Y. W. C. A. Notes
The sewing class meets Monday nights from 7 till 9 o'clock in the basement room, entrance Chicago street.
Come and hear the Wednesday lectures from 2:30 till 3:30 p. m. Bring your babies. The B. T. G girls will take care of them.
A new Girl Reserve Club is being organized in the George school with Miss Minerva Holbrook for their leader.
The Y. W. C. A. will assist girls wanting boarding places or employment while attending school, any one needing nurses or other help, just as far as possible.

A large audience gathered at Bickner hall at the Tuesday meeting of the Cox-Roosevelt club to hear Anne Shannon Monroe on the issues of the presidential campaign. She contrasted the two big political conventions, the two platforms. She spoke strongly for the progressive measures of the Democratic party and contrasted them with the backward tendencies of the opposition. Miss Monroe held her audience spellbound between outbursts of applause and laughter. She demonstrated her ability as a public speaker as well as a writer. At the close of her speech she threw the meeting into an open forum for a campaign discussion. Dr. J. B. Zeigler for almost an hour answered rapid fire questions which covered the League of Nations and many other campaign issues. A demand for Miss Monroe's return may result in another rally for still further discussion, and she has promised to be with us again Oct. 12th.—Reported.

Laurelwood Past Noble Grand Club will meet with Mrs. Carl Beckman, 815 S. Princeton street, Thursday evening, Oct. 7th. All members please attend.
J. Oscar Jensen and wife of Woodburn are guests at the home of Mr. Jensen's sister, Mrs. A. Carl Nelson.

Fresh Butter and Eggs

We are very particular as to where we buy our butter and eggs. Only those farmers whose products we know are always right can deal with us.

You can profit by our discrimination if you trade here. And you can be sure that we are just as particular about where we get our creamery butter as we are about the dairy butter.

Our prices stand comparison.
