A Store of Service

THE GRABATERIA Cash and Carry Grocery can claim that it is a Store of Service because of the prices we give. If we sell you something cheaper than other stores it is a community Service.

Each month has shown an increase in Sales from the first month the present owners took the store over.

We expect to maintain the Service in the matter of prices; we will serve you at the counter just as promptly as a larger volume of sales can be made.

Bring in your job printing.

Miss Alpha Flynn is learning the printing trade at this office.

Mr. Lysle Burk and Miss Alma Moe were united in marriage Saturday, Dec. 21st.

Lloyd Satterlee left Sunday for Santa Barbary, Cal., where he will engage in painting and paper hanging.

Beautify your home. Call in and see the pretty pictures, art calendars and wall pockets at the Review office.

Rev. Chester Paul Gates made this office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon. He is just as full of vim and activity as of yore. His family will remain in St. Johns while he conducts a series of meetings near Corvallis.

He—Of course, women should vote. They deserve suffrage as much as men—more, because their minds are purer and cleaner. She—Of course their minds are cleaner, but how do you know that? He—Because they change their so much oftener.—Ex.

Reuben Collins of East St. Johns has just finished building the Midget Titanic and launched it in Columbia Slough Thursday, January 2. It is an eighteen foot boat and the strongest and only boat in this country of its type. Mr. Collins intends to start building other boats, all of a new type.

At the Methodist church Sunday morning the message will be, "God and My Heart," by Frances Willard. In the evening this church unites with the Evangelical church in revival services, continuing every evening of the week except Saturday. Let us begin this momentous year 1919 with God.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muck entertained the Jolly Steen club in a delightful manner New Year's eve. The home was prettily decorated with Christmas bells and candles. In the game of 500 Prof. and Mrs. C. H. Boyd secured first prize, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Markle the second prize and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McLean the guest prize. Refreshments of a delicious nature were served.

It was because the following items appeared in his paper that the editor left town, says the Youth's Companion: "Mrs. Thomas W. Johnson read an article for the women's club entitled, 'Personal Devils.' Seventeen were present." "Mr. John Crouse shipped a carload of hogs to Kansas City one day last week. Three of his neighbors went in with him to make up the load."

The sum of $100,000 has been voted by the County Commissioners toward the extension of Greeley street at a meeting held Tuesday morning. More money will be devoted to the purpose as soon as it becomes available. Hon. D. C. Lewis ably aided in bringing out the virtues of this important project. Several of our leading citizens were in attendance. The Commissioners have directed the engineers to proceed at once with the preliminary work.

Dr. J. Vinton Scott, wife and child left yesterday evening for Seattle, from whence they will take a steamer for Bombay, India, where Dr. Scott will engage in missionary work and practice his profession to some degree. The Dr. had been engaged in dentistry in St. Johns for a number of years, and through his skill and courteous treatment had established a fine business, which he has disposed of to Dr. L. F. Pickens. Both Dr. Scott and his estimable wife have hosts of friends in St. Johns who will wish them bon voyage and a happy and successful sojourn in their far away home.

Mr. Business Man, do you realize that calendars and wall pockets have immense merit as reminders that you are in business and invite patronage of the housewife? Call at the Review office and see the finest line yet offered.

H. F. Clark, the well known furniture man, has just purchased a fine Saxon auto.

Any one desiring a young, well bred dog, may have same free of charge by calling at this office.

Roy Thompson and his brother Raymond, who have been spending Christmas with their parents, have returned to Seattle, in Uncle Sam's service.

A large and handsome line of unmounted pictures, fancy calendars and wall pockets at this office. Prices very reasonable. Call in and see.

Capt. B. L. Snow, a former well known attorney of St. Johns, is seriously ill at his home near Jennings Lodge with blood poisoning.

With the holiday season now a thing of the past, all can settle down to business and make the most of the prosperity that will soon again be with us in greater measure than ever.

William Moe and George Worthington have returned from France, where they were in the aerial service. They were right up in the fighting line and have many interesting and exciting experiences to tell.

The many friends of Rev. Merrill of the Congregational church will be glad to learn that he is improving from a severe siege of pneumonia. During his absence from his pulpit next Sunday Rev. F. Meyers, who has just returned from France, will conduct the services.

Dr. H. F. Jones will again resume the practice of his profession in St. Johns, after serving his government for some months. He may now be found at his old location on North Jersey street, where he has associated himself with Dr. A. B. Calder. The numerous friends of Dr. Jones will be highly pleased to know that he will again take up his chiropractic practice in St. Johns.

Thirty acres outside the city limits, surrounded on all sides by territory within the city of Portland, may be annexed to the city if a legislative act prepared by City Attorney LaRoche is approved by the Legislature. The land is located adjoining St. Johns and the Peninsula Lumber Company's plant is located on it. City Commissioner Barbur will ask the Multnomah County delegation to handle the bill, and if passed, will prepare a charter amendment for the annexation of the property. According to Commissioner Barbur, the owners of the land receive all the benefits of the city government, but are not required to pay taxes for the support of the city.—Portland Daily.

In the judgment of Edward G. Tuck, surveyor for the American Bureau of Shipping; Captain W. C. McNaught, surveyor for the San Francisco Board of Marine Underwriters, and John L. Hubbard, chief inspector of hulls for the Emergency Fleet Corporation in the Oregon district, the Grant Smith-Porter Ship Company was in first place in the matter of speedy hull construction in having floated the steamer Caponka in 49 working days. They have awarded the company a large silver basket which was offered as a prize by Jacobs and Gile, steel contractors. The keel of the Caponka was laid February 26 and she took water April 24. The mariners to make the award were named as a committee by the donors of the cup, which is to be reposed in the office of the St. Johns plant with other prizes the organization has gathered in maritime construction.

We have all of our known performers who could make of the piano a terrible instrument of torture. The following extract from the London Daily Mail seems to prove that it can be used in warfare to break down the stoutest defense: "After the fight at Vill-sur-Ancre last Sunday two Australians had been playing a piano in a cottage there for twenty minutes when a cellar door opened and a German sergeant major came out and surrendered with ten men."

Think It Over

My boy, you may not like this little town—
Perhaps it isn't big enough for you.
You are afraid that it will keep you down—
Deny the chance that you're entitled to.
Of course, your father hasn't found it bad.
Here he and ma have lived contentedly.
But you're a bigger fellow than your dad,
Or, if you ain't you think you ought to be.
And yet before you jump the town for good,
Some plain advice I'd like to give you, son.
Perhaps the town you haven't understood—
Perhaps the town's all right and you're the one.
Fame finds a man no matter where he's at.
So time has proved and will prove again;
And, if you want to rise, remember that
The smallest towns have grown the biggest men.
—Exchange.
