The Grabateria Cash Grocery

The sales of the Scales & Currier Grabateria keep up because the prices are kept down.

It is easy to prove that our prices are lower than the regular charge account several-deliveries-a-day Grocery.

We make the prices consistent with a large volume of buying, with the minimum of overhead expense because we employ no bookkeeper, we make but one thorough delivery each day, we are both actively engaged in the business, we eliminate the losses on charge accounts and our rent is low.

Make up a substantial order for us, give us your check and we will convince you that you are saving money. Try it.

S. L. Dobie has returned from a delightful vacation spent along the Columbia in Washington state.

Miss Edith Erickson, who recently was operated upon for appendicitis, is getting along in fine style, it is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gibson and Mrs. Naramore and son, Floyd, of Mason City, Iowa, have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rice.

Miss Ruth Leonard of Yamhill is the guest of Miss Edna Hollenbeck this week. The two were class mates at Reed College.

James M. Sperry, aged 79, recently severely stung by hornets dropped dead at the county farm at Albany Tuesday afternoon. While clearing brush he was attacked by the hornets. He was taken to the county farm where he died.

At the St. Johns Methodist Episcopal church the Sunday morning subject will be "Man's Nearest Approach to Omnipotence." Our Sunday evening service at 8 in which we merge Epworth League and church is a fine success. Topic "Capitalizing our Epworth League." J. H. Irvine, Pastor.

The public schools will open September 2nd. Despite any reports to the contrary, the James John High School will be conducted again this year the same as last year. The high school students who went to the James John last year will do so again this year. The building has been reinforced, and it is now said to be in good substantial condition. If more room is needed, a portable building will be added.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clute, of Columbiaville, Mich., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hollenbeck. Mrs. Clute is Mr. Hollenbeck's only sister, whom he had not seen for nineteen years, and the visit is being greatly enjoyed. They left their home in June and spent some time visiting in Kansas and Missouri. A son resides near Troutdale, whom they will visit before returning home.

The Meier & Frank Co., announced Tuesday that it has purchased the block bounded by 13th, 14th, Everett and Flanders for $130,000 and will build there a 10 story structure where will be concentrated the wholesale business of the firm. Two stories will be added to the present store at Sixth and Alder streets. The erection of the wholesale building and the addition to the store building will provide for the employment of 500 additional men and women.

Fining a man $1000 for selling a glass of whiskey is pretty rough, unless you give him back the whiskey, says an exchange.

Preliminary work on the big new flour mill at the terminal site is now well under way. Progress is also being made on the cafeteria.

A. D. Cridge reports a farmer's wife near Gresham conducted her own investigation of the high cost of living. She took honey to town and sold it for 20 cents a pound. Then she went home, called up the grocer to whom she had sold and asked: "Have you honey?" "Yes," he said. "Some just came in." "How much is it?" "Sixty cents a pound."—News.

At the St. Johns Baptist church Sunday at 11 a. m. the pastor will deliver his last sermon as pastor of the church. It is hoped that every resident member and friends of the church will be present. The sermon subject will be, "Earth's Future Ruler." There will also be special music. The public is most cordially invited.—E. Burton, Pastor.

Surely something ought to be done about the almost negligible supply of water in the evenings in St. Johns. At times it is almost impossible to secure enough water for drinking. It doesn't seem right that people here should be compelled to pay as much for water for sprinkling, or for any other purpose for that matter, as those who may secure a more plentiful supply in other portions of the city. High time that the water mains to St. Johns be increased in size.

Congress Wednesday succeeded in overriding President Wilson's veto of the bill repealing the daylight saving law. The daylight saving plan, which was adopted soon after the country entered the war, will go out of existence the last Sunday in October as a result of congressional action. The senate delivered the final knockout of the law Tuesday when it passed a repealer over the president's veto by a vote of 57 to 19. The house took the same action Tuesday by a vote of 223 to 101. Although this is the first measure on which the Republican congress has overridden the president, it is not considered a party defeat, since the daylight saving plan had been vigorously opposed by rural congressmen—both Republicans and Democrats. Success of the country forces came after they had once lost their fight to make the repealer a rider to the agricultural bill. The president also vetoed this and city congressmen mustered sufficient strength to sustain this veto. The daylight saving law was passed as part of the war time food production campaign. It was argued that under it more war gardeners would have an hour more of daylight to raise food. Farmers declared that it interfered with their work.

Protection for Old Age

Ever stop to think what a little systematic saving now may mean to you when you get along in years? A saving account added to at the rate of only one dollar a week will mount up surprisingly fast. At only 3% interest at the end of twenty years it would amount to $1418.65. Probably you could save several times that amount some weeks and of course we pay more than 3% on time deposits. This table shows how an account would grow at 3%.
