

NOTABLE WAR PICTURES

Famous Photographer Brings Views of Last Days of the War.

The most remarkable set of last-minute war pictures and views of peace days on the continent which the country affords will be shown at Chautauqua by Henry Warren Poor, expert photographer and well-known lecturer. Mr. Poor's selection has been secured in two trips overseas and through his particularly fortunate position as head of the Slide and Color Department of the great photographic firm of Underwood & Underwood. He is the first to see and select from the vast amount arriving each week from Europe.

His lecture has been voiced by Eastern papers as one of the most informative and interesting of the platform. The views shown include the last days of the offensive on the American front, Yankee troops crossing the Rhine, occupation of German cities and fortresses, President Wilson's visit to France and photos taken during the Peace Convention.

Deafness CAN BE CURED
by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none can out of this are caused by catarrhs, which are nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrhs that cannot be cured by Halsey, Catarrh, Care and for structure, free.

Edwin M. Whitney
Presents "Turn to the Right" at Chautauqua

"Turn to the Right," one of the greatest recent stage successes, is to be presented at Chautauqua by Edwin M. Whitney. The play's sensational run in New York and Chicago emphasizes Mr. Whitney's good fortune in securing the rights of presentation from the author, Winchell Smith.

The delineation of the fourteen characters by Mr. Whitney, who has long been rated as America's foremost interpreter of plays, is so masterly that he presents to the audience, not a single speaker but an entire group.

Czecho-Slovaks Coming to Chautauqua

Czecho-Slovaks from liberty-loving Bohemia will be the big musical feature at Chautauqua this year. Based Day is always the big day of the Chautauqua week but this year it bids fair to eclipse all previous ones. Advance notices received of the Czecho-Slovaks are most unusual and assure Western audiences that a great, unusual treat awaits them on the fifth day.

Jaroslav Cimer, a director who has achieved prominence in both Europe and America, leads this splendid musical organization. All hand music critics to the east have commented on the sparkle, life and dashing brilliancy of his unusual interpretations. As an additional attraction, Madame Chikredit, a prominent Italian prima donna, appears as soloist during the evening concert. She possesses a soprano voice of velvety smoothness, warmth and power and will add the final splendid concert of the day.
