ST. JOHNS, PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1920.

NUMBER 47

Community Club to Meet

The next meeting of the St. Johns Community Club will be held at the Terminal Cafeteria, where dinner will be served at 50 cents per plate. This meeting should prove unusually interesting, as it will afford the members a better realization of the immense project that has been erected at our very doors, in the Terminal. Superintendent Ross and assistant superintendent Shanks will give the visitors an insight into the workings so far as possible. Transportation will be provided for all attending. Thomas Autzen will have charge of transportation and will see that there is room for all. All are to meet at the Peninsula National Bank at 6 o'clock, or as near that time as possible. Dinner will be served at 6:30. Every member should make it a point to be present. Citizens having the interest of St. Johns at heart, although not members of the club, are also invited. The hospital project and other matters of importance to this section will be taken up. So be at the bank corner next Tuesday evening round about six o'clock.

On Sunday, the 26th of September, a very pleasant reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McClure of this place, the occasion being a celebration of the 89th birthday of Mrs. McClure's father, Mr. Wm. Gaton, and the 62nd wedding anniversary of Mrs. Susan M. Roberts of 1033 Williams avenue, Portland, who has been a close friend of the family since '52. There were 64 visitors present, including 15 grand children and 24 great grandchildren of Mr. Gaton's. A sumptuous one o'clock dinner was served, followed by a musical program rendered by the granddaughters and their husbands. Cake and ice cream were served before the guests departed. Mr. Samuel Gaton of Lake River, Wash., brother of William Gaton, was in attendance.

Car Wiring, Generator and Starters repaired. St. Johns Auto Electric Service.

Attendance Increasing

American Legion Post No. 88, Dept. Ore., held their regular meeting Sept. 24th at the local library. Post attendance is on the increase. Ex-Major Dow V. Walker, who served on the French General Staff and now in the insurance business with offices in the Wilcox building, and ex-Major C. Harold Palmer, who served in 91st Div. in France, now a prominent physician and surgeon with offices in the Peninsula Bank building, have transferred their memberships and will be a great help in putting our local Post on the map. Earl J. Keliher, who is about to return to school at Salem, requested that he be relieved of the duties of adjutant, and Lyle W. Park was elected to the office. The entertainment committee is at work and expects to put before the Post at next meeting plans for entertainment that will make the buddies come to attention. A resolution was unanimously passed favoring the establishment of a hospital in St. Johns as soon as practicable. Have you received your State Medal? Have you received your Victory Medal? If not be sure to make application at 208 S. Jersey street, Mr. Moe at Bucy's grocery store, Mr. Hendricks at Curran's drug store, and Mr. Knowles at Peninsula Security Co. Don't forget the next meeting at the local library Friday, Oct. 8th, at 8 p. m. Come and bring a buddy with you.—A. M. Warner, Post Commander.

A most pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Lawrence Jeslard, 1789 Dwight street, in honor of his sixth birthday. The afternoon was spent in games, and a lovely birthday dinner was served. Those present were: Lawrence Jeslard, Vera Hantze, Vivian and Lovaine Cowrin, Merle Tucker, Donald Carruth, August Boesell, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Jeslard and Mrs. Hantze. Many lovely presents were received.

Will Appear in Recital

Miss Georgia Rich will present in recital Ethel Knopf, pianist, assisted by John Oliver, violinist, Friday evening, October 8th, 1920, in the Christian church, corner Oswego street and Smith avenue. Miss Knopf will play a delightful program of compositions from the works of the great composers, Bach, Mendelssohn, Friml, Nollert, Rachinansoff, Ravina, Wollenhaupt. These have been selected to show her broad technical proficiency as well as interpretative ability. She has had all of her musical training from Miss Georgia Rich, who has already presented Miss Knopf in recital on previous occasions. Mr. Oliver is a talented violinist, and will be heard in two interesting groups from Kreisler, Riechen, Bohm and Heschel. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. The program will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

Have An Enjoyable Time

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of St. Johns joined hands in another most enjoyable picnic at Columbia Park Sept. 19th. The attendance was not quite as large as on the previous occasion, owing to the threatening weather, but all those who ventured forth were well rewarded. The eats as usual held first place on the program. Dinner was served a la family style, so friend hubby could get away from wife's cooking for a change. The way those hungry eyed Odd Fellows swarmed around the table when the kitchen police yelled, "Come and get it!" would have made the Japs' attack on Fort Arthur appear as tame as an old maid's 35th birthday party. The only incident to be deplored was when one of the brothers ate all of the gravy, thinking it was a bowl of pudding. Lack of space prevents giving a detailed account of the menu, etc.; sufficient to say if any Hooverizing members were present they didn't act according to Hoyle.

The base ball game between Rebekahs and Odd Fellows was very well played, both sides having a large host of 33rd degree rooters. After the smoke of the battle cleared off it was found the Rebekahs were slightly in the lead. The game started out disastrously for the losers, as first baseman Fred Haske failed to give a Rebekah runner the right of way and was bumped into and upset by said runner. It was a most ungentlemanly act on the part of Haske and should be taken up with the president of the league. His excuse was, he thought she had started the other way, going to third base, as a sister of hers had a brand new baby, and was showing it off to a crowd of admirers in that vicinity. Time was called for five minutes while Mrs. Haske explained the game to her man, and after making him promise to help do the washing the following day, the game was resumed. Mrs. C. O. Churchill pitched masterly ball for the winners, her bean ball being in perfect working order. She had the Odd Fellows eating out of her hand at all stages of the game, some of the batters nearly breaking their necks swinging at the elusive spheroid. The Odd Fellows had a good chance to tie the score in the seventh inning, when Walt Norene stole second base with that base already occupied by outfielder Chaney. Chaney claimed he was there first, and a fight was barely averted when the umpire ruled possession is nine points in law. And speaking of the umpire, Mr. Cormany, we must say his work was off color. His poorest decision was when he called Ward safe on first on a near overthrow. Mrs. Hantze leaped high into the air, caught the pill with her bare hand and touched Ward with the other hand. Now inasmuch as this other hand certainly belonged to said first baseman we claim runner should have been out, even though she wasn't anywhere near first base at the time. He was excused when he said he couldn't see very well on account of the smoke issuing from Brothers Norene, Haskell and Hantz's Missouri meerschaums. Brother Hantze was also as stingy with base hits as the Jew who had soup three times a day so he wouldn't wear out his teeth. He depended entirely on the spit ball, until reprimanded by his wife, who claimed his aim was so poor he spat on his hands oftener than on the ball. He had a good chance to win his own game in the ninth inning, when with three men on bases and two out, he ingloriously struck out, and one of the most hotly contested games in the history of base ball was brought to a finish.

After giving the crippled gladiators a few minutes to recuperate, the races were held. Mrs. Guy Lloyd won the free for all woman's race. And how that woman can run! May we never incur her displeasure when she has a frying pan in her hand. If she can run any faster when she is scared, it would be best to give her the right of way at such times. In the men's free for all Schelter and Waldel tied for first place. Thompson and Norene officiated as judges. The summary of the races: Blindfold race, 60 feet, won by Mrs. Hantz; girls' free for all, Ellen Norene; boys under ten years, Luther Norene; three legged race, Taylor sisters; free for all men's race, tie by Schelter and Waldel; re-run and won by Waldel; free for all woman's race, won by Mrs. Boyd. The lineup of the two base ball clubs was as follows:

Rebekahs,	Odd Fellows,
Beckman	catcher
Churchill	pitcher
Hantz	1st base
Boroughs	2nd base
Leland	short stop
Waldel	3rd base
Boyd	center field
Smith	left field
Norene	right field
Umpire, Lee Cormany.	—Reported.

When a Life Goes Out

It is a natural desire that the funeral be conducted tenderly and with dignity and reverence; that the lines of pain and suffering be removed; that the drawn and sunken features of the loved one be restored.

This is not vanity on the part of the surviving family; but rather that they and their friends, as they look upon the face of the departed for the last time, may cherish in memory the face they knew and loved in life.

This is a part of the service included with the many other features that we employ, to lessen the suffering which is so apt to be forcibly present.
