WILLIAM DUNCAN

It is only natural that William Duncan should be the hero of hundreds of thrilling escapes and strenuous rescues in Vitagraph's famous serials. His physique and early training particularly fitted him for just such a career. He completed his education at the University of Pennsylvania, where he took a prominent part in college field games and athletics. He became athletic instructor and toured the country at the head of his own dramatic company before becoming a serial star and director.

JOE RYAN

Joe Ryan felt that he just had to be a villain to keep up the natural fitness of things. He was born at the foot of Devil's Tower, in Crook county, Wyo., and he just naturally had to play the bad man. That he succeeded is witnessed by the blessed he rooves in nearly every city and town in this broad land. But away from Vitagraph's thrilling serials, he is one of the most quiet and likable men in the motion picture world. And to prove it he is being co-starred with Jean Paige in a serial.

The proposed celebration in Manchester of the tercentenary of the sailing of the Mayflower may render it of interest to direct attention to a curious anachronism. In the magnificent fresco in the palace of Westminister, in which the departure of the Pilgrim Fathers is depicted, the Mayflower is flying a Union Jack. The Union Jack, as every one knows, did not come into existence till the passing of the first Act of Union in 1800—one hundred and eighty years after the departure of the Pilgrim fathers. One of the formalities connected with the Irish Union was a new standard combining the three orders of St. George, St. Andrew and St. Patrick, which was hoisted in the capitals of England, Scotland and Ireland.—Manchester Guardian.

The Consumer's Opportunity is Here

The market is falling now and your opportunity is right with you—the opportunity to obtain merchandise at the expense of the seller. But do not be lured by the ridiculously low prices of a few articles advertised in the big stores. They may be "out" of that article when you arrive and you will be persuaded to take something else. We are going to take care of our trade as we always have, and you may be assured that we shall take our medicine and follow the market downward to a reasonable degree. When we make an advantageous buy you will be given the advantage. We are not "stuck" on anything to an alarming degree, and are already getting merchandise at the revised prices.

Special Offer

A reduction of one-third on Silk and Messaline Remnants, most of which are of desirable lengths. Now is your opportunity to get something for your Christmas fancy work.
