Freeman Bros., who conduct two stores in Portland, have purchased the C. S. Bucy store, which will be conducted on the strictly cash and carry plan. Their ad appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Bucy will continue to live here and will devote all his attention to his store at Portsmouth.

Messrs. Seberling and Lucas of the Seberling-Lucas Music Co. will give a talk on a band proposition for St. Johns at the Fraternal Booster meeting in the Moose hall next Wednesday evening. All persons interested in organizing a band here are invited to be present.

The drill team of Laurel Lodge No. 186, I. O. O. F., put on a splendid exhibition drill Monday evening. Afterward there was an excellent selection of songs and reading, and refreshments were served by the Lodge. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing.—Reported.

Mrs. Lillian Butler Campbell died at 114 W. Tyler street April 13th of apoplexy. She was born in Angus, Ontario, and is survived by her husband, J. A. Campbell. She was aged 60 years and three months. The funeral services were held at the chapel of the St. Johns Undertaking Co. April 15th; interment at Rose City cemetery.

Mrs. Justine Holland died at 1026 N. Leonard street April 16th, aged 87 years, 9 months and 25 days. She was born in Poland, and had resided here for four years. She is survived by three sons and four daughters, the sons and two daughters residing in Canada, and Mrs. Kuyath and Mrs. Lessing residing in this city. Funeral services were held at German Baptist church April 19th; interment in Columbia cemetery, the St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

Rev. C. P. Gates has returned from Unionvale where the annual Conference of the Evangelical church was held and reports a very interesting as well as a very successful Conference. The members of the congregation are very glad to welcome him back as their pastor for another year. Services Sunday as usual. Sunday school 10 a. m., Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Come and hear the wonderful story as told by Rev. Gates.—Reported.

Elizabeth A. Ford was born June 22d, 1844, near Warsaw, Ind., and died April 7, 1921, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rose L. Benjamin, 1078 Syracuse street, this city, aged 76 years, 10 months and 12 days. At the age of 16 she united with the M. E. church at Warsaw, and remained a member of that church until death. In August, 1862, she was united in marriage to Jacob Loure and to them was born three children. One died in childhood, and two are still living—Mrs. Rose L. Benjamin and Mr. John F. Loure of Warsaw, Ind. There are three grandchildren and three great grandchildren, one of them being Mrs. Althea Ogden and her daughter, Elizabeth, of 1078 Syracuse street. Funeral services were in charge of Miller & Tracey at the Evangelical church Sunday, April 10th, conducted by Rev. C. P. Gates. Mrs. Benjamin left that same evening with the body, going to Warsaw, Ind., where the final ceremonies were held April 17, and she was laid beside her husband and little boy. The family have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement, but Grandma, as we all loved to call her, is at rest.—Reported.

LISTEN—Here is one Roschell, Goulds or Rockefeller would be proud of the best and prettiest little bungalow in the West and absolutely the best location in St. Johns, and according to the prices that some houses have sold for recently this house is worth almost seven thousand, but it can be bought a whole lot less than half that price. You home buyers had better lose no time, for this will be on the market this week and the world has their eyes on it on account of the great World's Fair coming to St. Johns, and also the fact that the Northwest Steel Shipbuilding Co. is about to locate in the Grant Smith-Porter Bros. ship yards at the foot of Pesaculen street and also the fact that the big three million bridge is going to be built to accommodate the traffic to and from the World's Fair at St. Johns. It means so much to own your own home, especially a bungalow that is being blossomed out in a French gray, the only one of its kind in the city. See W. T. HARTFORD, 403 N. Jersey St., opposite postoffice. This beauty will be ready the last of the week. Call Col. 450.

Haven't you got that Kitchen Cabinet yet?
Mrs. Homelover:
A Kitchen Cabinet is a necessity in every home. It saves hundreds of steps every day. It saves Waste and it keeps your kitchen neat and tidy—this saves Work.
We want every woman in this city to come in and see our Kitchen Cabinets; to learn what a great convenience they are.
And we want you to learn our prices, because when you see how low they are you will buy one and be glad you did it.
