The Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

J. R. Weimer has disposed of his transfer and storage business to the St. Johns Transfer & Storage Co. who have assumed charge. Mr. Weimer has had sixteen years of continuous service in St. Johns, and during that time has made many warm friends, who extends their very best wishes for unbounded success in whatever he next undertakes. He has always been a good booster for St. Johns and he does not contemplate removing from the place he has resided in so long and likes so well. The new firm will no doubt continue to serve the public faithfully and well.

When a man exhibits extraordinary intelligence and progressive the world looks up to him as a man among men. His father comes in for a good share of credit for having produced such a son. The mother is generally forgotten. Women usually are, where credit is to be given. And yet it is the mother who brings him into the world—who is his constant teacher from infancy to maturity—who starts him on the road which he travels with such distinction and success. Women have never been accorded their just dues in this world. It will be many years before they ever receive them, although each one brings us a little closer to the goal. Man is quick to take but slow to give. Woman waits for her own.—Exchange.

That a street improvement campaign in St. Johns is long past due is fully evidenced by a trip over our highways. Great improvement could be done in a temporary manner by the aid of a scraper and roller on the dirt surfaced streets. Jersey and Lombard streets are in poor condition. There are many chuck holes and they are growing larger and more plentiful. Some of our back streets would be a disgrace for a country road. It is not pleasant to publicly harp on the condition of our streets, but unless publicity is given there seems little likelihood of getting results. It is a condition that must be faced, and surely should no longer be ignored. If we get nothing more accomplished in a civic way than wood streets this summer we will have secured much. Let us be up and doing.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Richmond Knox at Edison and Tyler streets Tuesday evening, April 10th, to celebrate his birthday anniversary. The event was a great surprise to him as Mrs. Knox had carefully kept it secret and had prepared a beautiful birthday dinner with a huge birthday cake lit with candles. The table was decorated with red and white carnations. He was presented with a solid gold watch chain and I. O. O. F. charm by Mr. Young on behalf of his co-workers at the St. Johns dry docks, to which Mr. Knox responded with appropriate remarks. The party was a complete success.

To the people of St. Johns and vicinity: I wish to announce that the J. R. Weimer Transfer and Storage has been sold and transferred to the firm of St. Johns Transfer & Storage Co., to whom I heartily commend to my friends, customers and the general public. And to the many customers, friends and boosters I desire to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation for pleasant and generous patronage for the past sixteen years, and hope you will show the same generosity to my successors. I will remain at the old stand, 109 East Burlington street, a sufficient length of time to settle up and close my books with all parties concerned.—J. R. Weimer.

Card of Thanks.—Our most sincere and heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the many kind friends for their sympathy, assistance and beautiful floral offerings in the loss of our beloved mother and grandmother, Elizabeth A. Lousure. Also wish to thank the many friends who so willingly tendered their kind assistance during her illness.—Rose L. Benjamin, Althea S. Ogden.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly tendered their aid and assistance during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, also for the many beautiful floral tributes tendered.—Mrs. Frank Ellicott, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ellicott.

One hundred first class envelopes with your name and address neatly printed on the corner for one dollar at the Review office. Additional 100 for 75c. The postoffice department advises the use of printed return envelopes.

Cards of thanks notices are charged for at the rate of fifty cents each. Persons desiring to have such notices published should make a note of this.

Miss Nellotta Cooper and Mr. Grover Randolph of Portland were united in marriage at sundown Saturday evening, April 9th, at the home of Mrs. Warren Wright, sister of the bride. Mrs. Dorothy Kronenberg, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Wright stood up with the couple. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Koster of the Methodist church, after which a wedding supper was served. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns. A very enjoyable evening was spent by the party. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. James Mullen of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wright, Mrs. O. H. Hayes of Portland, Margaret Speck of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kronenberg came up from Red Bluff, Cal., to attend the wedding. Many lovely presents were received. The bride and groom will reside in St. Johns, where Mr. Randolph is engaged with Mr. J. R. Morgan.—Reported.

It is a matter of great importance and financial advantage to wage earner to watch the advertisements in their home paper. If you govern yourself by advertisements in the Review you will be benefited. A business firm that never advertises in the home paper lacks one of the most essential traits for a successful business. This has been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt.

The sailing schooner Undaunted was launched last Thursday from the Grant Smith-Porter ship yards here. This vessel is a five master built from a hull laid down by the Emergency Fleet Corporation during the war. She is owned by G. F. Matthews, well known shipbuilder, the Hart-Wood Lumber Co. and a number of Portlanders. The craft will be used to transport lumber from the Columbia river mills to Australia and South Africa. She is one of the most modernly equipped sailing craft which ever sailed out of the Columbia.
