The manufacturers of overalls are no doubt wearing broad smiles in these days of blue denim.

It is high time that notice of the city commissioners be directed toward some of the streets that are not hard surfaced in this bailiwick. Too many holes.

Miss Peggy Inman, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wagner, 717 N. Edison street, left Wednesday to spend the summer at Kerry.

The annual inspection of Minerva chapter 105, O. E. S., was held Saturday night in the new Masonic hall by Mrs. McMurphy, grand worthy matron of Oregon.

The birthday dinner given Saturday by the W. R. C. of St.
Johns was attended by about seventy-five. The ten whose birthdays were celebrated were designated by the wearing of a rosebud.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. Fones on Hartman street. A pledge was made of $1000 toward the new Methodist church, $200 of which will be paid each year for five years. Tea was served.

The W. C. T. U. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
George C. Atchison, 1121 Willamette boulevard. Devotional service was led by Mrs. S. C.
Cook, followed by a short talk on "Consecrated Service." Mrs.
G. E. Jeffcott read a paper on Home Protection in Every Land.
Mrs. J. C. Scott, honorary life president, was able to attend for the first time in many months. A silver tea was served.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Poore, 1020 South Leonard street, Wednesday evening, Rev. A. P. Layton, officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Damon E. Waters of Alpine, Oregon, and Miss Lena Slavens of Crawfordsville, Oregon. The groom is the brother of Mrs. R. C. Poore and L. L.
Waters of St. Johns, and is in the employ of the Alpine Lumber Co. The happy young couple leave in a few days to make their home at Alpine.

Lieutenant Brown of the St.
Johns fire station is wearing a very self satisfied smile and experiencing some difficulty in crowding his head into his cap since he has been rated the best looking fireman on the job. It all came about yesterday through a telephone call in a feminine voice to the police department.
"My chimney is burning out and I am getting somewhat nervous, won't you send over your best looking fireman." Nobody disputed Lieutenant Brown's right to the job and he extinguished the fire.—St. Johns Correspondent

Ormandy Bros. now have one of the finest, neatest and most tastefully fitted up phonograph parlors to be found in the whole city of Portland. It is an attractive little institution all by itself, neatly partitioned off from the rest of the big store, and attractively and cozily furnished with easy rocking chairs and other fittings. A number of handsome and beautifully toned Emerson cabinet phonographs adorn the interior and one can rest and enjoy to the full without outside disturbance the delicious renditions of the masters of music. To be fully appreciated this pleasant little parlor must be visited personally.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. W. H. Armstrong last Thursday when she gave a surprise tea for Mrs.
Viola Bean Compton. Cake, cookies and sandwiches and coffee were served. Those present were Mrs. V. Bean Compton, Mrs. B. Bean and small daughter, Mrs. Jane Finch, Mrs. F.
M. Russell and daughter, Mrs.
E. Carlson, Mrs. A. N. Sunstrom and baby, Mrs. A. Hughes, Mrs.
Hazel, Miss Hazel Hartel, Mrs.
A. A. Krumrey and baby and

Dear Mary—
Until lately I'd overlooked getting a kitchen cabinet.
Why, I wouldn't be without one! It takes up so little room and saves so many steps. And then there is a place for everything. By all means, Mary, get a kitchen cabinet.
You'll soon save enough from waste to more than pay for it. You'll thank me for this "tip."

As always—HELEN.
