ANOTHER GOOD MEETING

The community club met in the Library Tuesday evening, and the attendance was large, practically every seat being occupied. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Monahan, who presided in a graceful and efficient manner. After the minutes of the previous meeting, which was the initial one, had been read by the Secretary, Miss Ethel Bowers, chairman of the By-Laws Committee, H. W. Bonham, presented the report, which was composed of seven sections, and each section was acted upon separately. It gave as the purpose of the club to promote the social, moral and physical welfare of the lower peninsula. The name finally decided upon was the St. Johns Community Club. It was also decided that any good citizen residing anywhere in the United States could become a member by paying the initiation fee of one dollar and boosting for St. Johns. A recess was taken and 69 persons appended their signatures to the membership roll. On motion it was decided that the next meeting should take place at the Portland Woolen mills club house two weeks later, when a dinner would be served, followed by a business and social session. Sgt. Crane asked that a committee be appointed to investigate conditions at the local city hall relative to needed alterations and additional facilities, and was assured the matter would be given proper attention. The park question was discussed at some length. Messrs. Borden, Edlfsen, Drinker, Fletcher, Muck, Jones, Powell, Lewis and Walker participating. Finally, on motion of R. D. Powell, it was moved that the club favor the selection of what is known as the "wooded tract" near the cut and comprising 23 acres, which motion carried.

Dow Walker, on being called upon, gave a very interesting little talk on the value of community clubs and their successful operation. He also declared that an effort should be made to secure a community house as well as a park. The meeting then adjourned to meet at the Portland Woolen mills club house Tuesday evening, Feb. 10.

A paper on Law Enforcement by Mrs. O. W. Linquist, will be read at the Library at the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Monday at 2 p.m. You are welcome.—Reported.

The teacher was giving the class a natural-history lecture on Australia. "There is one animal," she said, "none of you have mentioned. It does not stand up on its legs all the time. It does not walk like other animals, but takes funny little skips. What is it?" And the class yelled with one voice: "Charlie Chaplin."—London Tit-Bits.

Jacob Fleser died January 24th at his home, 729 Tioga street, aged 59 years, 11 months and 13 days. He was born in Michigan and came here about two years ago from Chehalis, Wash. Surviving him are two sons and two daughters besides his widow. The funeral services took place at chapel of the local Undertaking Co. Wednesday at 2 p. m., Dr. Jones officiating. The M. W. of A. was in charge. Interment in Columbia cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah S. Glass died at her home, 1540 Oatman street, Jan. 20th, aged 88 years, 9 months and 29 days. Hardening of the arteries was the immediate cause of death. She had been a resident of Oregon for thirty years, and is survived by 8 children, 22 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Funeral services were held last Thursday, January 22, at 10:30 a. m. at the chapel of Miller and Tracey. Interment in Columbia cemetery.

In the fastest and cleanest basket ball game that has been played in the interscholastic league so far this season the Jefferson high school hoopers won from the James John tossers Monday on the Washington high school floor by the close score of 18 to 16. The passing of both teams was exceptionally good, while the defense put up by the guards kept the score down. Long, sensational shots from every angle by "Scrap Iron" Toole, James John forward, featured the contest. Toole netted six field baskets for the boys from the peninsula, while Bauer and Brame made the other two.

Mrs. E. W. Garlick, who was operated upon last week at the Portland Sanitarium, is getting along nicely.

Dr. Jones was called to Portland Monday afternoon, to officiate at the funeral service of Claude M. Stout.

SURE HAD SOME TIME

One of the most daring police raids ever planned by the St. Johns police department was fouled on Saturday night by lack of equipment. Only a patrol wagon for the removal of the offenders to the city jail was needed, but the "little wagon" is not a part of the equipment of the very efficient police force of which St. Johns district boasts. However, Sergeant R. L. Crane did succeed in bringing home a "has been" Chevrolet 499 instead of the Essex of which he fondly dreamed, but this was hardly adequate for handling the mob which was arrested on Saturday night at the Portland Woolen Mill Club house. The police had been tipped off several days before that the county fair and street carnival of "Hickville" was to be operated without license and the policeman were on the scene. "Allow no one to leave this house," were the orders of Sergeant Crane as he entered the door at the front of the building. At a blast from the police whistle uniformed cops sprang from everywhere and the place was "pinched." Miss Ada Hammond, manager of the club house and employment secretary of the mill, sprang a surprise on the police department and made the scene more sensational by fainting dead away. This was one feature which the officers had not expected and they had had no rehearsals of first aid duties.

out a kick, also the pink tea room where it is reported that Officer Hatt spent $500 on another man's wife.

Arrests were too numerous to mention. Among the worst offenders were Sergeant R. L. Crane and one of the colored gentlemen for "Shooting Craps." Fifteen minutes in the city jail was their sentence and no one was paroled. Miss Ada Hammond also suffered arrest several times, twice for crossing the state line with married men and once she, too, was a victim of the fascinating charms of the "Big Joe" game. Money flowed like water, troubles were forgotten and every one with one accord joined in the street dance. Archie Mayer, Herb Scott, Bill Oeasher, James Hodges, Jack Hillis, and George Mariette as the Bingville jazz band furnished music for the street dancing. Even Officer Maxwell, who seldom indulges in such frivolous entertainment, joined in the jazzers. E. L. Thompson, secretary and general manager of the mill, was general promoter of fun, but laid himself liable toensure by raffling off the best looking girl in the house for a dance and bidding in the dance himself. The evening's entertainment was a howling success, though Officer Roberts had his wife with him and had to go home early. Employees of the weave room of which W. R. Wadell is in charge, gave the fair.—Reported.

Building operations will shortly begin for erection on the Peninsula of a new independent packing plant by a company with a paid up capital stock of $500,000 and which plans to do a meat packing business of millions of dollars a year. The plant will be located on 15 acres of ground immediately adjoining the International Livestock pavilion on the east. The site fronts deep water, is convenient to the railroads and is well situated for doing business with distant markets either by land or by sea.

Emerson R. Roberts and Gladys Smith, both of Portland, were married in St. Johns Wednesday evening. Dr. Jones officiated.

Why the Electric Cleaner

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "yellow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.
