Does it make any difference to you what your Groceries cost you? Some people do not have to consider the cost of their every day living. Those people can pay the book-keeper, pay for the extra time it takes to make an original charge entry, pay for the losses on accounts and pay for delivery, pay the prices that must be demanded in the High Rent Zone. But for you who depend upon your daily labor, for your income and for saving a little for sunset of life must consider your cost of living.

Be your own deliveryman; your own book-keeper by carrying the goods and paying cash.

The Grabateria Cash and Carry Grocery can sell cheaper to you who will bring your money and carry home the goods. We know because we have done business both ways. Let us prove it.

C., to report at once for service at Base Hospital, Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Iowa. She will leave for her new field of service in a few days.

Governor James Withycombe died at his home in Salem at 8:45 o'clock Monday night. Death was caused by heart disease. The Governor was conscious to the last, and though he had been confined to his bed for a week, had passed a very good day. His death came without warning. Governor Withycombe had been bothered with heart trouble for the past year, and had been confined to his bed for a week.

Sergeant Eneas Small and Miss Margaret Rassi, both of this city, were united in marriage Sunday evening, March 2, at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Berton A. Bronson of Vancouver Barracks, the bride couple standing under an American flag. The bride wore a dress of white crepe meteor, combined with georgette crepe, and the bridesmaid, a sister of the bride, wore a dress of Alice blue messaline. Sergeant George B. Pendergrass attended the groom, while the chaplain, groom, and best man, were in full military uniform. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served, and a social time enjoyed, about 18 friends and relatives being present.
