Local News

Subject for Christian Science services Sunday: "Substance."

Since the recent rains permits are again being issued for rubbish fires.

Dr. Mulkey has returned from a couple of weeks' business trip in Central Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gammell have returned from a very pleasant sojourn at Garibaldi Beach.

Wm. Sorber has disposed of soft drink and tobacco store on North Jersey street to William Preston, who has taken possession of same.

Miss Ethel Bowers, librarian of the St. Johns library, is back at her work after a month's vacation spent in Spokane and Glacier Park.

The Jolly 'Steen club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chambers at Portsmouth Wednesday evening.

C. S. Wells and Charles Fleck of Tillamook are spending a few days in St. Johns. They report the roads by auto in fairly good condition.

A beautiful collection of butterflies gathered around St. Johns by Rex Jones, 116 N. Edison street, is on exhibition at the library and will be there for a limited time.

Sherman Cochran will open up a tobacco and soft drink establishment in the room opposite the Multnomah, and formerly occupied as a watermelon garden.

Mrs. Ruth Simmons returned last week from Long Beach, Cal., where she spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Crouch, former residents of this city, but now residing in the South.

Heine, of the local fire department, landed a six pound bass in the river last week. Capt. Stark also reports some fine catches of bass the past few days. The one that got away, however, was the biggest of them all.

Mrs. E. W. McLean and son have returned to St. Johns, after spending the summer at Jewel and other resorts in Clatsop county. Mr. McLean, who is in the Forestry service, expects to return this week.

A new assistant at the library is Miss Elizabeth Hales of Eugene. Miss Hales will also be in charge of the James John High school library. A graduate of Pittsburg Library school, she comes to us full of enthusiasm for her work.

Miss Bonnie Holladay of the bookkeeping department of the Peninsula National bank will leave the latter part of this month to take a course in economics and foreign trade in the University of Washington at Seattle.

A small building occupied by O. B. Madison at 409 E. Richmond street was destroyed by fire about 7 o'clock Monday evening. Mr. Madison, it is said, was heating some oil and rubber on the stove and went outside for a few minutes, and during his absence the place caught fire. Mr. Madison lost his personal effects, including a couple of checks, it is said. The loss is about $400.

In the Washington Star appears the story of a friendly argument that arose between two young chaplains of different denominations, in which the senior chaplain rather cleverly got the better of his opponent. "Let us bury the hatchet, my brother," he said. "After all, we are both doing the Lord's work, are we not?" "We certainly are," said the junior chaplain, quite disarmed. "Let us, then, do it to the best of our ability, you in your way and I in his."

C. S. Currin made a business trip to Klamath Falls this week.

No auto is complete without a flag. Get one at the Review office.

Miss Margaret Mulkey has returned from an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and Miss Cole have returned from seashore resorts.

Mrs. A. E. David of Carlton is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Vinson.

C. M. Blakely of Des Moines, Iowa, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. C. Scott, whom he had not seen for more than eleven years.

Merl Wilcox has enlisted in the Motor Transport training school, U. S. Service. He left Tuesday evening for Fort McDowell, San Francisco.

Mrs. C. H. Boyd and little daughter are at Goldendale, Wash., where they expect to remain until they are able to find a residence in Portland.

Russell Meyer and Louis Dunsmore are home on a short visit, after spending the summer months at Goble. They expect to enter the University of Oregon this fall.

David A. Byerles and wife were pleasant visitors at this office Tuesday. Mr. Byerles learned the printing trade at this office some years ago. He is now located at Eugene. His many friends here were glad to greet him once more.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Scott, 102 Central avenue, next Monday at 2 o'clock. This will be an important meeting, as it is the time for the annual report and the election of officers. We hope to have all our members present. After the business there will be either a lecture or paper on Purity and Rescue Work. The program will be interesting.—Reported.

An old lady called at a farm house one day just as the family were sitting down to tea. She was invited to join in. "Nay," she said, "I have no time; but I don't mind hevin' a cup of tea and a bit of cake." She finished the cake before the tea, took another piece, and said, "Just to get the tea daan." She repeated that performance, says the Weekly Telegraph, until she had been helped to seven cups of tea and eight pieces of cake. Then, looking round complacently, she said: "Well, Ah think, after all, Ah'll take me bonnet off and get me tea reight."

St. Johns Methodist church will observe next Sunday as "Federation Sunday," as will all the leading churches of all denominations of the city. Hand in hand with the League of Nations, the long desired League of Denominations is hastening on its way. Millions of earth's best spirits in every land are praying God speed them both. At 7:00 p. m. Epworth League Rally Sunday; topic, "Not Our Bit, But Our Best." At 8:00 p. m. several speakers will discuss a great waste that must be stopped. Everybody's service. J. H. Irvine, Pastor.

Miss Henry, who has been acting as Secretary for the St. Johns Y. W. C. A. branch, has resigned to accept a position in the city. The officers of the Central Y. W. C. A. have asked Mrs. J. M. Shaw to take general charge of the work here, and she has consented to do so. The club work will be carried on as formerly and in addition evening sewing classes will be conducted under Mrs. Shaw's able management. October 1st has been selected for registration day for this particular work. All Y. W. C. A. members can have the instruction free of charge. Membership fee in the Y. W. C. A. is $1.00 a year for adults and 50 cents for those under 18 years. All wishing to take this work should register promptly, as there seems a general demand for sewing classes since the closing of the night school.
