

WILL MEAN BIG MILL

With the Long-Bell Lumber company of Kansas City, Mo., holding an option on 75,000 acres of timber owned by the Weyerhaeuser Timber company in the Cowitz River valley, one of the largest transactions in standing timber in the United States, or perhaps in the world, is in the course of consummation.

The stand of timber is medium sized yellow fir of the finest kind and cruises approximately 2,000,000,000 feet, and it is reported that the option calls for $3 per thousand feet, or $6,000,000 for the entire body.

The large Benson holdings back of Clatskanie, transferred some years ago involved the sum of $4,000,000, and up till this time that transaction has stood as the largest in the history of logging and lumbering in the Pacific Northwest.

The purchase of the Weyerhaeuser tract, it is pointed out by timber and lumber men, will mean infinitely more than the mere transfer of title to the land, because while the Weyerhaeuser interests are largely holding concerns, the Long-Bell interests are engaged in the manufacture and sale of lumber on a tremendous scale, owning a dozen or more sawmills and nearly a hundred retail yards, in addition to miles of railroads and vast quantities of logging and other equipment.

Robert Alexander Bell, president of the company and guiding spirit of a large number of subsidiary concerns, began operations in the lumber game about 45 years ago and is known as one of the most aggressive and active lumbermen in the country. His interests extend over the South and California, and for some time he has had his attention riveted on the Pacific Northwest, this being recognized as the great source of supply of timber after the harvesting of the forests in the South.

The immense tract in the Cowitz valley which the Long-Bell interests are now planning to develop as the entering wedge to operations in the Pacific Northwest, lies back of the timber owned by the Inman-Poulsen Lumber company and the Eastern & Western Lumber company, and west of the Cowitz river, in the Mount Solo district. While not on the Cowitz river proper, it is within easy reach of tidewater, and is in the case of the Inman-Poulsen and Eastern & Western companies, the logs can be towed to Portland at a small cost. The company, it is understood, plans to erect a mill of 300,000,000 feet annual capacity, far larger than any new in Portland.—Journal.

THE KNIGHT

Following was received by the K. of P. at their recent annual roll call and is published by request:

I am not often with you, Brothers, When you fill the Castle Hall, But my thoughts are ever with you
In my heart I hear the call, And I whisper, God be with you, Keep you ever safe and true, Though absent from the council In my heart I am there with you. Even the Knights of old in armour Harkened to the Battle Call.

We carry a full line of Edison Blue Records and Disk Records to play on all machines, also full line of Phonograph Necessities.

SOMEWHAT PEEVED

Note: An extract from a letter to an internal revenue collector, which was printed in the Insurance Field; "I have been held down, sandbagged, walked on, flattened out and squeezed, first by the United States Government for the federal war tax, the excess profits tax, the Liberty Bonds, first, second, third, fourth and fifth issues; for the state, county and city and highway tax, the auto tax and the syntax and by every society and organization that inventive mind of man can invent to extract what you may or may not possess; from the Society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., the Woman's Relief, the Red Cross, the Iron Cross, the Double Cross, and every other cross of all colors until I feel that I am cross myself; the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., and the Old Folks' Home, the Childrens' Home, the Dorcas Society, and every hospital in town. The Government has so governed business that I don't know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined and re-examined, informed, required and commanded so I don't know who I am, where I am or why I am here. All I know is that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race and because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away, I have been cussed, discussed, talked to, talked about, lied to, lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined, and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what in the h—l is coming next!"—Sellwood Bee.

Answered, Chieftain, we are with you; We will guard the Castle Hall. Knee to knee, and lance to shoulder. Heart and soul, eye one and all, We will banish the Invader, Crush him at the outer wall. In my ear there comes a whisper, Soft and low I hear it call, Those who gave you Knightly guarding, You can Honor best of all; By the care of Home and Loved ones Do your duty first of all, Brother Knights will don the Armor, They will guard the Castle Hall. And should I never present be, When you fill the Knightly Hall, My thoughts are ever with you Knightly order, best of all, And could I hold Aladdin's lamp, Far famed in fabled lore— Of each worthy man I'd make a Knight Th' a wondrous world all o'er. — Andrew Sprouls, Portland.

Men's Dress Shoe Special

Saturday of this week will close the sale of the odd lines of MEN'S DRESS SHOES that we have been offering to you at $3.65, $5.65 and $7.65. It has not been necessary to say much about this sale as the men know that shoe values for modern lasts run high as $12.50 to $17.50 for shoes that have no better qualities either in workmanship or material than these odd lines. Of course we do not have all the sizes but we may be able to fit you nicely. This is one item where you may, if you will, reduce the H. C. L.

Dry Goods

We have some new arrivals in thirty-six inch Zephyr Gingham; these we are offering you at prices 15% below what is asked at the City Stores. While the stock is new and fresh is the time to make your purchases. New Cretonnes, Window Draperies in larger selection than has been shown before in this locality.

The Spring White Goods are opening up in very satisfactory manner and the prices are not so much as we had been led to believe they would be.

Fresh supplies of yarn are in and if you have to match something right now is a good time to try it once more.

Our Community Meeting

We are glad we used this space for advertising the Community Meeting at our Woolen Mills last Tuesday evening.

It was without doubt the most harmonious get-together meeting that ever occurred in St. Johns. If no other good came of the meeting than the opportunity of mingling together and shaking hands it would have been worth while. As for our reception and treatment by the Mill Officials and all their help the writer wishes that some one from our midst would rise up and make this Mill famous for its product as Sir Walter Scott made the River Tweed District famous in such poems as The Lady of the Last Minstrel and Lady of the Lake. That district was a wool growing district and a weaving district where originated the "Tweed" materials. So we take off our hats to the Mill Orchestra, to the Matron who made the meeting possible, to the girls who served us with the good things, and to those who could not be there we say that you missed something. And next time instead of being one hundred and twenty-five lets pack that beautiful dining-room to overflowing. Most everyone there expressed a wish that he had a job at that mill.
