The Debonair club was most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. M. B. Greene, 810 Smith avenue N., Thursday of last week. There was a goodly attendance and a good time had by all. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Lawrence Layton entertained her Sunday school class at her home at 1010 S. Leonard street on the afternoon of Saturday, January 10th, from 2 to 4 p. m. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all. Those present were the Misses Alice Monahan, Elizabeth Ogden, Wilma Maxwell, Marie Prudham, Virginia Hogan, Lucille Tuncliffe, Beatrice Chadwick and Mrs. L. Layton.

The newly installed officers of Laurelhurst Rebekah Lodge, No. 160, are Mrs. Nellie Haskell, Noble Grand; Mrs. Birdie Hantze, Vice Grand; Mrs. Anna Canright, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. Anna Gaines, Treas.; Mrs. Emily Churchill, Fin. Sec. The past year was a very successful one for this lodge. On February 11th we expect a fraternal visit from Mrs. Jessie Jarvis, president of Rebekah Assembly, who was prevented from coming in December by the severely cold weather and snow storm. All members should be present on that date.—Anna Canright, Rec. Sec.

According to custom there will be a union service at the James John High school next Sunday night in honor of the January graduating class. Because the majority of the class come from Portsmouth and Peninsula Grammar Schools the courtesy of selecting the minister has been accorded to them. They have invited Reverend C. H. Johnston of the University Park Congregational Church to give the sermon. Doctor E. P. Borden has been asked to assist. Special music will consist of a number by the Girls' Glee Club and a Duet by Mary Kieffer and Gladys Keeney. Services will begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

Walter Jenkins, Portland community song leader, will hold a community sing at the St. Johns library Saturday at 2:30. It will be worth while.

A portable building is being erected at James John high school to relieve the crowded condition of the present building and to care for the new pupils, enrolling with the beginning of the new term.

The annual church and Sunday school election of the United Evangelical church was held last Thursday evening at the church. The following church officers were elected: Trustee, Gordon Ogden; Treasurer, Mrs. Montgomery. The Sunday school officers, who were elected are: Superintendent Mrs. G. Hall; 1st. assistant superintendent, Mrs. Haskins; 2d assistant superintendent, Lawrence Layton; secretary, Gordon Ogden; Treasurer, Minnie Plasket; Pianist, Mrs. Belle Thayer.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Shaw's Sunday school class entertained B. Y. B. U. at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. In the last few weeks Mrs. Shaw's class has spent several enjoyable evenings with the University Park class. The object of the party was to augment this interclass friendship. All members agree it served its purpose well, for about thirty people were present. Mrs. Achlan, teacher of the visiting class, had under her charge Helen Shoemaker, Minnie Kirkpatrick, Gladys Fifer, Vivian Piniger, Vance Cummins, Robert Fifer and Harold Rouldough. While those of Mrs. Shaw's class were Leona Boomsalter, Catherine Banbury, Grace Catto, Sophia Larson, Rose Priest, Ella Acherman, Alice Banbury, Beatrice Shaw, Lucy Doty, Donald Green, Earl Priest, James Vrooman, Earl Stevenson, Robert Lemon, Rollan Swartz and Berger Amborn. To add to this merry company were two visitors, Mrs. J. A. Banbury and Lucy Fenilson. In the course of the evening many lively games were played and songs sung. Like all parties the refreshments were the center of interest. At 10:30 a very appetizing lunch was served by Mrs. Priest, and at 11:00 the party broke up, each class feeling better acquainted and a closer fellowship between individuals.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Medved leave this week for Nez Perce, Idaho, where they will remain indefinitely.

The Pythian Sisters' Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. E. E. Phillips on Leonard street last Tuesday evening. Instead of having an all day session as usual, the Sisters met in the evening and an invitation had been given their husbands, the K. of P.'s. A most bountiful dinner had been prepared by the ladies, which was enjoyed by all, after which 500 was played. A large number of members were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The Knights wish the Sisters would have these more often. All Pythian Sisters are urged to bear in mind the meetings are held every two weeks, and much good benefit is in store for all who attend.—Reported.

On Wednesday of this week, Mrs. Eugene O'Hara entertained in her usual happy manner, at her home on E. Polk St., honoring Miss Eliza Cole, whose wedding is an event of the near future. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Oregon grape and Japanese lanterns. A miscellaneous shower was planned for the afternoon and after several musical numbers the guest of honor was called upon to preside at the gift table. Many were the beautiful and useful gifts received. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The invited guests were Miss Katherine Scott, Etta Alsborge, Louise Couch, Mesdames E. O'Hara, F. A. Robertson, A. R. Folkenberg, Davidson, Sommer, Lasky, K. Couch, J. C. Scott, Hutchinson, Perry Bellau, Covey, J. M. Walker of Independence, Ore., and H. C. Petersen and little son and daughter, Bobby and Dorris of Hillsboro, Ore.

Floyd Yandle, one of the carpenters at the St. Johns terminal, took his wife to view the new structure Sunday afternoon; besides taking several snap shots of the building, Mrs. Yandle accompanied her husband to the top of the elevator. She says it is some climb, but the view is worth it.

The annual shareholders' meeting of the Peninsula National Bank was held January 13th, when the following directors were elected: Thos. Autzen, A. R. Jobes, F. C. Knapp, H. E. Pennell, Grant Smith, J. N. Edlefsen, K. C. Couch, H. W. Bonham. The directors then elected the following officers: F. C. Knapp, Chairman of the Board, formerly Vice President; Grant Smith, President; J. N. Edlefsen, Vice President and Manager, formerly Cashier; F. P. Drinker, Vice President; C. B. Russell, Cashier, formerly Assistant Cashier; S. L. Dobie, Assistant Cashier; E. R. Morris, Assistant Cashier in credit dept. L. J. Wright, Assistant Cashier, formerly Savings Teller; Miss Grace Cole succeeds Mr. Wright as Savings Teller. This banking institution has shown wonderful growth and the volume of business handled by the most efficient and accommodating corps of officers and assistants is immense. Service is one of the leading virtues at this bank, and this together with courtesy, efficiency and sound management has made it one of the great institutions of Portland.

The annual banquet of the officers, directors and staff of the bank was held Tuesday evening at the Multnomah hotel, in the Hollyhock room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with poinsettias, white carnations and narcissus. After the banquet the balance of the evening was spent in dancing.

A fine class of twenty will graduate in a few days. Those graduating are: Edmond Kygal president, Genivie Brown vice president, Gladys Coon Secretary, Clarence Toole Treas., Stanley O'Connor Live wire, Ora Wagner, Harlan Hiatt, Paul Chatterton, Dorothy Hoyt, Anna Toole, Edith Hartnal, Mary Keifer, Helen Story, Ruth Reece, Frances Foster, Rudy Anderson, Lowell Dotson, George Walker, Esther Pileay and Gladys Keeney. Mr. O'Bay is the registration teacher.

An important assembly was held Tuesday morning. The term of office being up for the Student Body officers, they made their final report. The hard earned prizes were given to the winners in the ticket selling contest for the operetta. Alice Banbury, president of the 7th term class, received the James

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students are all busy filling out their forecasts for next semester.

Commencement will be a week from Friday, January 23. It is still undecided who the speaker of the evening will be.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered next Sunday by C. A. Johnston of the University Park Presbyterian church.

The new portable is progressing nicely. It has been suggested to call it Portable X if any math. classes are held in it.

The basket ball game at Hillsboro Friday was a decided victory for James John. The score was 31-6. "Pug" Toole threw the most baskets.

This week is Student Body election week. Jessup was re-elected President and Lee Hoskins is our new Welfare Commissioner. Elections will be held all week.

Do not be surprised if you see these notes no more, because next week is final examinations for this semester, and some wise person has said "Ashes to Ashes, Dust to dust, if English don't kill us, History must."

The play, "She Stoops to Conquer," is ready to be given Friday and Saturday. It is the biggest and best thing that James John has ever put on, and if you fail to see it you miss a great treat.

An important assembly was held Tuesday morning. The term of office being up for the Student Body officers, they made their final report. The hard earned prizes were given to the winners in the ticket selling contest for the operetta. Alice Banbury, president of the 7th term class, received the James

John pennant for the class, as they sold the most tickets, and the beautiful sofa pillow top went to George Skells as the individual selling the most tickets. Also the football men were presented with their double J's by Mr. Fletcher, as Mr. Campbell was not there. The following received letters: "Huck" Hiatt, "Dick" Girt, "Sherm" Chockran, Oliver Jessup, "Porky" Chatterton, Frank Hedges, "Bob" Miller, A. Johnston of the University Park Presbyterian church.

Two last year graduates were James John visitors Wednesday. They are Louise Lott and Zara Hindley.—C. A. W.

The following was received from L. H. Campbell, for a number of years a resident of St. Johns but now located at Los Angeles: Friend Markle: As I think my subscription expires about the first of this year am sending you check for year's renewal, as I like to get the news from the old home town and know what is doing among old friends and neighbors. We like Los Angeles very much, especially the beautiful sunshine which we enjoy nearly every day. Also the vegetables and flowers that grow here all winter. I noticed the piece in your paper on the soaring of the spud. Well you can be thankful that we are not paying over $4.00. Down here we need to add one or two dollars to that price. But that is not the worst; when preparing for the table we find quite a large part of them not fit for use. But we have one on Oregon—we can get good sweets here for less price than the Irish potato. L. H. Smith is back at his old job peddling real estate. There is lots of real estate changing hands here, as people are coming in so fast that the houses for rent are so scarce they have to buy to get a place to live. Lots of houses being built but can't put them up fast enough to keep up with the demand.

Ben Peterson of Smith avenue says he bets his Ford can kick harder than Milligans mule. He is suffering with a broken arm, the result of one of its kicks.
