The Grabateria Cash Grocery

The sales of the Scales & Currier Grabateria keep up because the prices are kept down. It is easy to prove that our prices are lower than the regular charge account several-deliveries-a-day Grocery.

We make the prices consistent with a large volume of buying, with the minimum of overhead expense because we employ no bookkeeper, we make but one thorough delivery each day, we are both actively engaged in the business, we eliminate the losses on charge accounts and our rent is low.

Make up a substantial order for us, give us your check and we will convince you that you are saving money. Try it.

Mrs. L. W. Gromachey returned Tuesday evening from Seattle, where she had been visiting for the past six weeks with her niece, Mrs. Roy Bruce. While there she attended the Mutes' National Convention.

The services of the Free Methodist church will be held in the camp grounds known as the Caples tract next Sunday, with Sunday school beginning at 10 a. m., followed by preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

This old story is again going the rounds: "Rastus," said the sheriff, "have you anything to say before the sentence of death is carried into execution?" "No, boss. Ah ain't no speechifuh, but Ah suttlenly believes dis am gwine to be a lesson to me."

At the Methodist Episcopal church the morning topic will be, "Does God Change His Mind?" Union of Epworth League and church services at 8 p. m. The Fourth Quarterly Conference Tuesday evening was a very happy occasion. All bills paid in full and money in the treasury. J. H. Irvine, pastor.

H. P. Bogert, of Fall City, Oregon, while attending Buyers' Week in Portland, dropped in upon his old time friend, Randall Elliott, the first of the week. Mr. Bogert had the misfortune to recently lose the ends of his fingers on his right hand by being caught in a planer. He was in the act of picking up a stick beside the planer and in some manner his hand struck the planer knife with the result that he now has no fingers on his right hand.

Work on the channel to connect Columbia river slough with the Columbia river began Monday. The channel is being dug by the city to furnish flow in the slough to make possible use of this waterway for sewer purposes. Deputy City Engineer John R. Hanson, who has been connected with the city engineer's office for 21 years, has been placed in charge of the project, according to City Commissioner Barbur. It will take about one year to complete the job and the cost will exceed $310,000.

Mrs. L. B. Wilson is spending a couple of weeks at Newport, where her mother is also sojourning.

The grocers' annual picnic held at Bonneville was said to be a most enjoyable affair. It was well attended.

Reports that pay of enlisted men will revert after the peace proclamation to the pre-war scale are incorrect. A telegram from the Adjutant General of the Army announces that the increase awarded by the act of May 18, 1917, continues in effect from and after the approval of the appropriation act of 1920.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, stepfather and mother of Rev. A. P. Layton, and C. S. Layton and wife, brother of Rev. Layton, all of Hastings, Neb., are spending a few days at the parsonage. They like it here immensely, and there is a probability of them becoming permanent residents.

The D. O. K. K. Band of the Knights of Pythias proved itself to be one of the finest musical organizations in the Northwest upon its recent appearance in St. Johns, when a concert was given at the public square at Philadelphia and Ivanhoe streets. A large number of St. Johns folks turned out for the treat, and enjoyed it immensely. The D. O. K. K. will find a hearty welcome to St. Johns any time.

Letha Burrell, 15, while herding cattle on the outskirts of Haley, Idaho, was mauled by a mountain lion, and after a struggle in which she tried to choke it, she was found unconscious, her arms, back and chest badly lacerated. The lion, which jumped upon her back while she was in a sitting posture, tore her clothing into shreds. Citizens at once organized to hunt the lion, which has been seen near the town for a month. The girl will recover.

A pearl, probably worth $750, was found grown to the interior of one of the lids of a large Uno clam, picked up by J. G. Crawford, Sunday, in Bryant's park, near Albany. Mr. Crawford found the clam in the willow bushes about 200 yards from the point of junction between the Calapooia and Willamette rivers. The Uno clam measures 12 millimeters in length, 4 1-2 millimeters in width and the pearl was 3 millimeters long, 2 millimeters wide and 1-2 millimeters high.

TIME IS MONEY

How much is your time worth an hour? How many hours do you spend standing in line awaiting your turn to pay your bills to the electric light company, the water bureau, the gas company, the butcher, the grocer and the telephone company? Figure the difference between what all this time is worth to you and the cost of a postage stamp for mailing a check. Paying by check is the safer and easier way. Try it and you'll never go back to the old way. Open an account next pay day at
