A very interesting display of old photographs have been on display in the Peninsula National Bank window through courtesy of T. J. Monahan.

Robert E. Tanner of Corbett, son-in-law of George Atchison, is in St. Vincent's hospital. A complete recovery is soon expected.

Miss Katherine Whitlow has returned from Topeka, Kansas. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. O. Whitlow, who is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Whitney Rose.

All the girls' clubs of the Y. W. C. A. will hold a rally Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the club rooms. Mrs. Geo. Hall will read and a good program will be given. Miss Gula Gamble, field secretary for girls' work, from Seattle, will address the girls. Parents invited. Don't forget the date.

"What was our First Estate?" This is one question which will be answered at the cottage meeting to be held at 8 p. m. Friday, April 22, at 524 E. Mohawk by the missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. A hearty welcome is extended to all.—Reported.

A book contest was held at the Library Tuesday, participated in by the 8th grades. Reviews were given on four books—Great Expectations, Last Days of Pompeii, Little Women and Jacqueline of the Carrier Pigeons. Dorothy Constance Young of the Sifton school won the contest on her review of the latter named book.

The women of Mooseheart Legion are giving a May Day program April 30th at the Moose hall. The program will be entitled "Earth's Garden." The playlet will feature Lucile Nubson as May Queen, Genevieve Nubson as Fairy Queen and a chorus of flowers, also a rain drop dance by Louise Rice and Marie Duffy. The play will be followed by a May Pole dance by the many bright colored flowers. Everybody welcome. Moose and their families are urged to attend. A few short talks followed by dance; good music.

A surprise handkerchief shower party was given in honor of Mrs. W. A. Sconce, 412 East Burr street, on her birthday, Saturday last. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and their niece Mary, Mrs. Ryan and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Orville Gaines and son and Mrs. Cheney. Mrs. Sconce was placed in the center of the room while the guests surrounded her showering her with handkerchiefs while Mrs. Cheney played. Mrs. Sconce also received a beautiful diamond ring from her husband. Refreshments were served and all reported it the most pleasant and complete surprise party they had attended.

The Fraternal Boosters held a meeting Wednesday evening that was highly enjoyable. Quite a large number was in attendance and enjoyed the evening thoroughly. A. H. Johnson of Commissioner Barbur's office gave an interesting and instructive talk on city hall affairs. Miss Edwards and Mr. Huntingdon gave pleasing readings. Miss Belle Williams presented the following pupils in songs, dances or readings: Deloris Laudert, Lola Warren, Margaret Getty, Georgia Siferte and David Richards. They all acquitted themselves in splendid style. Miss Williams was the manager of the "Little Follies," well known in California and the South, also recently put on the play for the Portland Woman's Club that was such a success, and put on the plays for the Multnomah hotel. She is planning to put on a play for the Boosters in the near future. The balance of the evening was given over to dancing which was greatly enjoyed.
