To The Public

Get out your pencil and paper and do some figuring. What we wish to know is this—Can you figure out how much longer your allotted time is in which you have to lay aside that little fortune that will protect your wife and babies from possible poverty in case you are taken away? If you cannot get a satisfactory answer, then join the Modern Woodmen.

Herewith is a table of rates which according to our experience of 36 years is adequate:

St. Johns Camp No. 7546, Modern Woodmen of America, while not heard of in our beloved little town to any great extent, is doing a lot of good. We have a camp of 160 members and a heart full of fraternity, and the member who does not enjoy himself blames himself because he did not attend the meetings. If such as we have to offer, which is the best in the land, suits you, Phone GEO. W. MUHM, Columbia 992, for further information.
