A. W. Merkle, Editor

Published Friday of Each Week
Subscription price $1.50 per year.

THE REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Mr. Hamilton Johnstone, who is a candidate for delegate on the Republican ticket for the Chicago Convention, has many friends in St. Johns who are anxious to see him elected. They speak of him in terms of highest praise, and in every way is deemed a thoroughly competent and reliable man. He will no doubt receive a handsome vote in St. Johns. Mr. Johnstone is the husband of Maud McPherson, who was a teacher in the St. Johns schools for a number of years.

It should not be forgotten that Dow Walker is a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention to be held at Chicago. No better choice could be made. He is endowed with all the qualifications and is eminently fitted to fill the position with credit to himself and the people in general. He has been a resident of St. Johns for the past eighteen years, is a property owner and first class citizen. Mr. Walker gives much of his time to the public welfare and is an active figure in civic affairs. There are two delegates to be elected in Portland, and undoubtedly Dow Walker should be one of them.

Do not forget nor neglect to vote for A. A. Muck for County Commissioner. He has demonstrated what he can do, and we cannot ask from a County Commissioner more than he has done, especially for the Peninsula. And there is more to do. What consideration the Peninsula could expect to receive from one who may know little of our wants and requirements, can be judged from the consideration it has received prior to Mr. Muck's occupancy of the office. Mr. Muck is a man easy of approach, always courteous and accommodating, and as a booster has few equals. No one knows better than he the needs of this part of the county, and he knows how to fulfill them. There is not the slightest doubt but that Mr. Muck should receive the unanimous vote of the entire Peninsula.

St. Johns has three candidates in the running, to wit: D. C. Lewis for the State Senate. This is an important position and our people should look out for their interests. Legislation in the past has aided us. Let us keep a man at the legislative post. One way to do this is for all to boost for D. C. Lewis for State Senator, No. 79 on the ballot. We have a candidate for County Commissioner in A. A. Muck. He is a valuable asset to this end of the county. Get in and boost. His number on the ballot is 138. Then we have a candidate for delegate to the National Convention at Chicago in Dow Walker. He is active for our welfare and should be sent to the Chicago Convention. Get in and boost. His number on the ballot is 32. Vote for these men and thereby help St. Johns.
