NUMBER 16

Mostly a Mental State

present in our country are what psychologists call a mental panic, and is likened to the story told about a perfect specimen of manhood who always boasted of George Skogmo of River Falls. Bradley was her guest of honor, nations with such a lavish hand during the War that we have become the greatest creditor nation the world has ever seen.

Our dollar is at a premium every nation the cent a month, or so on a soor a soor in the independent of the indepndent of the independent of the independent of the independent o erywhere, yet we are all scared into the belief that a great panic is imminent and the result is that consumers refuse to buy

A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson, of Marshfield, met with a peculiar accident, which will disfigure her for life. The child was playing about the Olson premises and was at the Cison premises and was attacked by a large rooster, which seemed to dispute her right in the yard. With his spurs and beak he tore the child's cheek beak he tore the child's cheek so badly that a number of stitches had to be used by the doctor who attended her to c'ose the wound. The girl was rescued from the rooster's onslaught by her mother, who, hearing her cries, beat the fowl hearing her cries, beat the fowl

A Hard Time dance will be given by the K. of P. in the skating rink the evening of March 17th. Prizes will be given and a jolly good time is assured. Tickets 75c per couple. spoke on The Kindergarten as an Aid to Child Development.

that consumers refuse to buy from retailers, the retailers from the wholesalers, the wholesalers from the mills, the mills from the mills, the mills from the resume of raw materials, and so the vicious circle continues, everyone holding back to buy necessary things and allowing a perfectly sound economic condition to become sick and panicky through a mental condition. All that is necessary now to return to normal conditions is for buyers to end their strike and resume buying at the deflated prices, at which goods are being offered by manufacturers and dealers who have taken substantial losses on their strock, bought at considerably higher prices than they are offering it for sale at present. —Marcus Alter.

Dr. F. L. Stetson of the University of Oregon and Miss Haprogram was followed by an en-joyable social hour. Dr. Stetson spoke on The Kindergarten as

You couldn't make them better if you made them yourself.

YOU couldn't buy better materials, blend them any more carefully or put them together with any better workman-ship, even had you been a lifetime on the job. For +100D in the new White Rock Portland has met all your needs with the experience of a generation.

Best grade wool uppers, all fleece linings, strong insoles, and the 4-ply tough sole of tire-tread stock — all driven together for miles of wear by the Hood Pressure Process. Ask at your shoe dealer to see the White Rock Portland.
