Let us Reason Together

The Grabateria Cash Grocery is your Defender. We defend you against the store that asks you to pay for the losses on Bad Accounts; that asks you to pay a bookkeeper for keeping your account; that asks you to pay for delivering; that asks you to pay the interest that must be paid in order to carry along a large volume of Grocery Accounts. We defend you against yourself by asking Cash instead of asking you to live beyond your means by going into debt.

We buy in large quantities; we pay spot cash; our rent is low; we are active in the conduct of the business.

Think it over.

It is getting so that the tired customer does not ever wait any more for the tradesman to tell him all the reasons why the goods are higher now than they were while the war was on.

The St. Johns Hardware store has a window arranged in such manner as to delight the eye of the fisherman. All manner of fishing tackle and apparatus are ingeniously displayed. Take a look.

The fence around the ball ground on Fessenden street has been razed, the ground has been plowed and vegetables will be raised. Interest in the national pastime was not great enough to justify retaining the ground for base ball.

Miss Georgia Rich, the well known pianist and teacher, has moved from South Kellogg street to the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dammon, at 515 Ainsworth avenue, Portland. She will, however, maintain a St. Johns studio at 410 Oswego street.

At the Ministerial Association, which meets first Monday in every month at the Y. M. C. A. building, it was voted to observe Passion Week, Apr. 14-20, by simultaneous services every evening in all the churches of the city.

Frank Rogers has just returned from North Yakima, where he says there is a great demand for labor in the beet sugar industry. He says the sugar beet company there wants 300 families and will pay transportation, freight and give free rent for that number. Frank says that any one interested may call Columbia 855, and he will tell all he knows about it.

Last Thursday morning was the scene of a very pleasant surprise at the home of Mrs. Wm. Galloway, when about twenty ladies of Home Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, surprised her, it being the anniversary of her birthday. The friends presented her with a pretty potted plant. After a sumptuous lunch at noon, short addresses were given by Miss Daris and Mrs. Mellenger of Portland Settlement Center. Solos by Mrs. Sandifur, Mrs. Isbell and Miss Daris and a reading by Mrs. Bigler. Then after visiting a while each one went home wishing Mrs. Galloway many happy returns of the day.

Miss Georgia Lynn, well known to many St. Johns people, was united in marriage with Sergeant Floyd L. French recently returned from France with the 69th Artillery, the wedding taking place at the bride's home in Hood River Sunday afternoon, April 6th. The wedding was a quiet affair, only members of the family being present. Rev. J. D. Lewellen, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. N. Byerlee of this city, was present. The happy young couple will make their home in Hood River for the present.

Jimmy had a habit of stretching his imagination to great lengths when telling anything, and after his mother had rebuked him several times he began to watch her for signs of anger when he had something to tell. One evening a visitor from the city came, and during the evening's conversation inquired of Jimmy: "And have you a dog, my little man?" "Oh, yes, I got a dog," replied Jimmy. "I got a big dog. I guess I got about the biggest dog in this town." "Well, that's good," said the visitor. "I like big dogs." Jimmy answered: "Well, I guess mine's big enough. He's nine feet tall—and he's six feet wide and—(just then Jimmy caught his mother's eye) and—he's four inches long."—Everybody's Magazine.
