The Grabateria Cash Grocery

Constant activity, co-operative buying giving us quantity prices, no bookkeeping, low rent, lots of space, fine location and extensive acquaintance has spelled the success of the Cash Grocery business as conducted by the Grabateria. With the mills partially closed the business has kept up because it is known by those who were thrifty and saved that the prices we put on all our goods is consistent with the very low cost of doing business and they have the money to buy.

We are keen after the trade that expects us to keep the stock fresh and clean and of variety that appeals to every palate.

Our phone is Col. 102; our delivery regular and our attention to phone orders is personal.
