The Cash and Carry System

Does it make any difference to you what your groceries cost you? Some people do not have to consider the cost of their every day living. Those people can pay the book-keeper, pay for the extra time it takes to make an original charge entry, pay for the losses on accounts and pay for delivery, pay the prices that must be demanded in the High Rent Zone. But for you who depend upon your daily labor, for your income and for saving a little for sunset of life must consider your cost of living.

Be your own deliveryman; your own book-keeper by carrying the goods and paying cash.

The Grabateria Cash and Carry Grocery can sell cheaper to you who will bring your money and carry home the goods. We know because we have done business both ways. Let us prove it.

E. W. McLean is having his home remodeled in attractive style.

Mrs. C. P. Huntingdon of Newberg was a guest at the home of A. W. Markle Tuesday.

A bouncing ten pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson Wednesday evening.

Another one of the St. Johns boys, Armond Olen, arrived home Thursday from over sea service. He is looking fine.

The Debonair Club was delightfully entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon by Mrs. Otis Learned and Mrs. Sandifer at the Learned home on Thursday at one o'clock. Nearly all the club members were present and a good time was had by all.

On Friday, March 28th, from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. the W. C. T. U. of St. Johns invite the church women of the community to meet with them in the Adventist church on Central Ave. This is to be a Union Missionary meeting and a good program of talks and special music is being prepared.

The Jolly 'Steen club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Markle Wednesday evening. In the game of 500 the first prize was captured by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans, and the second by Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Vincent. The first guest prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McLean, and second by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bonham.

J. Henry Albers, widely known Portland milling man, formerly president of the Albers Brothers Milling company, who was convicted of having violated the espionage act by seditious utterances, was sentenced Monday afternoon by United States District Judge Wolverton to serve three years in a federal prison and to pay a fine of $10,000.

Corp. Athill W. Irvine, son of Rev. J. H. Irvine, who enlisted next day after war was declared, and who has been in France fifteen months, has reached Camp Lewis and is expected home this week. His brother, Ordnance Sergt. Paul Irvine, is detained in France in the army of occupation, and does not expect release till well into summer.

Gus Lucier and oldest son will leave next week for Cordova, Alaska, and later for Ketchikan, Alaska, where they will have charge of building operations for the Moore Packing company. Another son will join them there later. This will make the fourth trip to Alaska for Mr. Lucier, and he expects to remain six or eight months. Wm. Lewis and J. Asper will accompany them, we understand. E. F. Moore, president of the company, and a well known citizen of St. Johns for several years, left last week to take charge of operations at the two salmon packing plants at Cordova and Ketchikan.

The Services at the St. Johns Baptist church Sunday will be of very special interest. At 11 a. m. a Gospel team of laymen from the Grace church will conduct the service and will do all the speaking and furnish the special music. These men deserve a large hearing. At 7:30 p. m. the pastor will preach on "The Man in Christ a New Creature." Baptism will follow the sermon. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m., young people at 6:30 p. m., prayer meeting Thursday evening. To all these services the public is very cordially invited.—E. Burton, pastor.

He's a poor logician that can't figure out a good reason for doing the thing he wishes.

If the friends of your youth are the enemies of your old age, it is you and not your friends that are wrong.

Women's skirts are to be longer and tighter which means that men's pocketbooks will also have to be longer but not "tighter."—Ex.

Mistress—"Can you prepare any foreign dishes, Norah?"
New Cook—"Sure I can, mum—French pays, Spanish inyons, and Oirish potatoes."

"I don't know how the Browns can afford an auto."
"Well, my dear, I wouldn't let that problem worry me. Probably they don't know themselves."—Ex.

You can't make some of 'em believe it, but everybody is a gambler, even the man that eats onions when he knows it hurts his digestive apparatus. He's gambling that maybe some day it won't.—Ex.
