ROOT'S THALO-MINT

For Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Gastritis, Auto-intoxication

In offering Root's Thalo-mint as a medicine for the above diseases we feel that we are placing in the hands of the customer a preparation which can be safely used at all times and occasions when there is distress resulting from a deranged stomach. Many of the chronic ills from which we suffer originate in excessive acid condition of the system, beginning with the mouth and extending clear through the digestive tract. In Root's Thalo-mint will be found an agreeable and effective Aromatic, Antacid and Eliminative, which, on account of its delicious flavor, will be widely acceptable for use from infancy to old age.

Local News

Mrs. Jesse Walker of Independence was a St. Johns visitor during the past week.

The new Christian Science church is rapidly nearing completion at Smith avenue and New York streets.

N. A. Gee is erecting a new dwelling house for J. R. Weimer on Willamette boulevard, near Catlin street.

Isn't it about time that some thought was being given to a high bridge at St. Johns? Time at least to begin agitating the question.

A well known citizen was in the office the other day and he stated that one of the things most badly needed in St. Johns was a first class hotel.

Mrs. Clarence Woolley and daughters, Lucile and Marjorie, left last week for Central City, Neb., where they were called on account of the death of Mrs. Woolley's mother.

Mrs. J. Rossi and daughter, Catherine, who have been visiting friends and relatives for the past four months in the East, returned home Sunday. A most enjoyable time is reported.

The Pythian Sisters will give their dance in the skating rink instead of Bickner Hall, as previously announced. It will take place Thursday evening, Jan. 29th. The D. O. K. K. orchestra will furnish the music.

Young Farmer Burns, welter-weight wrestler of St. Johns, is anxious to wrestle any man in the world of his weight (145 lbs) barring none. Or would agree to throw three local men in one hour. Can be found at 215 Philadelphia street, or Col. 579.

This is thrift week throughout the United States, concerning which food for thought is contained in the space of the Peninsula National Bank this week? Read it now while you think of it. Then profit by what you read.

All Pythian Sisters are invited to attend the Club which meets next Tuesday afternoon and evening with Mrs. A. Carl Nelson on N. Edison street. Sisters and their husbands are invited to attend the get-together dinner, which will be served at 7:00 o'clock.

In their presentation Friday and Saturday evenings of the five act comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer," James John high school seniors did credit to their instructor, Mrs. Drury-Scott. Crowded houses greeted the actors on both evenings. Duets by Adelaide and Sue Eggman, Erma and Esma Griswold and a violin duet by Harriet Padden and Melford Wesley furnished music between the acts. Clinton O. Bay also sang a solo.

Last Friday night being the regular meeting night of the Knights of Pythians, about 45 Knights assembled prepared to have an enjoyable evening and to see that six new candidates rode the goat properly. After all business had been transacted and Lodge adjourned, to the surprise of all present when they got to the kitchen they found about thirty Pythian Sisters with tables all spread and supper fit for a king. Several toasts were given by a few visiting Knights, after which a social hour was spent. All went home wondering when another surprise would be given.

Mr. Roy F. Thompson and Miss Dora V. Fox, both of St. Johns, were united in marriage at the M. E. church Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. Alponso Fox, brother of the bride, and Miss Helen A. Thompson, cousin of the groom, attended them. Rev. W. E. Kloster performed the ceremony. A reception was held at the bride's home after the ceremony. The bride received many beautiful gifts. The happy young couple left on the evening train for Victoria, B. C., for their honeymoon, after which they will make their home in St. Johns.

There will be five issues of the Review published this month.

A citizen suggests that the daily papers should be read in the public schools in order to keep the pupils informed on the current events of the day.

The time for holding gymnasium class of the Y. W. C. A. has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday evening at the usual hour to accommodate members of the class.

The weave room department of the woolen mills will hold an old fashioned country fair at the club house beginning at 7:30 tomorrow, Saturday, evening. All the features of a country fair and then some will be in evidence. A jolly good time is assured. Everybody welcome.

Paster E. J. Hibbard will be with us again and will lecture on the all-important subject, "Is God's Judgment Now Due," at the Seventh Day Adventist church Wednesday evening, January 28th, at 7:30. Improve the opportunity of hearing him.—Reported.

H. Steinfeldt, who conducts the St. Johns Poultry Farm, had his buildings raised the first of the week. N. A. Gee having charge of the work. Mr. Steinfeldt has a fine chicken farm, and among other varieties has over 300 fine white leghorns.

Eugene Malo died at his home in Gervais January 6th of heart trouble. The older residents of St. Johns will probably remember Mr. Malo, as he lived here in the earlier days, following his trade as a carpenter. He is survived by his widow and seven children.

Mrs. J. O'Connell has purchased the furnishings of the rooming house over Bonham & Currier's store and took possession Tuesday. She has had considerable experience in the rooming house business and will no doubt make a success of The Doris Apartments, which is the new name for the rooms.

Manager McCredie of the Multnomah theater has purchased the corner of ground at Alta and Jersey streets, occupied by the Grabateria store, from Thos. Coupe, the deal being consummated through the agency of A. W. Davis, the realty man. It is Mr. McCredie's intention to erect a thoroughly modern picture show and vaudeville house thereon eventually.

Mae Perkins Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Berkins, of Carlton, Ore., became the bride of James Gordon Cooper at a church wedding on Friday evening at Central Methodist church. The wedding ceremony was solemnized by Rev. A. R. Maclean, pastor of the church. Mrs. Cooper has been a teacher in the North school of St. Johns for a number of years. Her many friends here unite in extending heartiest congratulations.

Observe Thrift Week

In commemoration of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, master of thrift, this week is being observed throughout America as THRIFT WEEK. The American Bankers' Association has endorsed the following Ten Commandments of THRIFT. Check them off and see how many of them you are living up to and then resolve to obey the rest of them this year:

1. Make a budget.
2. Keep an intelligent record of expenditures.
3. Have a bank account.
4. Carry life insurance.
5. Make a will.
6. Own your own home eventually.
7. Pay your bills promptly.
8. Invest in War Savings Stamps and other government securities.
9. Spend less than you earn.
10. Share with others. Thrift without benevolence is a doubtful blessing.

Our FAMILY BUDGET and HOUSEHOLD ACCOUNT Book will help you to adhere to the first and second commandments.
