A Store of Service

THE GRABATERIA Cash and Carry Grocery can claim that it is a Store of Service because of the prices we give. If we sell you something cheaper than other stores it is a community Service.

Each month has shown an increase in Sales from the first month the present owners took the store over.

We expect to maintain the Service in the matter of prices; we will serve you at the counter just as promptly as a larger volume of sales can be made.

The "flu" situation throughout the city is far from encouraging.

Mrs. J. C. Scott and Miss Kathryn Scott are spending a few days in Seattle.

Mrs. O. E. Learned has been at Beaverton for the past week, where her father is quite ill.

Wanted—Several young ladies to act as sales agents; no experience required. Call at this office.

An unusually pretty line of art calendars and pictures ready for mounting arriving at this office. Call in and see.

The death of Roosevelt removes one of the greatest men that America has produced, and few men will ever be missed so greatly as Teddy.

W. Dougherty sustained a compound fracture of the upper jaw and lacerated cheek when he was struck with a steam hammer at the ship plant the first of the week.

Gail Perrine arrived in town from Oregon during the past week. His many friends were glad to greet him again and note that he was looking as if Uncle Sam's service fully agreed with him.

Lee Gensman, who lives on the west side of the river, while making a few observations on a boom last Saturday placed his foot where there was no log and made a graceful dive into the water. Lee reports the water fine.

A young man promised a charming young woman, as a birthday remembrance, a rose for every year she was old. After he had given the order for two dozen Killarneys, the florist said to his boy, "He's a good customer. Just put in half a dozen extra."—Chicago Tribune.

S. R. F. Gatten held the lucky number, 368, that drew the launch donated and chanced off by W. H. Smith for the benefit of the Red Cross. The sum of $64 was turned into the Red Cross treasury as a consequence, which organization desires to thank Mr. Smith for his generosity.

Ed. Galloway, after spending more than six months in Uncle Sam's service in England, has returned home. He and his mother, and Mrs. Kemp and Mrs. C. L. Holmes were entertained at dinner Monday at the home of Mrs. S. C. Cook. Ed was in the aviation corps and has many interesting experiences to relate.

Lou Miller has purchased The Central soft drink establishment from Thomas Glover, taking charge of the same the first of the year. He has associated with him Mr. D. Gentry, a dispenser of soft drinks of years of experience in Portland. Mr. Miller will be glad to meet all his old patrons and new ones as well at the old stand on Philadelphia street.

Mrs. Inez A. Holem, wife of Calvin J. Holem, died at the home of her husband's parents, 1119 South Syracuse street, January 5th, of influenza, aged 23 years. She had come here with her husband to spend the Christmas holidays with his folks, but took ill on the way, from which death finally resulted. The remains were shipped to Aurora, Oregon, for interment, the St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

Zed Mulkey Dorris has arrived from the battle front, after some experiences that he will never forget. He was with the engineering corps, was gassed twice and had a leg crushed. He says the battle was won at several critical times only thru the engineers throwing down their implements and taking up their rifles and joining in the fray. He was in the hospital for some time and still walks with a decided limp.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Bissett, 711 W. Mohawk street, January 4th, an eight pound girl.

Mrs. A. W. Henning died recently in Seattle of influenza. Her husband formerly had charge of the office force at the local ship plant.

Still a few more handsome wall pockets and art calendars left at this office. They have been going like hot cakes. Prices very reasonable. Call in and see.

Mr. F. Carley of Cassidy, B. C., spent the Christmas holidays with his children, Veda and Billy Carley, at their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davidson, 616 Salem street.

Col. Wm. J. Bryan has emerged with a platform of thirteen peace points. This gives President Wilson a clear majority of one over Bryan and four over Moses. —National Republican.

K. L. of S., St. Johns Council No. 2775: You are all requested to attend the meeting on Monday, Jan. 13, 1919; something very important to come up.—Frank C. Gasser, President; Lester Teeling, Secretary.

The Liberty Repair Shop is the title of a new establishment opened up at 937 N. Jersey street, and is conducted by A. C. Kielblock and Frank Guerra. Grinding, sharpening, saw filing, etc., will be done by this firm at reasonable charge.

One of the boys on the South Ways is an ardent fisherman, but after a recent experience has sworn off taking his best girl along on his angling excursions. While they were out on a boat the aforesaid girl peered over the side and exclaimed: "Oh, how happy the little fishes must be; just see how they are wagging their little tails."—Going Some.

Matero Calasba of East St. Johns received injuries which may prove fatal when he was struck by an automobile driven by Harold Henry of 665 Ladd avenue, last Saturday on the west approach of the Broadway bridge. Calasba was injured about the head and chest, and it is said that he may be suffering from a fractured skull. Calasba was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

The Union Revival services progress at the Evangelical church are inspiring and altogether unifying. They will be continued at the Methodist church next Sunday evening, and every evening next week except Saturday. Such services clear the air and pave the way for the League of Denominations that must come hand and hand with the League of Nations. A. P. Layton and J. H. Irvine, Pastors.

What Is Rediscounting?

THE most important privilege obtained by our membership in the Federal Reserve System is that of rediscounting. This means that when necessary, we can take our customers' notes and drafts which we hold to the Federal Reserve Bank and obtain cash in exchange. In this way a large proportion of our assets are just as available as though actually carried in cash.
