

The House Temperature

Can easily be kept around 70 in every room. You must have the right kind of coal-burner. The best is the cheapest. It gives more heat, burns longer—right up to ashes—and requires less attention. Try a ton or more and be convinced.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Don't forget, Alumni, that December 23d is home coming day. We expect you.

Thursday's assembly was one of much interest. Walter Jenkins rendered several vocal solos, after which assembly singing made the building ring.

The first games of the girls' basket ball season were played Wednesday after school. The contests were between the first and fourth and the third and seventh teams, the fourth and seventh being victors. The girls all played for the honor of their class and the future games promise to be just as interesting.

Last Tuesday at the regular assembly period the entire student body was entertained by members of the French and Spanish classes. Under the direction of Miss Von a very clever little play was given by the French class, and two Spanish plays were given by Spanish students under the tutoring of Mr. Getz.

Friday night, December 17th, will be the scene of much gaiety at James John. There will be many things of interest for both the old and young. There will be a regular Gypsy camp, jitney dance, cave horrors, fortune telling, lunch counters, candy booths, Christmas tree, with Santa Claus and plenty of gifts for every one. We are expecting the support of the community, as we have had in the past for other things that we have given. The doors will open promptly at 7:00. Everybody come.—Z. M. M.

Mrs. L. F. Clark proved a delightful hostess to 27 members of the Altruistic club, Pythian Sisters, at her home Tuesday, Dec. 14th. The day was spent in making candy bags for the Christmas tree which will be given Dec. 21st. Mrs. LeRoy Crouchley will entertain the club Dec. 28th at her home 920 Central avenue.

Congregational Church, pastor Rev. J. W. Threlfall—Sunday day exercises: Sunday school 10 to 11, service 11 to 12, subject, "Changes." Solo by Mrs. Murray. Evening service 7:30 to 8:30; talk by Mr. Lyon of the Court of Domestic Relations on juvenile delinquency and the Big Brother Farm. Solo by Mrs. Rogers.

For Sale—100 x 100 with 3 room house, chicken coop for 200 chickens, 14 bearing fruit trees and 4 bearing English walnuts. Price $1300, easy terms.—621 East Polk street.

Our business on last Saturday was the biggest since the Sunset first opened its doors in St. Johns. When you look backward and think of the stormy day it was and at this time when families are buying very careful and not buying much in the line of luxuries, it speaks well for the SUNSET STORE being absolutely a dependable one.

WHY TO DEAL WITH US

Because we have the goods, we have the prices; we have bought merchandise for you for fifteen years so we ought to know how to buy for you. Our business is what it is because you have a friend and your friend has a friend who has conveyed the message of fair treatment and conscientious dealing.

We have dared to carry quality merchandise of reasonable price because it goes without saying that cheap merchandise does not get anyone anywhere. You deal with us because all the help whom we have about us are kind, courteous and considerate. You deal with us because it is a pleasure to make purchases from a smaller store where you are known. In the city you are not known; on every hand is the evidence that what is wanted is your dollar. We endeavor to combine the Community Spirit and friendly association with the business and feel that we have thus far succeeded and believe that spirit will enable us to grow as the Community grows.
