THE ST. JOHNS REVIEW

The wisdom of Fraternalism is like the wisdom of the sea. To the best of our ability it is our desire to exemplify fraternity by its practice by and between humankind, that unity and cooperation with each other may be the result of our endeavors. It is evident that the Boosters are progressing in this great work. We have the assurance that the Maxam Shirt Co. is now moving to St. Johns, will locate in the French block, and expect to begin operations about June first. We also have the assurance that our new park, to be called Pier Park, the name being suggested by the Boosters and adopted by the city commissioners, have therefore decided upon the name, Pier Park, which is promised to be made one of the best in the city. We now have a movement on foot to try and locate another manufacturing concern in St. Johns. It is an evident fact we will have to get as far distant as possible from the viewpoint of selfishness in order to accomplish things worth while. Engineer Gehr also promised to keep in touch with the Boosters regarding the street numbering system spoken of at one of our previous meetings that will enable us to get away from the ancient and complicated system now in vogue. The appointment of a committee to investigate plans to hold a Fraternal day on July 4th at the Terminal. We are contemplating having bands of different organizations with us on this occasion, additional to the newly organized Booster Band. We also wish to state at this time that "The Home of the Witchcraft," which is the title of the show presented under the auspices of the Fraternal Boosters at Moose Hall May 14th was somewhat handicapped, as the author, Miss Williams, had met with a sad accident only the day previous by falling and breaking her arm, owing to which fact her part in the play had to be omitted. Did you hear the Booster Band last Saturday evening?—Publicity Manager.
