THE REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Walter Jenkins, community song leader, conducted a sing at the Woolen mills Monday during the noon hour.

Attend the St. Johns Community Club meeting at high school building commencing at 6:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Miller the past week, and a young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Spencer of the Linnton road.

The entertainment given by the Harlequin club in the Moose hall Wednesday evening was a huge success and was well worth attending. A large and well satisfied audience was present.

Mrs. Simon Miller of Crawford, Wash., was a St. Johns visitor this week. Her husband is teaching school there and they expect to move back to St. Johns next fall.

Want a man with nimble fingers and quick enough to develop speed on a stapling machine. Experience not necessary if able and willing to learn. Advance Manufacturing Co., Bradford and Erie streets.

Poff & O'Neil have added a handsome Republic truck to their transfer business, and it is a dandy.

There is a man by name of Harvey Post who solicits funds in the name of The Volunteers of America. This man is an importer and is in no way connected with our organization. The public is warned not to give this man anything.—Major Jessie F. Starks, Officer in Charge.

The last quarterly conference of the Evangelical church was held last Saturday evening. Presiding Elder S. S. Mummy having charge. The following stewards were appointed: C. Johnson, S. Shoals, T. J. Monahan, Mrs. Clara Young and Mrs. Gordon Ogden. Mrs. Daisy Hoskins was appointed delegate to conference, which meets in Corvallis April 8th.

University Park Baptist church and St. Johns Baptist church have voted to unite, with A. Lawrence Black, pastor of University church, in charge. Drafting of a new constitution is partially completed. Building plans have not yet been made, but eventually the churches plan to have one building on a site which would be convenient for both congregations.

The Star Sand company was awarded the contract for macadamizing the St. Johns river road which a part of the Greeley street extension, at the meeting Wednesday. It was largely through Commissioner Muck's insistence that the work proceed without delay that the contract was awarded at this time. Mr. Muck has certainly shown an earnest endeavor that the Peninsula secure its deserts ever since he has been in office, and his loyalty and the efforts he has put forth in the Peninsula's behalf will assuredly not be forgotten by the Peninsula people. A good man to keep on the "job."

Dear Mary—
You must meet Mrs. Clay. You know she has just moved to this town. She lives in our block. I called on her. She is so nice and friendly. Lots of her furniture was broken in being moved and she asked me to go with her to look at some new. I'm glad I went along because she told me she had never seen such good furniture and rugs priced so low. She bought such pretty things. I'll go with you to call on her.

Best Grade Lard and Cooking Oils

There are many grades of lard and the price usually governs the quality. However, we can supply you with a high grade at a moderate price.
We can also give you some very good values in imported olive oils and all the various cooking oils that you might need, for cooking and salads.
Our oils comply with all the requirements of the pure food laws, so you can be sure their quality is right.
—And so are the prices.
