

ST. JOHNS REVIEW

News in General

Patronize the Review advertisers. J. C. Russell has moved to Pasco, Wash.

Earl Berry spent the week end hunting in the vicinity of Hillsboro.

A marriage license was issued last week to Alexander Miller, 722 N. Syracuse, and Emma Leverenz, 1010 N. Willamette boulevard.

Mrs. Otto Olin, 709 East Polk street, while cleaning windows at her home recently on a step ladder fell and fractured her leg above the ankle.

John W. Palmer, proprietor of the Hotel McChesney, left the first of the week for business trip in California. He expects to be gone two or three weeks.

Mrs. Frank Love died at the family residence, Richmond street and Columbia boulevard, Oct. 1st, aged 41 years. Funeral services were held Friday, Oct. 3, at the chapel of Miller & Tracey. Interment in Columbia cemetery.

Mrs. Maude M. Newkirk, wife of Harry Newkirk, died at her home at 1427 Olympia street, Oct. 2, aged 23 years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wrinkler. The funeral services were held Saturday, October 4th, at 10 a. m. at the chapel of Miller & Tracey. Interment at Multnomah Park cemetery.

The Port of Portland drydock is to be enlarged immediately by the addition of one pontoon, and plans are to be prepared for another drydock. Portland is sadly lacking in drydock facilities, has been frequently shown since the shipping industry began flourishing here. Right now several vessels are held up because of scarcity of drydock accommodations.

Randolph Graden has sold the store building on the corner of Fessenden and Oswego streets to E. E. Phelps of, Billings, Mont., who will put in a stock of groceries. Mr. Phelps has been in the grocery business in Billings for eight years, but came West on account of ill health. He has also bought a residence on Hartman street.

Beautiful Autumn days these. None more glorious in any clime.

The James John High foot ball team defeated Lincoln High Monday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0.

If you have a visitor in your home, it is only a matter of courtesy to the guest to report the same for the local paper.

The box social and dance given by the Holy Name society of St. Clement's parish, St. Johns, Saturday night, was well attended. About $135 was raised toward buying wood for the church.

Mrs. Frances L. Holmes and daughter Katherine, of Spokane, Wash., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Holmes, 302 Fessenden street, St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes were formerly residents of Portland.

Mrs. W. Hyde has returned from a two-weeks' visit to her mother in Seattle. Her brother, C. Christenson, who recently had his hand injured in a mill in Seattle, accompanied her home.

Mrs. Sarah E. Kemp, of 614 Smith avenue, received word Friday night of the death of her son, L. J. Kemp, of Alberta, Canada. Besides his mother, he leaves a widow, a brother, William Kemp, of Portland, and a sister, Miss Nellie Kemp, who lives with the mother.

Mrs. M. C. Soule has moved her office to her home at 612 Allegheny street, and she announces that she has several prospective customers looking for houses, and advises persons having houses for sale to list same with her.

Four burglaries, none of which resulted in much loss to the victims, aroused some excitement in the peninsula district Sunday night. The houses robbed are those of C. H. Starbird, 1589 Fowler street, who lost a diamond stickpin, a diamond ring, a lavalliere, and other jewelry. O. T. Staple, 1480 Knowles street, who lost two plain band rings and some silver beads; J. Bach, 1615 Fowler street, who lost $2 cash, and A. J. Webber, 1610 Chautauqua street, who could find nothing missing. Inspectors Tichenor and Mallett were assigned to the case. The burglars gained entrance to the houses with a pass key.

These have been sure sweetless days. Not an ounce of sugar could be procured in St. Johns the first of the week.

If the Review carriers fail to leave a paper each week at your home in St. Johns, call attention to the fact, for they are paid to leave one in each home.

Mrs. W. J. Mackey and children have gone to Idaho for the benefit of Mrs. Mackey's health, which has been poor ever since she had the influenza in the spring. Their stay will be indefinite.

Thomas Miller, local hoseman No. 32, is a landscape artist as well as a faithful and efficient fire fighter. He has been doing some fine work around the city hall in the way of making it more beautiful and attractive.

F. W. Ralls and F. H. Griffith have opened a plumbing and heating and sheet metal establishment at 120 Philadelphia street, the former having charge of the plumbing and the latter the sheet metal work.

A false alarm of fire at 1539 Portsmouth avenue called the fire department out last Thursday evening. It seems that some one noticed what he thought to be an undue amount of smoke issuing from the chimney and turned in the alarm. The company lost no time in getting there, however.

W. Vernon, aged 37 years, was fatally injured Monday morning at the Western Co-operative works at St. Johns. Vernon was a splitter and about 9:30 o'clock was caught between two blocks of wood each three feet in diameter. He was huried to St. Vincent's hospital, where he died in the operating room. Vernon's home was at 1859 Portsmouth avenue. He is survived by a widow and several children.

Mrs. John C. Brooks of Toppenish, Wash., is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hollenbeck.

Advertisers desiring to change copy must have same in this office not later than Wednesday evening of each week. Otherwise a change cannot be guaranteed.

Look over the announcements of the business men in this paper, and then patronize them. They are desirous of your trade, and you are assured of fair and courteous treatment.

The apple trees are now yielding up their abundance of fruit. Word from Pennsylvania states that practically all the apples in that state were killed by late frost, and apples are retailing at $3.60 per bushel, where 50 and 60 cents was the price several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clute departed for their home in Michigan last week after a very pleasant sojourn with the latter's brother, W. R. Hollenbeck, who took them to see the ocean at Seaside and other points of interest. They left their home in June and have been taking in the sights of the great Northwest pretty much ever since. They were delighted with St. Johns and vicinity.

Charles Sumner Horton died at 524 Richmond street October 6th, aged 55 years, abscess of the liver being the cause of his death. He had been a resident of St. Johns for about seven months, coming here from Boise, Idaho. He is survived by his widow. The funeral services were held at the chapel of the St. Johns Undertaking Co. Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the I. O. O. F. having charge. Dr. Jones preached the sermon. Interment in Columbia cemetery.

Portland flouring mill and cereal workers' strike ended and plants run.

Persons contributing news items for this paper should send them in not later than Wednesday evening of each week.

F. F. Moore, president of the Moore Packing company, has returned to this city, after a sojourn of five or six months in the land of the midnight sun. He had been supervising the operation of two salmon packing plants in which he is interested—one at Cordova, and the other at George Inlet, Alaska. He reports the pack this year comparatively light but of excellent quality. E. F.'s many friends are glad to see him again.

Frank A. Rice and mother-in-law, Mrs. Jennie McKeon, left the first of the week for Mason City, Iowa, and from thence they will go to Ohio to settle up an estate of Mrs. McKeon's mother, who died there the past summer. Mrs. McKeon will probably remain at her old home in Mason City, Iowa, after having spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Rice, here. Mr. Rice will return in two or three weeks.

Application of laborers on the St. Johns terminal for an increase of $1 a day was granted Friday by the dock commission after considering the matter for a week. About 75 men are involved in the new scale, which practically means an average of $6 a day of eight hours for the laborers. Labor officials stated that the action of the commission was based upon the belief that the men were entitled to better wages to meet the high cost of living. The pay is retroactive to September 15.

It was Modesto, Cal., and it had not rained since March. A heavy downpour took place a few days ago. A little 3 year old boy watched it for a moment and then exclaimed: "Mamma, mamma, who turned that water on?" Turning to his papa, he said: "Papa, turn that big water-off." A little later the sun came out and the rain ceased. The little fellow then said to his papa: "Turn it on again." The little boy is Keith Glen, grandson of Mrs. Magone of this place. He had not seen it rain for so long that he had forgotten how it was done.

Patronize the home merchant. Local advertising will be charged for at two cents per word, words in capitals counting on word and a half. So count your words when sending in a local ad. to the Review during the "Get Better Acquainted" campaign.

Display advertising space in the Review is all taken for the present. However, others who desire to make a weekly visit to the homes of St. Johns in an advertising way should so advise us, and if enough encouragement is thus secured the paper will be enlarged.

The summer's building program in Portland has failed in any appreciable degree to make up for the shortage of houses, comments the Peninsula National bank's news letter, in discussing the building problem of Portland. Such houses as have been built have either been for the owners, who will occupy them, or for persons who expect to sell them as soon as completed. In the Peninsula district there is an ever increasing demand for houses to be rented, but no new ones have been constructed for this purpose. Families desiring to move into the district, who have not saved enough to make the initial payments on homes, are decidedly out of luck. There would seem to be an opportunity here for a paying investment in an apartment house or group of terraced houses.

As a result of the Salem Methodist Conference last week, a change has been made in the Methodist pastorate in St. Johns, Rev. J. H. Irvine being transferred to Woodlawn and Rev. W. S. Kloster being placed in charge here. The people of St. Johns as a whole will regret the departure of Rev. Irvine and his estimable family. He has proven broad minded, sympathetic, courageous, an earnest and tireless worker in the Master's cause, and the fine success that has attended his pastorage here was well deserved and a splendid testimony of his efficiency and capacity as pastor. Rev. Irvine has ever taken a keen interest in the welfare and development of St. Johns, and he was always found ready and willing to do all that he could toward the community's betterment. While the departure of Rev. Irvine and family is a matter of regret, yet it is a satisfaction to know that they will not be far away.
