The Grabateria Cash Grocery

The sales of the Scales & Currier Grabateria keep up because the prices are kept down.

It is easy to prove that our prices are lower than the regular charge account several-deliveries-a-day Grocery.

We make the prices consistent with a large volume of buying, with the minimum of overhead expense because we employ no bookkeeper, we make but one thorough delivery each day, we are both actively engaged in the business, we eliminate the losses on charge accounts and our rent is low.

Make up a substantial order for us, give us your check and we will convince you that you are saving money. Try it.

Local News

Christian Science subject for Sunday's services: "Man."

Miss A. Overstreet returned Monday from an extended trip in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Caldwell have been spending a few days at Seaside, Oregon.

R. D. Powell and H. L. Whisler are out in the mountains on a hunting trip this week.

H. C. Stevens leaves this week for Broken Bow, Neb., where he will visit for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Helms, Howard Helms, Anna and Blanche Poe were week end visitors at the beach.

H. G. Benham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crouchley spent several days at Astoria and Seaside the past week.

Miss Georgia Rich will reopen her studios for the Fall and Winter season at 515 Ainsworth avenue and 410 Oswego street.

Mrs. Florence Wilcox, who is in training at the Sellwood hospital, is spending a portion of her vacation with friends and relatives here.

It is said that the city engineer has been instructed to prepare plans for the resurfacing of Jersey street to some extent. May it be so.

Mrs. Walter Klinefelter (Ruth Canright) returned to her home in Idaho after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Canright.

E. S. Wright and son, Otis, of Cook, Wash., motored to St. Johns and made a short visit on Labor Day. He reports business flourishing at Cook.

Misses Eva Clark and Lydia Villeneuve returned this past week from the East. They visited with friends and relatives in Michigan and Canada.

In recognition of his faithful, earnest and efficient service as pastor of the Christian church, the congregation has increased Dr. Jones' salary fifty per cent.

Mrs. Ethel Coppin, who is employed at the St. Johns Millinery, has returned from her Eastern trip, where she visited millinery houses in Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Paul.

That cherries were a profitable production in St. Johns the past season is evident from the fact that one man here who had ten cherry trees on his lot reaped 3200 pounds from the same and received over $300 for the crop.

"Dearest," he murmured, as soon as they were seated in the high priced restaurant, "you can have anything you want on the bill of fare. Shall I read it off to you?" "No," she replied, hungrily, "just read it off to the waiter."

At the Methodist Episcopal church the Sunday morning subject will be, "Slow Evolution and Sudden Miracle." At 7:00 p. m. the Epworth League will celebrate "Milestones and Moments of Human Freedom—Goodbye, John Barleycorn." At 8:00 Janet M. Pendergast, representing the Pacific Coast Rescue Work, will be the speaker.

Rev. E. Burton, pastor of the Baptist church, has moved to Centralia, Wash. The church will continue their work with Sunday school at the usual hour and one service a day in the morning. W. P. Maples will take charge of the morning service next Sunday morning. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.—Church Clerk.

Dr. H. F. Jones, after a month's vacation, will again occupy the pulpit as usual at the Christian church, beginning Sunday morning.

Chas. S. Horton was successfully operated upon for an abscess last week and is reported getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Horsman returned last week from a pleasant ten-day sojourn at Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Announcement was made last week of the transfer of the 100 by 100 foot tract at the northwest corner of West Park and Taylor streets to the Ellison-White Chautauqua system. The property was formerly owned by Major Charles Worden and the sale was effected through Herbert Gordon. Three frame residence buildings occupy the premises and the property is valued at over $75,000. The Ellison-White concern plans to build upon this site in the future.

A brisk business in houses is reported in this district. The Cozyhome Construction company reports the transfer of five recently. The sales included: House at 1020 South Leonard street to L. L. Waters; house at 1009 South Leonard street to E. E. Phillips; house at 1004 South Leonard street to L. H. Gosney; house at 1014 South Leonard street to F. D. Coolidge and J. S. Mrs. Bliss, National field worker of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church, will be present at the regular monthly meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Olson, 502 West Richmond street, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Sept. 12th. Mrs. Bliss has given her untiring service to this great work of our church for more than 25 years, and has been three times a delegate to the general conference. So she comes to us with something of value. Do not fail to hear her. Come and bring a friend.—Reported.

Objection to the use of Jersey and Kellogg streets for the tracks of the proposed extension line of the Portland Railway, Light and Power company from St. Johns to the municipal terminals is offered in a letter addressed to the city council by S. C. Cook, real estate operator in the St. Johns district. These streets, he explains, are the only paved arteries leading to the docks. He asserts that they should be limited to vehicular traffic. Leonard or other streets in the district which are not hard surfaced are suggested as the route of the extension by Mr. Cook, says the Journal.

Dorothy Maude O'Brian was drowned in the Willamette river Sunday, August 17th, while riding in a canoe in company with another girl friend and two young gentlemen. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley O'Brian of Calvert street, and was born in Glasgow, Scotland, Dec. 21, 1902, having been a resident of the United States for the past eight years. The young lady had been a student of the James John High school the past year and was preparing to continue her studies. She had the reputation, it is said, of being one of the prettiest girls in the city. Besides her parents and relatives she leaves a host of friends to mourn her untimely death. Funeral services were held at the Episcopal church on Hereford street, Portsmouth, August 23d, Miller & Tracey in charge. Interment in Columbia cemetery.

Want a War Souvenir?

We have purchased from the Government a limited number of Hand Grenades which the War Department has turned over to the Federal Reserve Bank to be converted into Savings Banks. Of course the T. N. T. has been removed and a coin slot drilled in the top. These Hand Grenades make a souvenir of the Great War that you will want to keep in the family and hand down to your great grand-children.

A limited allotment has been promised to us to be delivered in October. The Government permits us to give only to persons making purchases as follows:

Persons 12 years or under—One $5 War Saving Stamp, September price $4.20 each.

Persons 13 to 18 years Two $5 War Saving Stamps, September price $4.20 each.

Persons 18 years or over—$100 Treasury Certificate, September price $84 each.

While they last we will give one of these banks to every person having an account—new or old—in this Bank, who complies with the Government conditions. If you want one better leave your name now at the Savings Department Window.
