THE ST. JOHNS REVIEW
A. W. Markle, Editor

Published Friday of Each Week
404 N. Jersey St. Phone Col. 321
Subscription price $1.50 per year.
The Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Cleanup Week May 31-June 4. Let's make a thorough job of it. Chas. J. Mue. expects to move into his handsome new store building the first of next week. His new building is one to feel proud of.

The Portland Woolen Mills base ball club will play the Nicolai Door Manufacturing Co. team at Columbia Park Sunday at 3 p. m.

The Fraternal Boosters will have a Fourth of July celebration in St. Johns. The various fraternal organizations of St. Johns have been invited to meet with the Boosters next Wednesday evening to make arrangements for a joint celebration at Pier Park. The Booster band meets every Monday evening at the rink. Bring out your horn and help the good work along. The Boosters are sending a communication to the County Commissioners urging them to speed up work of our district for which the money has already been appropriated. The Boosters are trying to locate a laundry here. Watch for the new Booster buttons. Join and wear one. —Reported.
