RECORD PRICE FOR SPEECH

Chauncey Depew Tells of Occasion When a Few Spoken Words Were Worth Much Money.

In commenting upon the death of Mrs. Russell Sage, Chauncey M. Depew, who knew Mrs. Sage for 40 years, and was an intimate associate of her husband for a longer period, told how he made a $120,000 speech at her suggestion.

Mr. Depew stated that although Mr. Sage accumulated a vast fortune he rarely gave away any money, adding that the reason for this was the confidence which he reposed in the judgment of his wife as an able and experienced philanthropist. He said that years ago he received a letter from Mrs. Sage inviting him to make an address at the Emma Willard school, at Troy, N. Y., upon the occasion of the donation by Mr. Sage to the school of a large sum of money for use in erecting a building. This was the school of which Mrs. Sage was a graduate.

"I replied," said Mr. Depew, "that I was so overwhelmed with engagements to speak that it would be impossible for me to accept the invitation. In answer I received by special messenger a note from Mrs. Sage, saying: 'Russell is going to give $120,000. He will not give one cent unless you make the speech. This is Russell's first excursion into this field. Don't you think he ought to be encouraged?'"

COMPLETE CHAOS IN RUSSIA

Inevitable Anarchy as the Result of Insufficient Supplies of Food for the People.

By far the most terrible toll of the Russian winter will be taken in the peasant villages, the home of nine-tenths of Russia's 180,000,000. Oliver M. Saylor writes in the Saturday Evening Post. The sullen and defiant peasant, who has planned for himself and only for himself, hasn't taken in to account the possibility that superior force from the city or from his own or a neighboring village may seize his grain. When the calamity befalls, an endless train of disaster and bloodshed and starvation will follow in its wake. Starvation on some weaker present will be the next step, and from that the flame will spread to vibrant border warfare with whole villages on the trail to plunder the grain bins of others or entrenched to protect their own. In some districts, even before it left, this most cruel form of civil strife had broken out.

World's Greatest Troopship.

One of the devoted women who have not spared themselves at the emergency aid rooms told this story among the flying needles the other day to her co-workers. A letter from the front has brought the intelligence: "A pompous German major had fallen into the hands of our valiant Pennsylvania troops, and after they had questioned him, he ventured to ask them for information.

Yellow Dips in Denmark.

Denmark has a lighting problem so serious that the Danish government recently purchased 400 tons of tallow from which to make candles. Commercial Agent Norman Anderson reports from Copenhagen.

There is a scarcity of kerosene also, and electricity is, of course, not available to the isolated farmhouse," says Mr. Anderson, who quotes from the Tidsskrift for Industri, which, in discussing the possibilities of acetylene and alcohol illumination, states: "Acetylene may now legally be used and may be included in fire insurance risks. As a result the manufacture of acetylene lamps has flourished greatly and at the end of the year 1918 types had been put on the market."

Ypelle, New Poison Gas.

J. Beaulieu and J. de Poliakoff (Bulletin de l'Academie de Medecine) call the reader's attention to the efficiency of hot air in the treatment of burns caused by yperite, a gas used by the Germans in their offensive of March, 1918. These burns, even when very small, cause extremely sharp pain and sleeplessness. A number of cases were rapidly healed by hot air after various treatments had failed.

The war department recently invited bids for the following to supply 125 regiments: Seventeen thousand five hundred sets of boxing gloves, 7,000 baseball bats, 21,100 baseballs, 35,000 playground balls, 8,000 rugby footballs, 7,000 soccer footballs, 350 volley balls and 1,760 medicine balls.

PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Saving Showed Heart of America Beat True for Freedom.

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people must be attributed the continued health, strength and morale of the Allied armies and the civil populace. Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in the months to come. In the past year we have carried out an export program, the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with the new demands that have come, with the liberation of nations freed from German oppression, our exports must be almost doubled. Instead of 11,829,000 tons, we must ship twenty million tons of food to Europe in the coming year—as much as can be pushed through our ports.

Nothing Doing Anymore!

Dear Mary:—

I've just cried my eyes nearly out about that furniture I "sent off" for. The pictures in the catalog looked fine, but when I got the rocker I knew I was "bit." Now it is broken. And my goodness! I didn't think about the FREIGHT I had to pay.

Nothing doing any more for me with the catalog houses. I ought to have known better. You and I have always got good, strong, stylish furniture and beautiful rugs from H. F. CLARK. Next time I'll take your advice.
