The Cash and Carry Grabateria The Changing Times

The era of Chain Stores came about because a group of men with large capital could, by starting stores in different localities increase the outlet of merchandise emanating from one source.

The Chain Store system is nothing more than any other store except the buying part is concentrated at one place. The buyers for these stores have their headquarters at the source of production and they buy direct from the packer or the producer.

It goes without saying that a buyer who can buy the same sort of merchandise for several hundred stores can command a better price than a buyer for just one store.

The secret of advantageous grocery prices in St. Johns is this ability to buy in connection with many other stores. That is why you have had established by this store better prices than prevail almost anywhere in Portland.

Coupled with this buying capacity, the activity of the owners, the acquaintance with the locality because of our long residence here ought to convince any one that we can do business at less cost than the average grocery.

We always believed that "a word to the wise was sufficient."

Labor Day was a red letter day for the Scales & Currier and Bonham & Currier stores. All the help and families of the help and the owners and their families picniced together on the shore of the Sandy river along the Columbia Highway. It was the first annual gathering where the help and bosses swam, played games ate together, told stories, took snap shots at each other and mixed generally, just as they should mix at all times. None of the crowd wanted to make the first move to go home, and perhaps none would have if it were not quite conclusive that there would be another.

GARDEN PRIZES

Last Spring this Bank announced that it would offer prizes for the five best gardens cultivated by children in the Peninsula district.

This contest has been conducted in connection with the agricultural club work of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Oregon Agricultural College in the public schools.

Judging of these gardens has now been completed. Approximately 100 gardens cultivated by children in the Peninsula, Portsmouth, North and East Schools have been examined by the judges.

AN EXHIBIT of the products from the children's gardens will be held in the lobby of the bank all day Tuesday, September 21.

At half past three o'clock the prizes for the five best gardens and also for the five best exhibits will be awarded by an officer of the bank. School children and their parents are cordially invited.

WINCHESTER

Early Season Shooting

FOR early season duck shooting and all upland small game, buy a Winchester 16-gauge or 20-gauge Model 12 Hammerless Repeating Shotgun and "Leader" or "Repeater" Shells.

They will give you the same perfect shot pattern at the shorter ranges as the famous Winchester 12-gauge gives for reaching out for the high flyers when the big flight ducks come down.

Your speed in handling the lighter gun will surprise and please you.

Come in today and see us about it.
