THIS REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The first tangible benefit to accrue to Portland from the visit of the house committee on naval affairs was the strongly worded telegram dispatched by the committee from Seattle Tuesday to Chairman Hurley demanding revision of shipping board rules to permit the immediate resumption of operation on foreign contracts of Portland shipyards and the shipyards of the Pacific coast. Realizing that it is most vital to the industrial and commercial welfare of the Pacific coast that the steel and wooden shipbuilding yards continue in operation the committee urged upon Chairman Hurley that all shipyards on the Coast be extended the privilege of accepting private contracts for the construction of ships.

Before leaving Portland the house naval affairs committee expressed surprise that so many ways were laid in the shipbuilding plants when there is such demand for ships by foreign countries. They were brought to the realization, as their investigations proceeded, that if the Pacific coast yards with their splendid facilities were granted permission to accept private contracts the industrial unrest on the Pacific Coast largely would be settled and the period of prosperity which this section has been enjoying would be continued. They discovered no reason why the mammoth facilities of the yards and the thousands of workmen available should not be utilized, and accordingly sent the dispatch to Chairman Hurley, requesting that the federal restrictions against the shipbuilding yards taking private contracts be removed.

Holmes Lodge No. 101, K. of P., held an open meeting last Friday evening when a most interesting time was had. A fine program was rendered, which together with speechmaking, presentation of veteran jewel, banqueting and dancing, made the evening one to be remembered. Following was the program: Violin Selection by Prof. Sneed, assisted by Miss Smith; vocal solo by Mrs. Mulkey, address by Judge Grant B. Dimmick of Oregon City; presentation of Veteran jewel to Willard Shepard by Judge Dimmick; duet by Misses Cook and Russell, exhibition by Campfire girls, music by Prof. Sneed and Miss Smith; piano solo by Miss McLean, demonstration of U. S. army gas masks and exhibition of interesting war trophies by Mr. Goodman, who recently returned from France; solo by Mrs. A. E. Johnson, solo by Mrs. Barton, solo by Miss Goldie Taylor, solo and numerous encores by Larry Fassett, solo by Miss Daley, address by Hon. D. C. Lewis. After which lunch was served and dancing followed. There were about 140 guests in attendance.

The three young men who broke the window at 113 1/2 N. Jersey April 2nd are hereby wanted to call at that address and settle the costs, thus saving arrest and punishment. The action was witnessed by a man and two ladies who can identify the parties breaking the glass, adv.

High School Notes

The seventh termers had a candy pull at the home of Idrys Weimer on Saturday, March 29.

The boys of the Senior class gave the Senior girls a party on March 29. A sketch from MacBeth was given, after which they played games.

A girls' athletic meeting was held on Tuesday. Many of the girls gave enthusiastic talks encouraging the others to come out for tennis track and base ball. There was a heated discussion as to whether there would be an indoor base ball team, or both.

Much to the regret of the students, Mrs. Richards, the Chemistry and Biology teacher left for Minnesota on Friday. She was greatly missed in both Chemistry and Biology, but even more so in athletic, because she was the coach of the girls basket ball team.

One of the most interesting lectures of the term was given to the Sociology class on Friday, March 28, by Superintendent Leucher of the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Portland. Mr. Leucher is a specialist in children's problems. He spoke concerning different classes of children: dependent, delinquent and defective, distinguishing them by telling stories of each type.

On Tuesday morning, Major Jack Hamilton gave the students of James John a very interesting talk concerning the orphans of France. He came under the Auspices of the American Committee for Devastated France making an appeal for the adoption of some of these bereft children. He himself had been there and seen these little ones suffer. He tells how when the Allied armies were going through this town in France to the front they saw homeless parents and children carrying their household goods on their backs. When the Allied Armies were coming back through the city, retreating before the Huns, they saw many of the older people lying in the roads and pastures dead. They had drunk the water that the German spies of the city had poisoned to kill off the British Army. The Allied Armies loaded the children, who were yet alive, probably because they had more strength than the old people, into cars and sent them to England. Here their photographs were taken so that they could be identified by their parents where they would come to look for them.

"The best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft agley"—so said Burns, and even the best laid plans of Mark Embury were no exceptions. Mr. Embury decided to raise his own wife, that he might have her as near his ideal as possible; then along came his nephew who decided that the girl was just his ideal and so they lived happily ever after. Briefly that is the plot of the five comedy drama which the Senior Class will present in the High School Auditorium, April 11th and 12th. It was written by Madeline Lucette Ryley and will be produced under the direction of Mrs. Drury-Scott. The admission price will be 30c including the war tax, and seats may be reserved after 2:30 p. m. at Currin's, on the 8th of April.

The Cast—Mark Embury, a philosopher, Charles Trumbull; Roger Goodlake, his friend and neighbor, John Wolf; Captain George Lowell, his nephew, Merle Harrington; Sir Harry Tomblestone, Gordon Avery; Kit Barmiger, a fiddler, Raymond Bredeen; Peter, Embury's servant, Hugh Whisler; Joanna Goodlake, wife of Goodlake, Nana Seely; Mrs. Deborah, Embury's housekeeper, Etta Patterson; Peggy, "Little Britain," Alice Brown; Matron, of Foundling Hospital, Joyce Mason; Beadle, of Foundling Hospital, Harvi Lane; Molly, a kitchen maid, Margaret Carr; Orphans, of Foundling Hospital, Dorothy Jones, Theresa Reich, Hazel Greene, Eleanor Thomas, Gwendyth Young, Leona Ehret, Alverda Mac Niven, Alice Brown and Fay Smith.

Had a Big Time

On Thursday evening, March 27th, St. Johns Camp No. 7546, M. W. of A. held their rally meeting and official presentation of the prize State banner, St. Johns Camp having secured the greatest number of new members during 1918. A very nice program was arranged by the committee in charge. First, after inviting Mr. C. H. Hart to the piano, the entire audience stood up and sang the first verse of America. Mrs. Mulkey rendered a solo which was highly appreciated. Master Billy Scott gave a drum solo. He is but three years old yet he is an artist with the drum sticks. Mr. C. H. Hart of Oregon Fir Camp rendered a pleasing piano solo. Mr. George Haskin gave a reading that brought forth great applause. Then followed the introduction of Mr. W. T. Vaughn of Rose City Camp, who gave a fine speech and extended his highest appreciation of the St. Johns Camp and the good work that had been done, and in conclusion officially presented the local Camp with the banner. Ex-Senator Miller, who is a fine humorist, followed and held his audience with due regard to his remarks. This closed the program and lunch was declared ready, consisting of cake, sandwiches, salad and coffee. Rude's Jazz Orchestra furnished the music, and the Home, Sweet Home waltz was played at the midnight hour. Those on the committee were: Mrs. Amy Corbett, Mrs. W. D. Fairchild, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Zell, Mrs. G. P. Adams, Geo. W. Muhm, A. Cummings and W. Ramba. The committee was highly complimented upon the splendid manner in which the entertainment was handled.—Reported.

Success Not Startling
Ever since Joshua bade the sun to stand still, Men have been endeavoring to change nature By laws and commands, But their success has not been startling, Hortense— In fact it has been scarcely noticeable. But that will not prevent Their cheerfully making more laws And uttering a new flood of commands Whenever any of them happens To acquire a thimbleful of authority. Nobody likes to admit it, But when a law becomes distasteful The hoi polloi merely ignore it in fact. While most likely praising its virtues. And all of us are that kind of hoi polloi More or less—rather more than less. If the law impose insurmountable obstacles And we must perforce, obey, We do it in hardness of spirit, The cow that's fenced in, Never changes her mind about The tyranny of the fence Nor about the pastures being greener. On the other side.—Ex.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by the use of the Serravallo-Rothmann System. When this system is introduced into the ear, the membrane is inflated so that it has a rubbery quality, and the hearing is restored. This is the only method that has been found to be successful. It is a simple and safe method, and it is the only one that has been found to be successful. It is a simple and safe method, and it is the only one that has been found to be successful. The Man or Woman who has no music in his soul is the object of some biting satire by Shakespeare. Nine out of every ten people love music. Some can make it for themselves, others can afford to go to the opera. But all can hear the metropolitan artists without leaving their own home. The STRAD-AVARIA solves the problem.

Dear Mary:—
Is your ice box strictly up-to-date? If it is not shove it out and get a new one; it is a necessity. You see, proper "air drainage" is necessary in an ice box. This keeps the food fresh and prevents the breeding of poisonous "germs." Open the door of your refrigerator and if there is the least "smell" buy a new sanitary one. You'll save enough in foods that won't spoil and ice enough in one season to pay for it. And you'll save expensive doctors' bills. I know.
Your friend—HELEN.
