DO YOU WANT SLOUGHS and SWAMPS OR Ships and Smokestacks

Two measures of vital importance to the people of Oregon are to be voted upon at the November second election. All the voters in Oregon are entitled to vote upon one measure; only Portland citizens vote upon the other. To accomplish their purpose BOTH must pass. Think what the passage of these measures will mean to Portland and Oregon and urge your friend to vote for them. Here are some of the things their passage will mean:

It will mean the first time in her history Portland can say to the world that she has a SAFE and CLEAR CHANNEL TO THE SEA.

It will mean that INDUSTRIES will locate in Portland which would otherwise go to Seattle, Tacoma or some California port.

It will mean that PAYROLLS--big ones--will be added to Portland through public and private enterprise.

It will mean that $10,000,000 will be spent--not all at once but in the course of several years--in dredging and filling so that SHIPS and FACTORIES will be induced to come and take the place of SWAMPS and FROG PONDS.

It will mean that Oregon will have a WORLD MARKET for her lumber, wheat, wool and fruit regardless of rail rates.

Is it worth the price? You know it is!

ALICE JOYCE

Of all the reigning favorites of the early motion pictures, Alice Joyce alone shines as a star today. With such notable plays as Charles Klein's "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree," the famous Drury Lane melodrama, "The Sporting Duchess," Rex Beach's story, "The Vengeance of Durand," and "Slaves of Pride" as her mediums, Miss Joyce has entered an era of steadily increasing popularity. She occupies a place among the rulers of the screen.

ANTONIO MORENO

Antonio Moreno was a small boy when his father died. Eager to assist his mother by sharing part of the family burden he obtained a position as baker's clerk. For this service he received the princely sum of two dollars a week. Although he liked his position, this Spanish lad had dreams of making a fortune. He had seen wealthy American tourists in his native town and they awakened ambition in his breast. He resolved to save his money and go to the land of promise.

The Americans who visited Campamento were all supposed to be millionaires. Into the mind of Antonio Moreno came dreams, dreams of wealth that lay across the great ocean. He became determined to go to the United States and make a fortune.

When Antonio Moreno, at the age of fifteen, walked up the gangplank from the Gibraltar docks to an American steamship, he was in reality crossing the bridge from nonentity to fame. Aboard the boat was one of America's most distinguished actresses, Miss Helen Ware. Her attention was attracted to the handsome lad with the fiery eyes, and she became interested in him. "What do you intend to do when you reach America?" inquired Miss Ware.

"Make a fortune," promptly replied young Antonio. Miss Ware smiled at his confidence and replied, "I think you will find both fame and fortune in the theater if you choose to become an actor."

The prophecy is now being realized. Antonio Moreno as the star of such Vitagraph serials as "The Iron Test" and "Perils of Thunder Mountain," is earning international fame and a considerable fortune. While in New York recently he signed a two year contract with the Vitagraph Company and recently finished a serial production dealing with secret service, entitled "The Invisible Hand."
