

The Bachelor Club ball team registered another win when they downed Montavilla 9-8 on their grounds last Sunday. While this was not the best exhibition of the National pastime, it was the most hotly contested game of the season with the club boys leading the way. Montavilla threw a scare into the Bachelors when they chased two runs over the plate in the first inning. The second frame was a whirlwind with some word base ball on the part of Montavilla and plenty of free hitting from the Bachelors. During this inning four runs were chalked up which put the lead with the club players. Several additional runs were marked up when the bombardment of the third inning had rolled away and with a lead of four runs it looked as though an easy win was in sight. Montavilla showed plenty of fight from this time on, while that of the Bachelors diminished, and when the eighth inning was marked up the score stood 8-8. In the ninth the club players put over the winning run after two were out on Larsen's double and a single by "Cuppie" Poff. Montavilla did not threaten during their last trip to the plate. The official records show that two of the winners fanned while twelve of the losers took three unproductive swings. "Cuppie" Poff, catching his first game of the year, performed in superb style and was a tower of strength for Manager Marlett's crew. N. I. son at first played his usual smooth game. "Gummy" Teeling ran the game in faultless fashion as umpire.

Work will soon start on completion of large additions to the plant of the Peninsula Lumber company. The additions include an entirely new saw mill, dry kiln, planing mill, drying shed, dock, extension of the storage yards and railway trackage. Altogether the new construction will cost approximately $750,000. The new development is located north of the present mill, and will prove a great boon to the Peninsula.

Mrs. E. A. Blew and little daughter Ruth have returned from a couple of months' sojourn in St. Joseph, Mo.; Lyons, Kansas, and other Eastern points.

Sunday, June 5th, at 4 p.m. the corner stone for the New Church of the Assumption will be laid by Most Rev. Archbishop Christie. The new church will be erected on Smith avenue near Buchanan street and promises to be one of the finest edifices of its kind in the city. Architecturally it is a scrupulous adherence to the French Renaissance and a worthy monument to the Catholics of St. Johns. The members of the "Big Four" Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus and others will aggregate in St. Johns and march in procession, accompanied by the K. of C. band, to the Catholic church grounds, when the ceremonies will begin. Most Rev. Archbishop Casey of Vancouver, B. C., will be the principal speaker. The Very Rev. Fr. Burke, O. S. M., Provincial of the Servite Fathers in the United States, Chicago, Ill., will be present for the occasion. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon with a dinner after the laying of the corner stone. An especial welcome is extended to all.—Reported.

The Rev. F. R. Dawson, son-in-law of the noted Evangelist, B. C. Dewey, of Portland and country over, has been appointed to the St. Johns Free Methodist church as pastor for coming Conference year. He and his companion and helper in the great work of seeing souls brought to the Lord, I'm sure as a class we all heartily join in welcoming both to become the head of the flock, and will join with them in helping to push the old Gospel on to its intended end. The Rev. Dawson will deliver his first sermon at the Free Methodist church, corner Richmond and Hudson streets, on Sunday, May 29th. Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock, preaching following at 11; class meeting after the sermon. Now we as a church cordially ask any and all denominations or creeds to come and join with us. We heartily invite you all to come and hear this young man of God tell us why he is doing the great and noble work of the Lord.—Reported.

One or more misguided rascals effected an entrance into this office Tuesday night by prying open the back window. About two bits in change, which is as much as the money drawer usually contains, was taken by prying the drawer open. A pair of glasses belonging to Mr. Verion, who is employed at this office, was also taken. Besides spilling a bottle of purple indelible ink, musing over a box of cold dust powder, and scattering some papers and straining some ocks no further damage was noted. The party making the raid was probably a youth and of low mentality at that, else he would have known that a money drawer in a printing office is only a bluff and other valuables only a dream. At least such has been our experience after many years of faithful investigation. We imagine the foolish youth experienced some difficulty in removing the indelible stamping ink from his fingers and the gold dust from his clothes. If the next nocturnal visitor will notify us in advance we will probably arrange to leave the door unlocked and join in the search on a fifty-fifty basis.

The Fraternal Boosters

Just lay aside your business worries for a time and attend the business meetings of the Fraternal Boosters. We should bear in mind the fact that our communities are at stake, as well as individualities. It is our desire to have you cooperate with us that we may be able to work hand in hand in this great struggle for the betterment of all humankind and all that is good. To do all essential to bring about eventualities lying dormant around and about us, that we may accomplish things worth while. The question arises regarding the event of 1925. In the minds of most every one this city has the ideal place to offer for consideration. It would be most natural to think first of conveniences of gaining access to and from the Fair. Our water and rail facilities would be hard to excel, avoiding delays in transit, providing opportunities for parking and camping sites, which, to the tourist, would be most essential. A committee is working along these lines. It should not only be our duty, but our pleasure as Boosters of Portland to stand firmly behind them that success may be their reward. The Booster band is also a decided success, as before stated, with seventeen members and others have agreed to assist in this work.

It behooves each and every one to acquire a broader view of life, and the worldly goods at our command, to be on the alert, ready to grasp the golden opportunities extended toward us, to do all and dare all that we may accomplish the one great end—success. In the amalgamation of the great Fraternities here represented let us strive to bring about, if possible, happenings to show us the straight way to our goal, and the accomplishment of higher and greater things. We are but creatures of the earth, and in our broad and just decisions let us realize the fact that here we must dwell, and not try to soar to a level unattainable. You are hereby requested to be present at each of our meetings and become a Booster, if you are not one, for a city, our city, that stands out in glorious splendor for all that is good and just, and continue Boosting. We also wish to remind you that the third Wednesday of each month will continue to be an open meeting, affording enjoyment for all. Join us and help; there will be no regrets.—Publicity Manager Fraternal Boosters.

A man was found dead in the Withlacochee river who committed suicide under the conviction that he was his own grandfather. He left the following letter: "I married a widow with a grownup daughter. My father visited our house very often, fell in love with my stepdaughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law and my stepdaughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Some time afterward my wife had a son. He was my father's brother-in-law, and my uncle, for he was the brother of my stepmother. My father's wife, i. e., my stepmother had a son. He was, of course, my brother and in the meantime my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I am my own grandfather."—Exchange.
