

THE ST. JOHNS REVIEW
A. W. Markie, Editor
Published Friday of Each Week
Subscription price $1.50 per year.

The Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet next Monday at 2 p. m. with Mrs. S. C. Cook, 1002 East Oswego street. Mrs. W. E. Kloster will read a paper on, "The W. C. T. U. as a factor in whitening the World's map." All ladies invited.

The literary pageant given Saturday under direction of Miss Ethel Bowers, librarian, and her assistant, Miss Elizabeth Hales, was an immense success. It was participated in by 150 children of the four public schools of St. Johns, and in it were representations of many literary characters and historical celebrities. Among them was Queen Elizabeth, Captain John Smith, Mother Goose, George Washington and others. The parade marched and counter-marched on Jersey street, and then on the library lawn were presented "Dandy Longlegs," "Green Gables," fairy dancing and a Maypole dance. Many grownups enjoyed the affair. Miss Bowers was assisted by Miss Clara Nelson, Mrs. J. M. Shaw, Miss Shaw, Miss Gretchen Cormany and others.

The St. Johns Auto Electric Service Co. will begin at once the erection of a battery service station at the corner of Jersey and Charleston streets. R. S. Clore, who has been with the Peninsula Electric Co. for almost a year, will have charge. The battery service of the Peninsula Electric Co. will be discontinued at the old stand on North Jersey street. Increased business has necessitated more commodious quarters for this branch of the business. The new company is the authorized sub-sales agency for the Willard batteries and will continue the well known Willard service. They will also handle a first class line of electrical accessories and do repairs on ignition, starters and generators; in fact, anything electrical pertaining to cars. The new station will be somewhat after the type of the Standard Oil station at Richmond and Jersey streets, and will be made attractive and inviting in appearance.

As to Brevity.
Of course brevity can be carried too far, may be awkward and inarticulate and impromptu. We must be brief and to the point at the same time. Some one brought Voltaire, the master of brevity, an epigram in two lines. "Ah!" said Voltaire. "Very good, but it drags in spots." The old couple dramatist said of a dull act: "The income tax makes brevity ridiculous." We do not want to make brevity ridiculous or let it make us so.

Nevertheless, we should all do well to cultivate and practice brevity, and we may be sure that we should be much more listened to if we spoke less.—Youth's Companion.

Incredulous Lady.
"Why do you sit at a dull board when you might be enjoying interesting conversation? You can't believe a thing the boy says."
"Well," replied Miss Cayenne, "I mightn't believe the conversation, either."

TO THE PUBLIC

In the future Bigelow's Confectionery (successor to Beam) will handle a full line of Royal Bakery goods, along with our line of Home Made Pies. High grade of Vogan's and Hoffler Chocolates at right prices. We have the only Red Cross Kitchenette and Fountain in St. Johns. "Sanitation and Service" our motto.

The Evangelical meetings in the Christian church are proving very successful. The attendance has been large and a number have already united with the church. Evangelist Percy George Cross is a very fluent and impressive speaker and Mrs. Cross' beautiful singing is highly appreciated. The services will continue all next week, the subjects of which appear on the first page of this paper.

Cards of thanks notices are charged for at the rate of fifty cents each. Persons desiring to have such notices published should make a note of this.

Mrs Home-Lover:

Read every week what we say about furnishing your Home

It is not the quantity of things you have, but the quality and "fitness" of your Furniture that makes your home attractive.

We have had long experience in furnishing homes, and each week we will tell you about the Home Furnishings you need.

Our store always has a big stock of Furniture and Rugs, correct in style and artistic in design.

Our QUALITY is always HIGH; our PRICE is always LOW.
