street crossings are taken better care of than was the case in other winters, it might be a good plan for the grownups to learn to walk on stilts also.

A small number of Application for Registration of Motor Vehicle and Application to Register as Chauffeur blanks have been sent to this office by Secretary of State Wolcott for the convenience of the local people. If you have need of same call and secure one.

George Fournier died at his home in Lents Monday, after a short illness. His wife has been operating our typesetting machine for some months, and the great loss of her husband is keenly regretted by the Review force.

With this week's issue the Review starts on its fifteenth year of existence. The changes that time has wrought in St. Johns during that period of time are simply marvelous, but the probabilities are that the next fourteen years will witness a yet more wonderful transformation. St. Johns is rapidly coming into her own.

A grand reopening dance will be given in the G. S. P. S. club house tomorrow, Saturday, evening, at which music will be furnished by the ship plant band. This function promises to be more than usually enjoyable and entertaining, and no doubt a large attendance will be on hand to participate in the good time that is sure to ensue.

Ladies, surprise your husband Christmas. Give him a Rogers' Slipon Raincoat, a useful and inexpensive present. A small deposit will hold one. W. W. Rogers, The Raincoat Man.

Mrs. Vinson, who had been visiting her daughters in San Francisco, was called home on account of the illness of her son, Jack, and daughter, Miss Della, who have been ill with influenza. Both of whom, we are glad to state, are on the road to recovery.

WANTED TO BORROW $1800 for a period of five years at eight per cent interest; first mortgage on St. Johns property valued at $3600 given. Interest payable monthly, quarterly or semi-annually, as preferred. Address this office.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends for their kindness and sympathy in the recent loss of our beloved husband and father, and also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. M. S. Leggett, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Horsman.

Fred C. Couch, who is an officer in Uncle Sam's Marine service, greeted his many friends here the past week. He had just returned from a trip to South America, and while his vessel was undergoing repairs, he seized the opportunity to visit his family and friends here. He looks as if the service thoroughly agreed with him.

Mrs. Peterson died Friday of last week at the home of Officer Hatt on West Mohawk street. She had gone there to render aid to her sister, Mrs. Hatt, who died a few days previously, and she was stricken with the same affliction, influenza and pneumonia, which caused her death at the time stated. Her husband has also been having a most serious time with the disease.

Since the statement appeared in the Review last week that none of the St. Johns boys had lost their lives in battle, we learn that one of our boys has given up his life for humanity. Gustav Carhart, the only son of Mrs. George Carhart of Willamette boulevard died of wounds in a French base hospital October 21st, after six days of suffering. He had gone over the top on six different occasions and made a brilliant record.

Vivian Willis died at the home of his brother-in-law, F. B. Rogers, 1116 Oswego street, November 14th, aged 35 years, 9 months and 5 days. Influenza was the cause of his death. He was employed at the local ship plant and was unmarried. The funeral services were held at the chapel of the St. Johns Undertaking Co. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock; interment in Columbia cemetery.

The entire group of St. Johns churches will unite in the world's greatest Thanksgiving in services at the Baptist church at 10 a. m. of that day. Songs of peace and triumph by all the people will be led by Mrs. Burton and minute men from each of the churches will give terse, pithy speeches under the generalship of Rev. J. T. Merrill of the Congregational church.

The Church of Christ meets in the Seventh Day Adventist church, corner of Central avenue and Charleston streets. Pastor H. L. Ford will preach morning and evening Sunday, Nov. 24th. Subject for 11 a. m., "Ruth, the Rose of Moab." Eastern Star members are cordially invited to attend. Mr. H. E. Veness will sing a solo. At 7:30 p. m. the subject will be "The Two Ways," illustrated by a chart. Bible school at 10 a. m.

Toney E. Oxley died October 28, 1918, after an illness of six days. Mr. Oxley was an active member of The Bachelor Club for a period of eight years and he will be greatly missed by that organization, as well as by his numerous friends. Mr. Oxley was 31 years of age and is survived by three sisters and two brothers. Interment in Green Park cemetery, Portland, Indiana, on November 5th, 1918.

The Fellow who argued with Jim the other night ran up against the shock of his life.

Jim knows tobacco. And before he got through, Jim made the fellow admit that Real Gravely tastes better and gives a satisfaction you can't get out of ordinary tobacco. A small chew of Gravely lasts so much longer that it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
