

ALLEGED DESERTER HAD LED GAY LIFE

Arrested in Alabama While Wearing Uniform of First Lieutenant of Army.

Birmingham, Ala.—Private Guy O. Herron, an alleged deserter from Battery A, Ninth Field Artillery, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, has been arrested by special agents of the department of justice on information given by Harry Goldstein, superintendent of a detective agency. Herron was wearing the uniform of a first lieutenant at the time of his arrest and is alleged to have a number of aliases and to have cashed bogus checks in the various cities he has visited amounting to approximately $2,000.

When he was brought to the office of the department of justice he confessed and told of the wonderful way he had been entertained in cities he had visited among them being New

Is Alleged to Have a Number of Aliases.

York, Newark, Baltimore, Elizabeth, Norfolk, Raleigh, Oklahoma City, Kansas City, Chicago, Milwaukee, Hammond, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Rochester, Syracuse, Utica and Birmingham. In every city he is alleged to have cashed bogus checks and to have assumed the names of Capt. Henry M. Willis, Capt. George H. Williams, Lieut. Harry B. Richards, Harry H. Murray and Samuel M. Kinney.

He said he was glad he had been caught as he was tired of eluding the officers, and even if he did have to put up some time he had had his fling. He has been away from camp since August 29, and has spent every cent of the money secured, as he has been stopping at the best hotels in the cities he visited. He was placed in the county jail and officials at Fort Sill were notified.

HOLDUP VICTIM LEFT UNDERWEAR AND SHOES

Cleveland, O.—Joseph Wroganski is all out of luck. He was all dressed up in his regular "Sunday clothes" and was walking down a dark street when two men stepped out and took away his $150. Not content with "breaking" him, they then ordered him to undress, and when they left Joe didn't have coat, pants, vest, hat or overcoat. It was a chilly walk home down dark alleys and behind buildings, according to his complaint to the police.

PENCIL SAVES LIFE OF BOY

Des Moines, Ia.—A metal lead pencil in his pocket stopped a bullet and probably saved the life of Glen Catlin, twelve-year-old son of Reverend Catlin of Council Bluffs during a war game here. Several boys had built a cave in the outskirts of town and while young Catlin was returning to the cave Eddie Emig, fourteen, who was standing guard, fired a .22 caliber rifle in the general direction from which the Catlin boy was advancing. The bullet tore a button off his coat and was stopped by the pencil.

MOUSE PLAYS PART IN SUIT

Kansas City, Mo.—A mouse plays an important part in a suit for damages filed by Pearl Smith, formerly employed as second cook of the Western Union Telegraph company, against the company. Miss Smith, employed in the company's kitchen, declares in her suit that the chef found a mouse in a garbage can. He proceeded to chase the second cook with the mouse in his hand. In trying to escape she declares, she fell and injured herself. Three thousand dollars' damages is asked of the company.

AGED RECLUSE HAD $40,000 IN SHACK

Fortune Discovered Scattered About Room of Little Hut in Parkersburg.

Parkersburg, Pa.—Neighbors broke into the miserable little shack occupied as a home by Edwin J. Moore, and found him lying unconscious on the floor. Scattered about the small, shabby room were gold coins, bank notes and national currency long since out of general circulation. The money amounted to $40,000 and represented 40 years of hoarding.

Moore lived the life of a hermit and, while it was believed he was "well off," townspeople had no idea that the man kept $40,000 hidden in his miserly home.

Edwin Moore was popularly supposed to have given up the girl with whom he was in love on account of his mother. Moore and his mother lived

Found Him Lying Unconscious.

In Nineteen years ago, but moved to Parkersburg when the Pennsylvania railroad established shops there. Moore became clerk in a store and, although his romantic attachment to one of the belles of the town became pronounced, Moore often said that as long as his mother lived he would not marry.

For twenty years he taught music and from this source, with his earnings in the store, is supposed to be the hoarded fortune found by neighbors. Moore was overcome by paralysis as he was counting his money, it is supposed. Moore's fortune will go to a niece. His mother died a few years ago.

WIFE CHARGES HUSBY WAS SIMPLY TOO GAY

Chicago.—According to a bill filed for divorce by Mrs. Adele H. Erickson of this city Emory T. Erickson, her husband, whose salary is $7,500 annually, had a specialty for costly dinners, gay little trips to the theater, luncheons in automobiles and expensive gifts. The trouble is they were all for "the other woman," who, in this case, the bill says, is Mrs. Edyth Starkel.

BOY STARTS A "SNEEZEFEST"

Box of Pepper Placed on Hot Stove Interrupts Church Services at Jerseyville.

Springfield, Ill.—Services had just been started in a small country church at Jerseyville, near here, one Sunday recently, following the influenza epidemic restrictions, when somebody in the congregation let go a vociferous "sneeze." He braced himself, shook his head and fired again. Then some one else started and in less than a minute a volley of sneezing reverberated through the room. With a look of consternation and fright the officiating parson raised his hand to dismiss the gathering, but before he could do so he had to reach for his own handkerchief to stifle a sneeze "who-oo-oo." Pivoted, he gazed about, suddenly his eyes rested on a hot stove where he perceived a small box of pepper peeping away from the heat. Friskish boys had placed it there. On its removal services were resumed.

GUM AND BEEWAX GIVE CLUE

Novel Scheme Employed to Trap Thieves Who Had Ransacked Cottages at Lake Charlotte.

Albany, N. Y.—A piece of chewing gum that had been worked overtime, a block of beeswax, some plaster of paris and a little detective work netted a bag of prisoners to state troopers here recently. Cottages at Lake Charlotte were being ransacked. The troopers made an investigation. A big wad of chewing gum was found in one of the deserted cottages. A plaster of paris cast was made of the gum. An impression of some one's front teeth was revealed. Spencer Ham, a youth of nineteen, was under suspicion. One of the state troopers asked Ham to bite into beeswax. Ham did. The impression was the same as that shown on the gum and the plaster of paris cast. Ham confessed.
