Merry Christmas

Among the things to be thankful for at this season is the downward trend of food prices. We are all grateful for that.

But the owners of the Grabateria are particularly thankful for the handsome business it has done all thru this year.

It is to our many patrons we wish to express our appreciation for their patronage and good will that has enabled us to be a factor in the life of the best locality in the City of Portland.

So we extend to you all our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

A Merry Christmas to all our readers.

Tuesday was the shortest day of the year.

Do your Christmas shopping in St. Johns.

Some beautiful decorations are presented in the display windows of St. Johns.

Owen & Pratt have purchased the Rassi grocery store at the corner of Polk and Jersey streets.

Mr. Bord has disposed of his residence at the corner of Ivanhoe and Mohawk streets and has gone to Corvallis.

The St. Johns Cash Market has undergone some attractive alterations and improvements, and presents a most pleasing and inviting appearance.

A miniature manger of Bethlehem has been loaned the St. Johns library for Christmas week. Take the children to see this beautiful cliche of the Christ child.

Besides the regular Thursday night dances the Knights of Pythias will give a dance Christmas night and also on New Year's night. Lovers of dancing should not fail to make a note of this.

Congregational church, pastor, Rev. J. W. Threlfall: Christmas Sunday exercises—Sunday school, 10 to 11; service, 11 to 12, subject, "A Christian Christmas." In the evening at 7:30 members of the Congregational choir will give a Christmas sacred concert.

Mrs. B. L. Ogden and daughter, Miss Ernestine Ogden, left for their home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, after an extended stay in St. Johns. Mrs. Ogden is the mother of Mrs. B. A. Olson, Mrs. F. S. Merritt, Mrs. B. B. Coates and Mrs. A. Kargas of this city.

J. E. Pangborn and family have decided to make Medford, Oregon, their permanent home, and last week sold their property here. Mrs. Pangborn and children have been in Medford for the past couple of months, and where her health has vastly improved.

Wm. Peterson of White Salmon, Wash., and well known to a number of people here, where he worked during the shipbuilding activity, died at the Vancouver hospital December 15th. He was well liked by all who knew him. Paralysis was the cause of his death.

The Episcopal Christmas service will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at Bickner's hall, and will consist of the celebration of the Holy Communion and a sermon by the vicar, the Rev. John D. Rice. The Children's Christmas service and entertainment will be held Sunday afternoon at the hall at 3 o'clock. To this service both young and old are invited.

Samuel Wickwire of 433 East Buchanan street died December 13th of heart trouble. He was born in Romney, Ontario, Canada, in 1860, and had resided in St. Johns for the past three years. He is survived by his widow and one son, Henry Wickwire. The funeral took place December 15th at 3 p. m. from Miller & Tracey's undertaking parlors. Interment in Rose City cemetery.

Doric lodge No. 132, A. F. and A. M., elected and installed officers Wednesday as follows: John M. Blair, W. M.; Ross Walker, S. W.; Arch L. Smock, J. W.; F. P. Drinker, treasurer; A. W. Davis, secretary; C. B. Russell, S. D.; Walter S. Ormandy, J. D.; Dean H. Knowles, S. S.; E. P. Borden, J. S.; Roy H. Knowles, Mar.; George H. Lemon, Tyler, and Randolph Graden, chaplain. During the past year the membership has been increased sixty.

Christine Toole died at her home, 1122 N. Central Ave., St. Johns, Portland, Oregon, Sunday morning, December 19, 1920, at 11 o'clock, after an illness of two months. She was a student of the James John high school. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Toole of this city, being 16 years old. She is survived by mother and father and the following brothers: Thornton, Charles and Nicole of this city, Joseph of Klamath Falls, Ore., Clarence of Lakeview, Ore., and the following sisters: Althea of this city, Mrs. Chas. Celmer of San Francisco, Cal., Nettie of Summer Lake, Ore., Anna of Myrtle Creek, Ore. The funeral services will be held from the St. Johns Undertaking parlors Thursday afternoon, December 23, at 1:30 o'clock.

R. E. McIntire is able to be about again after having his leg severely burned about six weeks ago.

Verne Mackey had the misfortune to sprain his neck quite severely while at play last Saturday.

The sewing, gymnasium and millinery classes at the Y. W. C. A. have been postponed until after the holidays.

Miss Arline Shaw is home from school at Seattle for the holidays. Her mother, Mrs. J. M. Shaw, went to Seattle the latter part of last week and accompanied her home.

Program for the Christmas concert given by the choir of the Congregational church Sunday evening, January 2, at 7:30 o'clock: The Herald Angels, choir; Oh Gift of God, duet, Mrs. W. W. Roger and Mrs. Threlfall; The Holy City, violin, Mr. John Oliver; Who Is This That Cometh? choir; Lord of My Light, Mr. Harry Fassett; It Came Upon the Midnight Clear, choir; An Old Fashioned Christmas Carol, Mrs. Gabriel Pullin; I Will Praise Thee, O Lord, choir.

The Loyal Order of Moose had an enjoyable time at their Christmas tree entertainment Monday evening. Judge Morrow and J. E. Dunn of Portland made interesting addresses on Mooseheart. There were more than 200 in attendance and the hall was finely decorated for the occasion. The Christmas tree was a fine large one and was loaded to capacity with presents for the youngsters. After the entertainment dancing was indulged in.

Christian Sciences services for Sunday: Christian Science. Mrs. Harry Seth of Lewistown, Mont., is visiting her sister, Venna Longstaff, 921 N. Hudson.

Enoch Coupe arrived at the home of his brother, Thomas, yesterday from Massachusetts and will make his home here.

Mrs. Willis Moxon who has been quite ill for several weeks at her home, 465 Roselawn avenue, is improving slowly.

The Battle Maids of the Kingdom of the M. E. church are busy practicing a tableaux they are giving at the church Christmas eve.

The paper is given over to Xmas matter in large degree this week. After the first of the year we are planning to make the Review a better newspaper.

R. McCarter has opened up The Little Fish Market at 118 Philadelphia street, will handle fresh and salt fish of all kinds. Compare his prices with the Yambill markets.

Mrs. Frank A. Rice announces a demonstration of the Danning System of Improved Music Study at her studio, 412 S. Edison street. Wednesday evening, Dec. 29th, the children from 5 to 10 years will demonstrate, and Thursday evening from 10 years and older. Everybody interested cordially invited.

When the assistants at the Peninsula National Bank gathered around the big and handsomely embellished Christmas tree at that institution Wednesday morning they were presented with very substantial bonuses as well as other gifts. S. L. Dobie made an ideal Santa Claus.

Mrs. S. W. Durham, who for the past couple of years has been manager of the industrial service department of the Peninsula National Bank, has accepted a position as associate editor of the Pacific Banker and has gone to San Francisco to take charge of her new position. She will no doubt make good in her new work, for which she is well fitted.

William Henry Wirth was born in Kansas July 7th, 1898, and died at Kalama, Wash., Dec. 12, 1920, at the age of 22 years, five months and five days. He with his parents came to Portland in 1907 and made his home here in the St. Johns district until last spring when the family moved to Kalama. With the coming of the death angel release came to a brave and suffering spirit. For more than two years he had suffered from an incurable malady. All that loyal hands could do or loyal hearts could prompt was done for him, but without avail; slowly but surely he failed. The sorrow of the period of his illness will be softened for his friends and loved ones by the memory of the brave spirit with which he met each day, and the sadness of parting will be somewhat relieved by the memory of the faith in which he went down into the valley of the shadow. He will be missed by a host of friends. The St. Johns Christian church especially, of which he was a member, will miss him from the usual gathering of the young people of the church.
